SHAW SEES RUSS FILMS AS MODELS

Sex Appeal in Hollywood Productions Called Last Refuge of Decaying Art

LONDON, Dec. 5. (AP)—Bernard Shaw compared Russian motion-picture films with those from home and from Hollywood today in words calculated to make American and British producers hang their heads in shame.

"I don't know whether it's possible to make Hollywood blush," he said, "but I am quite sure it's impossible to make Hollywood's British imitators blush.

"When you see Russian films and remember that never for a moment have they had to fall back on that last refuge of decaying art—sex appeal—we wish we could make arrangements for the soviets to come here and take charge of our educational affairs."

Fight Launched on Radio Law

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5. (AP)—The validity of the Raio Act of 1927, under which the Federal Radio Commission was authorized to regulate broadcasting, was assailed in the Supreme Court today.

It was contended by three Chicago stations—WRCW, WMBB, and WOK—that Congress in the exercise of its control over interstate commerce, had exceeded its powers when it authorized the commission to refuse to renew licenses without providing compensation.

HEAVY CUT DECREED ON ALIEN FLOW

Hoover Policy to Protect Home Workers Expected to Bar 135,000 by June

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5. (Exclusive)—The State Department estimated today that President Hoover's policy of tightening up on immigration visas to keep out persons who might add to the unemployment problem will result, by June 30, next, in the turning back of 135,000 aliens who normally would have been allowed to enter the country.

Reports from consular officers assigned to twenty-one countries, whose annual quotas represent 148,466 of the 153,714 permissible immigration visas show, according to the State Department that during October only 1668 visas were issued as compared with 14,808 allowable under ordinary conditions. This represented an underissue of visas amounting to 87 per cent and illustrates the effective manner in which American consuls are carrying out President Hoover's orders.

Mexican immigration has been reduced 94 per cent under the volume that applied before the State and Labor departments set out eighteen months ago to show Congress they could handle the problem on the southern border without enactment of the offensive quota legislation.

The State Department figures show that only 236 Mexicans received visas for entry into the United States during October, compared with 3993 in October of 1928, the last comparable month before strict enforcement of border regulations were put into effect.

Pompeii Yields Rich Treasure

POMPEII (Italy) Dec. 5. (AP)—A rich store of gold and silver vessels from the days of 79 A.D., when an eruption of Mt. Vesuvius buried this city, was found today by government excavators who uncovered a large house.

Archeologists said the find will rival in quantity and artistic and historic value the famous treasure uncovered at Boscoreale in 1895. This now is in the Louvre Museum in Paris.

DRYS SHOW STRENGTH

Bowl Over Foes by 106 to 54

Vote Taken on Proposal to Eliminate Poisonous Denaturants

Other Similar Amendments Shouted Down Without Recorded Vote

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5. (Exclusive)—The wets were bowled over, 106 to 54, in the first test of prohibition strength of the session of the House today.

By this two-to-one margin, the drys, on a standing vote, repulsed the annual effort to force an amendment into the Treasury appropriation bill outlawing the use of poisonous denaturants in the treatment of industrial alcohol. The amendment was offered by Representative Linthicum, Maryland, Democrat, chairman of the wet bloc, and was the subject of spirited debate.

OTHERS REJECTED

After it was disposed of the House shouted down by viva voce vote another amendment, by Representative Boylan, New York, Democrat, declaring it the policy of Congress and the government to spend money for "poison" in alcohol. This was simply a wet gesture and only one or two feeble voices were raised in its behalf.

Similarly, without record vote, the House rejected other wet proposals, including an amendment by Representative Clancy, Michigan Republican, eliminating the $4,500,000 increase for the new Bureau of Industrial Alcohol.

A $10,000 appropriation for educational work in prohibition enforcement was struck out of the bill on a point of order raised by Representative Blanton, Democrat, Texas.

"The man at the head of a bureau that permits the diversion of 40,000,000 gallons of alcohol for bootlegging purposes isn't fit to teach prohibition," Blanton declared Chairman Wood, of the Appropriations Committee, registered no objection to Blanton's point of order

SHOW LITTLE FIGHT

Despite the encouragement they profess to have gotten out of the recent elections, and the additions that have been gained by the wet group, the antiprohibitionists were listless in battle save for the activities of old-time individua leaders such as Linthicum, La Guardia, Sirovitch and Boylan of New York, and Clancy.

The wet leaders tried to obtain some solace by pointing out that the same antipoisoning amendment was voted down last year by a vote of 107 to 27, while today's vote was 106 to 54, showing an apparent gain in wet strength.

TREASURY-POSTOFFICE SUPPLY BILL PASSED

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5. (AP)—Disposing of its initial prohibition outbreak of the session, the House today passed the first of the big annual supply bills—the $1,083,553,000 Treasury-Postoffice measure.

In doing so, it attached an amendment which would prevent possible salary increases next year to thousands of government employees in the various branches of the two departments.

The amendment was sponsored by Chairman Wood of the Appropriations Committee and is expected to save the government $4,500,000. The vote was 139 to 90.

It provides that none of the funds in the bill shall be used to increase salaries of classified workers in the Treasury and Postoffice departments.

This measure out of the way, House leaders made plans to take up the interior bill Monday.

NAVY TO AID SHIP HUNT

Fidelity Search to Expand

Destroyers and Planes From Aircraft Carrier to Seek Little Fishing Boat

Coast Guard Cutters Now Scanning Seas to North; Twelve on Craft

SAN DIEGO, Dec. 5. (AP)—At dawn tomorrow over a front of fifty miles the United States Navy will swing into action on one of the most intensive searches yet conducted, their objective being the little fishing boat Fidelity, two weeks overdue from her home port of Los Angeles Harbor.

The barren volcanic mass of Guadalupe Island, rising nearly a mile above the sea at a point some 220 miles south of here, will be the starting point of the search, which will continue until the Fidelity is found, or every possible clew has been run down.

Decision as to details of the search followed a conference at North Island just before noon today, between Admiral Frank Schofield, commanding the battle fleet; Rear-Admiral Joseph M. Reeves, commanding the carrier divisions, and Rear-Admiral William H. Standley, destroyer force commander. By noon the aircraft carrier Langley, which will be the key ship, was under way, taking with her a fleet of planes, which will take part in the search.

PLANES TO AID

From the Langley's deck the planes will take off and augment the work of eight searching destroyers of the Twelfth and Forty-sixth divisions. Included in this list are the destroyers Rathburne, Waters, Dent, Aaron Ward, Pruitt, Broome, Alden and Sicard; the destroyers Hulbert and William B. Preston were also assigned to duty as plane guards for the Langley. Twenty-four scouting planes from the Langley and six of the large flying boats from squadrons VP-7 and VP-9 will make up the aerial forces.

In all about 1500 men will be employed in the search for the twelve San Pedro fishermen who made up the Fidelity's crew.

CUTTERS ALSO HUNT

Meanwhile from Los Angeles Harbor every available cutter from Coast Guard Base No. 17 is covering the northern end of the territory. The cutters are working as far north as San Miguel Island. The Navy's decision to start its search from Guadalupe and work northward is based on the theory that the Fidelity, if she is disabled, has drifted to the southward with the current.

The Fidelity, a purse seine boat, was last seen during a heavy blow on November 22. At that time the vessel was fishing off one of the Santa Barbara islands. Planes from North Island conducted a search for it during the Thanksgiving holidays as did the destroyers Dent, Noa and Upshur.

POISON FOG KILLS SCORES IN TERRORIZED BELGIUM

Deadly Black Mist Creeps on as Men and Animals Die Horribly; Noxious Vapors Invade Paris

[Copyright, 1930, by the Chicago Tribune]

PARIS, Dec. 5. (Exclusive)—A black fog which crept out of the North Sea is spreading terror over Northwestern Europe tonight, and in the district of the Meuse Valley in Belgium near Liege, it is responsible for more than three-score mysterious deaths.

It is in the little town of Engis of 4000 inhabitants, a few miles from Liege, and the villages roundabout where the ghastly terror is most strongly manifest. Following the terrible storm of four days ago there has been a thick blinding fog, so thick that it has been impossible to see across the streets, and accompanied with intense cold.

On the first day eleven persons died with symptoms of suffocation, but as they were all suffering from chronic asthma, it was believed at first that the cold, thick atmosphere was merely too much for them.

MANY MORE STRICKEN

In the last twenty-four hours, however, a number of healthy persons were mysteriously stricken down, men, women and children. Some passed out quietly in their beds and others were suddenly and fatally overcome while walking in the streets. Victims falling on the sidewalk, unable to walk, writhe for a few moments and then pass into coma which usually ends in death. The effect seems to be that of simple strangulation but it is impossible to say that it is not caused by some powerful poison paralyzing to the nervous system.

Sixty-four persons are officially dead from the fog, but as reports are coming in from small hamlets in the vicinity, the probable death toll will be considerably higher. Several persons have been taken to hospitals suffering from mysterious poison. The doctors who are administering oxygen stimulants expect to save their lives but they confess their total inability to make a diagnosis, saying that the symptoms might be caused from any one of a dozen kinds of gas poisoning.

STRANGE THING

The strangest thing about the fog terror is that while it is confined chiefly to a few square miles on both sides of the Meuse, the inhabitants have been struck down simultaneously at widely different points. Sometimes one person out of a group of three or four is struck down, while the others are not affected. Animals, too, are subject to the strange malady and many farmers are bringing their cattle and horses into their kitchens, nailing blankets over the windows to keep out the deadly fog and are huddling together for protection.

Chemists in preliminary efforts to analyze the air have discovered the presence of some strange and presumably deadly gas but they could not identify it. They thought at first that the gas came from a near-by zinc works, but this theory was discarded when it was pointed out that the works had been closed for more than a month.

PARISIANS GASP

The probability of the deaths being due to some man-made gas was further weakened by the fact that a couple were mysteriously asphyxiated at Calais last night apparently from the same cause as the Belgian victims. Parisians this morning gasped and complained of strange pains in their lungs, although no fatalities have been reported here.

Besides the town of Engis, which is seventeen miles from Liege, Belgium, nearly a dozen villages have been affected by the death fog, the principal ones being Flemallehaute with eight deaths, Flemalle Grande, four; Yvoy-Ramet, five; Jemeppe-Sur-Meuse, ten, and seven others.

VAPOR DESCRIBED

An eyewitness gives the following experience in the sinister fog:

"At first there was a thick blanket which made it impossible to see more than a few inches. Then that lifted a little, leaving only a sort of indefinite haze which reduced the field of vision, but did not seem to have any consistency of its own. Floating in this haze you can see wide pockets of grayish vapor, which gathers in low places in compact masses.

"It does not mix with the general haze, and you can tell to an inch where the thick vapor begins. It is only those people who have breathed this who have died, and even a few wisps makes you dizzy

RELIEF ADDS TO DEFICIT

Every Resource Put in Effort

Extent of Hoover Endeavor to Increase Employment Shown by Figures

Emergency Fund Will Put Treasury in Red to Tune of $330,000,000

BY LAURENCE M. BENEDICT
"Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5. (Exclusive)—Evidence that the Federal government under the direction of President Hoover is straining every resource to bolster employment throughout the country and otherwise offset the effects of the business depression is found in the fact that the $150,000,000 emergency appropriation requested to speed public construction actually increases the estimated Treasury deficit to $330,000,000.

The deficit will be further swelled by the proposed appropriation for loans in the drought area, the amount of which has not been decided upon.

The Senate Agricultural Committee today reported favorably on $60,000,000 for this purpose, as against the administration recommendation that it be limited to $25,000,000. It is likely the House Agricultural Committee will indorse the higher figure and that Congress will adopt it. This would make a deficit of $390,000,000 with still further additions in prospect.

FARM BOARD FUNDS

In addition to the foregoing figures the budget submitted to Congress sets forth that while no additional appropriations for the Federal Farm Board for 1931 have been made, it is anticipated that it will be necessary to submit a supplemental estimate of $150,000,000 to be made immediately available to meet obligations which, with the estimate of $100,000,000 for 1932, contained in the 1932 budget (just sent to Congress,) will make a grand total of $500,000,000, the full amount authorized for the Agricultural Marketing Act.

It was emphasized at the White House today that the $150,000,000 requested for construction will be used only on such projects as have been authorized, so that employment immediately will get under way when the money is available by appropriation.

PROJECTS AUTHORIZED

At the same time it was pointed out that criticism of the administration's desire to have this money placed at the disposal of a Cabinet committee, to be expended under the supervision of the President, is groundless in view of the fact that most if not all of all the projects it will finance have been authorized and the funds earmarked. Thus the President will have little say in deciding how the money shall be expended.

It is Mr. Hoover's desire to provide employment by getting authorized government work under way. No new construction will be financed out of the appropriation because such construction would be value-

LIFE SAVED ON DEATH BED

New Hormone Restores Patient at Mayo Clinic, Sufferer From Dread Addison's Disease

COLD SPRING HARBOR (N. Y.) Dec. 5. (AP)—Restoration of a man from death's door to apparently perfect health in forty-eight hours was revealed today at the Biological Laboratory here.

The man saved, a patient at the Mayo Clinic at Rochester, Minn. had Addison's disease.

At the clinic a purified hormone was injected directly into the veins of a farmer 39 years of age, by Dr. Leonard G. Towntree and Dr. Carl H. Greene.

MIRACULOUS RESULT

"Before its use," they reported, "the patient was excessively weak, bedridden, depressed, nauseated, losing weight and showed evidence of failing circulation. Within forty-eight hours he had taken a new lease of life, his appetite was excellent, his strength was greatly improved and he appeared to be in perfect health."

Addison's disease, due to failure of man's adrenal glands, has been recorded in the past in medical literature as invariably fatal.

The hormone used was an extract of the cortex of the adrenal glands of cattle, obtained in the past few weeks in unusually pure form by Dr. W. W. Swingle and Dr. J. J. Pfiffner of the Biological Laboratory.

These scientists first announced the extract in March, this year, but it was not then entirely pure, containing some epinephrine, a powerful heart stimulant which is secreted by the same glands.

Presence of this stimulant made it dangerous to inject the new remedy directly into the veins of human beings. It had to be administered by a slower method, subcutaneous injection, which caused considerable irritation.

Drs. Swingle and Pfiffner now announce that recently they have found a method of getting the extract so pure that it contains only one part in one or two million of epinephrine.

LABOR'S CASH CARPETS PATH OF POOR WAITER

"Inside" Story of Impecunious MacDonald's Life of Luxury as Recanting Witness

This is the fourth of a series of daily articles presenting an exhaustive analysis of the State Supreme Court's recent hearing of new evidence in the Mooney-Billings cases, resulting in a denial of Billings's plea for a pardon recommendation.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 5. (Exclusive)—In yesterday's article was described the extraordinary "deathbed confession" made by John MacDonald in Trenton in 1921 and his no less extraordinary recovery immediately thereafter, both less than a month after he had reaffirmed in writing the truth of his original testimony at the Mooney-Billings trials and had, incidentally, revealed that he was well enough at that time to work ninety-five hours a week as a waiter.

MacDonald's affidavit of repudiation, made under the watchful eye of Ed Nockels of the Chicago Federation of Labor, and Jack Johnston, his confederate, naturally created a considerable stir in San Francisco and arrangements were promptly made, ostensibly at least, for him to repeat his new story to the authorities there. MacDonald was given a free and luxurious train ride across the continent, escorted, of course, by the ubiquitous Johnston. The Chicago Federation of Labor, through the drawing account of Ed Nockels, paid for the transportation of both men in a Pullman compartment. MacDonald, incidentally, is inordinately fond of train rides, the "cushions" being a sort of obsession with him.

It was no part of the plan, however, that MacDonald should go direct to San Francisco to be interrogated by possibly unsympathetic persons and perhaps to have to explain to Capt. Matheson the remarkable discrepancies between his letters to Matheson of January 11 and his affidavit of February 7, described yesterday. Throughout the whole of his extraordinary performances are visible the "folds of the serpent," in the Supreme Court's language, which surrounded him.

TAKEN TO SAN JOSE

Instead of going through to San Francisco, MacDonald and Johnston left the train at Sacramento and motored from there to Stockton. There they were met by two reporters of Fremont Older's paper and taken to San Jose, where they were sequestered out of the way of the unfriendly and the incredulous.

For some reason, however, nothing happened. MacDonald's affidavit was never presented to any authority for action. His own explanation was that he was to have appeared before the San Francisco county grand jury but that he was told the grand jurors were not friendly to him and he refused to go before them. Whether his sponsors feared the story would backfire on them or whether it was merely concocted for the edification of a fund-contributing public does not appear. At any rate, a few weeks later MacDonald was on his way back East again—at the Chicago Federation of Labor's expense and with $900 in his pocket.

There he appears to have regained some of his waning courage. Or possibly some one had thought up a better explanation of the late fiasco. On April 6, 1921, MacDonald wrote a letter to Fremont Older in which he renewed his charges of "framing" and said in conclusion:

"Mr. Fickert knows that the statements I made are true and I have no desire to tell the truth. He knows what happened so he knows what I have got on my mind to tell. When he called me into his office he was always particularly careful that no one could come into his office while he was working on me and Mr. Fickert knew that if I was before the grand jury I would let out a lot more than I have let out already. He knows what happened and so he knows what I can tell. A lot of people were startled when I began to tell what I did but they would be more startled if they knew what I am holding back that I was intending to give the grand jury. So there is more to tell and I am determined to tell it."

THE "HOLD-BACK" STORY

By this MacDonald meant, of course, that his New York affidavit did not tell the whole story of the "frame-up" he charged therein and that he was withholding much more startling details than it set forth. This was naturally a matter of great interest to the Supreme Court at the recent hearings and, his letter to Older having been read to him to refresh his memory, MacDonald was earnestly encouraged to make known these additional details. He not only did not do so but he denied there were any. The transcript reads:

Q.: Now, up to date, you haven't added anything materially to your affidavit, have you, of 1921?

A.: No, sir.

Q.: Now, I am not concerned if it only has to do with some public official, but if it has to do with some incident you have left out in this case, I would like to know what you are holding back.

A.: I am not holding anything back.

Q.: Holding nothing back?

A.: No, sir.

LIBERAL "EXPENSES"

The court was considerably interested to know how MacDonald's 1921 trip to California was financed. Reads the transcript:

Q.: Where did you get the money to come on?

A.: I got the money from the Chicago Federation of Labor.

Q.: How much did you get?

A.: I just got my expenses.

Q.: Well, how much?

A.: I don't know. It must have been between $500 or $600, I think.

Q.: How did you get it?

A.: Why, through the secretary of the federation, Mr. Ed Nockels.

Q.: Did you get it in the form of a check?

A.: No, sir, he gave it to me in money.

It might be inferred from this that MacDonald paid his own transportation to California in 1921 and that this accounted for some of his heavy "expenses." On this point Nockels testified as follows:

Q.: The money which was necessary to send them (MacDonald and Johnston) to California and to return them was furnished by whom?

A.: The Chicago Federation of Labor.

Q.: In what form was that money, in check or in coin or in bills?

A.: In bills.

Q.: To whom did you give the money?

A.: I gave $500 to Johnston and I gave $500 to MacDonald, and I bought them transportation and a compartment to California.

Inasmuch as Nockels paid for the round-trip transportation and the Pullman compartment, the "expense" allowance appears decidedly liberal, to say the least. What the expenses consisted of does not appear. MacDonald testified that he paid for one of his two trips from Trenton to New York in connection with the affidavit and that Nockels paid for the other. Possibly, MacDonald having been in a "dying condition" at the time of his Trenton "confession," part of the money was for funeral expenses!

MACDONALD'S HUGE "ROLL"

In this connection the affidavit of Opie Warner, one of the San Francisco Bulletin reporters sent by Fremont Older to meet MacDonald and Johnston at Sacramento, is illuminating. In the affidavit submitted to the Supreme Court Warner said Older instructed him and Allen McEwen, the other reporter, to stay with MacDonald at all times, that they took the waiter and Johnston to the St. James Hotel at San Jose, that MacDonald was well-dressed and spent freely, on liquor and women, from a huge roll of bills which he was fond of flashing and which, he told Warner on his arrival, contained $1500. Out of this $900 was left when he started back East. His sponsors were paying for all his luxurious living so he had no necessary expenses of his own. And, a few weeks before, MacDonald had been a poor waiter, working fifteen hours a day for a pittance in a Trenton hotel!

Asked where MacDonald got this money if he (Nockels) gave him only $500, Nockels said he did not know.

COURT SKEPTICAL

To judge from the language used in its decision, the Supreme Court viewed the whole incident with a skeptical eye. It says:

"On the way to California MacDonald was under the constant espionage of Nockels's man, Johnston. When the pair reached Sacramento they were joined by two reporters of the San Francisco Bulletin (Mr. Older's paper,) taken by auto to San Jose, installed at the St. James Hotel, where for several weeks they remained, their hotel bills being paid by one of the reporters with the money of his employer, while MacDonald, well-dressed and debonair, disported himself among the questionable resorts and women of the town. The ostensible purpose of having MacDonald come on to California at this time was that of telling his new-made story before the San Francisco grand jury but, if such was the real object of his journey, it was never consummated or even seriously attempted to be so; and after several weeks in disporting himself, always under the watchful eye of his guardian, but with better clothes, more money and a course of luxurious living such as he had never had in all his life before, MacDonald returned East to his native city, where he has since resided. We turn from this sordid story . . ." etc.

LABOR PAYS—AND PAYS

By his own testimony, Nockels must have spent a considerable sum himself on his various trips over the country in search of MacDonald and in the time he spent in New York while MacDonald was in Trenton. Nockels also came to California to attend the Supreme Court hearings. All of the money for these things came from his drawing account as secretary for the Chicago Federation of Labor.

To these known outlays must be added $1500 of the federation's money admittedly disbursed by Fremont Older in the latter's labors in San Francisco on behalf of Mooney and Billings. As will be seen, Older is somewhat hazy in his recollections of just what was done with this money. Three hundred of it went to one of the "vital witnesses" as a "loan" that was never repaid and no accounting of it ever made to the federation. He did not mention the money spent by his reporter, Warner, in the weeks with MacDonald at San Jose.

What other sums were disbursed in similar ways from the funds contributed by union labor members and Mooney-Billings sympathizers can only be conjectured. The cash may have come hard to those who originally earned it but that it was "easy money" afterward seems to be established.

The next article will describe the final collapse of the recantation of John MacDonald.

Note: In yesterday's article the name of the labor attorney in whose New York office MacDonald made his affidavit of February 7, 1921, was erroneously given as Thomas P. Walsh. It should have been Frank P. Walsh.

EARTH SLIDE KILLS TWO ROAD WORKERS

OROVILLE, Dec. 5. (AP) — Ted Thornton, 30 years of age, and John Shields, 50, were killed near Pulga today when 3000 tons of earth was dislodged from a cut in a mountainside and buried the men and a steam shovel they were operating. The earth and rock slide carried the shovel and the men's bodies 500 feet down a cliff to the edge of the Feather River. A crew extricated the bodies. The accident occurred one mile from Pulga, where the Feather River highway is under construction.

GARY (Ind.) Dec. 5. (Exclusive) While high-school students were excitedly debating the sordid details of the tragic bacchanal which ended in a multiple attack on 18-year-old Arlene Draves and her killing, friends of the five youths accused of participating in the outrage today began raising a $50,000 defense fund.

Promoters of the scheme to finance the fight of the imprisoned men were scathingly denounced by former classmates of Arlene. Police Chief Bucklind said he had heard of the plan. He declared members of the fire department are behind it. One of the accused quintet was a fireman.

Five more guests at the fatal revel, whose names had been suppressed, came to light today when Lieut. Thixton revealed that Mr. and Mrs. William Sturtridge, Margaret Leeka, Richard Ellington, a student at Bloomington, Ill., and Josephine Rukas had attended the party.

Additional evidence has been given the county prosecutor to the effect that at least three of the youths accused of attacking the girl were sober on Saturday night.

Attorneys for the imprisoned five indicated their intention of setting up as a defense that all five were intoxicated and consequently not responsible for their actions.

MANY PERISH IN POISON FOG

and gives you a burning sensation in the chest."

This chest sensation was very marked among those who were badly poisoned.

LIKE FIRES OF HELL

"I feel like I had all the fires of hell in my lungs," one old man in Engis told the local magistrates a few minutes before he died.

The suddeness with which the dread poison atacks its victims is illustrated in the death of a young girl at Engis who, her parents said, was unusually strong and healthy. She was just returning from a visit to Liege on Thursday in the tramway and was laughing and joking with the passengers, telling them what fun she had in the big city. The car passed through a low spot where the fog was especially thick, and the passengers began to cough. When she arrived home the girl complained of pains in her chest, dizziness and difficulty in breathing. She took to her bed, lapsed into unconsciousness and three hours later she was dead.

The fog pall is still hanging over most of Northern France, Belgium, Holland and England. Early this morning there was an impenetrable blanket over Paris which was highly unusual and all day the sun shone feebly on the city gleaming with a blackening hoar crest.

SUN NEVER SHINES

The sun never shone at all over many parts of Northern France and the superstitious peasants waking in the night-black morning feared that the end of the world had come. The fog is particularly weird over the English Channel and many fishermen have returned to port with fantastic tales of "flying Dutchmen" and other sea horrors, which they aver they have observed in the black silence.

Last night, although the sea was perfectly calm, a derelict fishing boat drifted onto the Island of Jersey with all the crew missing and no clew as to how they disappeared.

SCIENTIST HINTS IT MAY BE "BLACK DEATH"

LONDON, Dec. 5. (AP)—The startling suggestion that the mysterious epidemic which has taken nearly sixty lives in the fog-bound Meuse Valley of Belgium is "something like the black death," was made tonight by Prof. J. B. S. Haldane, one of Great Britain's most eminent scientists.

"I don't believe the epidemic can have been caused by war gas," he said, "because deaths have occurred in different villages. They have been having floods in that district lately and it is possible that may have something to do with it."

The "black death" was the name given in the Middle Ages to a mysterious plague which raged in the fourteenth century and caused deaths which some historians say amounted to a third of the population of Western Europe. It is believed wet and above all foggy conditions are particularly favorable to spread of the disease.

The Daily Herald prints a telephone interview with the Mayor of the village of Engis, which is in the heart of the affected area. The Mayor explained he himself is ill with the mysterious disease and had got up from his bed to answer the paper's call.

"The 3500 inhabitants of my little town are terror stricken," he told the Daily Herald. "Nobody knows what the cause is, but it is associated in the popular mind with the fog which has lain over the valley the past few days.

"We have fourteen dead here already and about sixty in the hospital. Besides these there are hundreds suffering from the disease, but not badly enough to go to a hospital. The symptoms are pains in the throat and chest, with a severe dry cough that gives no rest.

"I don't think the theory of German poison gas, having been buried in the neighborhood and corrupting the air, is sound. The fog has no smell and no apparent taste. My doctor has considered the poison gas theory with his colleagues, but remains of the opinion the affair is entirely mysterious."

HEAVY FOG CHOKES STREETS OF LONDON

LONDON, Dec. 5. (AP)—One of London's notorious pea-soup fogs rolled inland from the coast today, choking the city streets with slowly moving traffic and blocking all navigation in the Thames. Two cross channel vessels, fog bound half way between England and France, informed shore stations by radio they had enough food aboard but were badly in need of water. So thick was the fog, however, other craft could not set out with supplies.

London Invokes Old Blue Laws

LONDON, Dec. 5. (AP)—Even London has its blue law disciples. Three high court judges have ruled out Sunday motion pictures under a law of 1781.

The Lord's Day Observance Society hails the ruling as a triumph, but theater men plan an appeal.

The ancient blue law, unenforced for many years, provides heavy fines for violation. To date the theater people and the city authorities have acted under what they described as a "gentleman's agreement," by which the Council refrained from prosecuting theaters which remained open provide dsome of the receipts went to charity.

Society Matron Held Murdered

PORTLAND (Or.) Dec. 5. (AP)—A Coroner's jury tonight returned a verdict that Mrs. Leone Bowles, Portland society matron, died from a "knife wound made with murderous intent by Irma Loucks or Nelson C. Bowles or both."

Irma G. Loucks, who also is known as Mrs. Irma Loucks Paris, and Bowles have been charged with Mrs. Bowles's murder, and are held in jail without bail.

Mrs. Bowles died November 12, last, in the apartment of Mrs. Paris. Bowles and Mrs. Paris were both present.

HORSEMAN OF NEW YORK FAME DIES

Gifford Cochran, Social Leader and Turfman, Found Dead in Hallway

NEW YORK, Dec. 5. (AP)—Gifford A. Cochran, millionaire turfman, manufacturer and social leader, was found dead today by a milkman in the hallway outside his Madison-avenue apartment.

Examination by Dr. Robert Fisher, assistant city medical examiner, showed death was due to a heart affection and to alcoholism. Mr. Cochran was 50 years of age. He had been in poor health several years.

He apparently had been stricken while returning home.

Mr. Cochran was a grandson of Alexander Smith, pioneer carpet manufacturer of Yonkers. With his brother, the late Alexander Smith Cochran, he inherited a fortune of more than $50,000,000. He was president of the carpet company several years and at the time of his death was president of the Phillipsburg Holding Corporation.

His chief interest, however, was horse racing and for many years he had been a close friend of the late Payne Whitney and Harry Payne Whitney, racing enthusiasts. The Cochran stable of nineteen horses compiled a notable record this season, winning forty-one races and purses totaling $147,920.

Cochran reached the climax of his racing career in 1925, when his Conventry won the $52,700 Peakness and his Flying Ebony won the Kentucky Derby and $52,950.

VICE SQUAD RAID BRINGS RESISTANCE

All Available Officers to Subdue 300 Men at Show in Hollywood

More than 150 policemen from four police divisions in the city were called early today to assist the vice squad in the arrest of approximately 300 persons at an entertainment of assertedly questionable character in a storage building at Santa Monica Boulevard and Highland avenue. The call for additional patrolmen was issued by Lieut. Mack D. Jones, head of the vice squad, whose detail of men found themselves unable to cope with the men attending the entertainment who began to struggle with officers in an attempt to escape the raid.

Several of the men attending the show eluded officers, but most of them were trapped in the building by vice-squad officers while they awaited reinforcements from nearby divisions.

Woman Linked With Robbery

OAKLAND, Dec. 5. (AP)—Oakland police said today they had identified a fingerprint on the automobile used by the Nobel train bandits as that of Mrs. Ellen Ellis, supposed widow of Frank E. Smith.

They said the print was the first evidence linking the woman, who is under Federal indictment for complicity in the McEvoy train hold-up in May, 1929, with the $56,000 Nobel robbery.

less in meeting the immediate problem. In all cases of new government construction, it was pointed out, great delay is involved in the selection of sites, condemnation proceedings, searches for titles and other legal details.

CAREFUL SELECTION

In order that as much work as possible may be financed by the $150,000,000 appropriation, the administration sought out every item of construction that can be undertaken without delay during the next six months. In addition the Director of the Budget is making further search for such projects.

At the White House today it was said that the Federal government will give labor all the assistance possible. What the government is about to undertake, added to the general construction work during the year, approximately triples the ordinary program and will push the cost up to the figure of $650,000,000.

Meanwhile the Treasury is contemplating a request to Congress to liberalize certain rules and regulations which now bind action in undertaking construction.

LOANS LARGE ITEM

All of the money which will be taken out of the Federal Treasury will not be permanently removed. For example, a large part of $80,000,000 which it is now proposed to use on highway construction, will be in the form of loans or advances to the States, which match the Federal government dollar for dollar in the building of arterial highways. Then, too, the loans to the drought-stricken areas eventually will be repaid.

It was explained at the White House that many of the States have exhausted their funds for building highways for the current fiscal year and in such cases the Federal government will carry on all the work, but the allotments to those States during the next five years will be reduced until the advance is wiped out.

HOOVER'S IDEA

Mr. Hoover is certain that the most crucial period of the emergency will be during the next six months, and for that reason he is desirous of not using the funds requested for entirely new work. Such an effort not only would be fruitless in meeting the unemployment problem immediately, but many difficulties develop when the government attempts to start new construction of postoffices and other Federal buildings outside of Washington which sometimes cause delay running into years.

In the case of highway building, and the rivers and harbors developments, plans have been so far advanced that they may be readily expanded. The President contemplates if his emergency fund appropriation of $150,000,000 is voted by Congress, to allot approximately $25,000,000 to rivers and harbors work.

EVANS GETS WORD OF PORT APPROPRIATION

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5. (Exclusive)—Los Angeles Harbor has been allotted $410,000 out of the $150,000,000 special appropriation requested by President Hoover to speed public construction as an aid to employment, Representative Evans of Glendale was informed today by the War Department engineers.

This will be in addition to the $250,000 for improvements and $125,000 for maintenance given the harbor in the regular War Department appropriation bill and will provide a good start for next year on the new breakwater project.

Representative Evans said he was told by the engineers that the Los Angeles Harbor allocation is third largest out of the $22,000,000 going to the War Department engineers in the $150,000,000 program and that he has concluded the allotment for the Los Angeles Harbor "is very generous."

It also was disclosed that out of its share of the proposed special appropriation the Navy Department plans to spend $1,055,000 at San Diego, a large part of it going into construction of a marine base flying field.

Secretary of Power Board Again Attacked

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5. (AP)—The Senate Interstate Commerce Committee has received new complaints against Frank E. Bonner, executive secretary of the power commission, and a part of the questions directed at the five appointees to the newly organized commission will be to learn their attitude toward Bonner. They also will be questioned regarding their opinion of the Federal Water Power Act.

Bonner has been described on the floor as a "power trust" man by Senator Norris, Republican, Nebraska. Senator Brookhart, Republican, Iowa, led the new attack.

So far no announced opposition has developed to any of the commission nominees.

Frank G. Snook, chief of the division, announced it is the policy of the State to revoke the licenses of all persons convicted of driving a machine while intoxicated in cases where the courts fail to take this action. Abstracts of convictions filed with the division are carefully watched. Snook has given orders to traffic officers to continue their campaign against drunken drivers.

SHELL ADVISES OIL CURTAILING

Largest Producer Anxious to Cut Petroleum Output

Small Fry in Industry Need More Profit, It Argues

Combination to Raise Prices Denied by Official

NEW YORK, Dec. 5. (AP)—Further curtailment of crude oil production and maintenance of prices adequate to permit the smaller producers to live from a small output were urged as vital to the petroleum industry today by officials of the Royal Dutch Shell group, the world's largest producer.

The stand taken by Royal Dutch, which has vastly expanded its influence in the domestic retail markets and intensified competition the past two years, has been viewed as significant in Wall street. Furthermore, this organization has been the keenest competitor of American companies in the foreign markets.

Although it had been reported from London that Royal Dutch has been suggesting a joint price rise by all companies, Richard Airey, leading Royal Dutch official in the United States, in a statement to the Associated Press denied such a move, explaining the organization has merely made known that in its opinion present low prices are bringing the small producer to the edge of ruin and endangering the whole conservation program.

It has been pointed out in Wall street that any agreement for a joint price rise would be likely to bring an investigation by the Department of Justice under the antitrust laws.

Mr. Airey said, however, the copper and steel industries have endeavored to improve their position and the oil industry should find means to do likewise. Copper producers have expressed the opinion that refusal to sell copper at a loss can scarcely be regarded as a violation of the antitrust laws.

HEALTH CHAMPIONS PICKED

Iowa Girl and Missouri Boy Have Highest Score in 4-H Club's National Contest

CHICAGO, Dec. 5. (Exclusive)—She wears woolen stockings and flat-heeled shoes. She does not smoke cigarettes. She has never been to a night club or to a tea-dance.

The good warm earth of Grundy county, Iowa, has nourished her, and the sun in the corn field and the winter winds on the long daily tramp to school have left her cheeks like the rose.

Blue eyes, flaxen haircut in boyish bob, a sweet modest smile, a blue sailor dress, complete the picture of Marian E. Syndergaard, 15 years of age, winner of the National Health Club contest of the 4-H Club.

NATIONAL WINNERS

She was the winner in a group of twenty girls from all parts of the United States, examined by nurses, dentists and doctors at the McCormick Memorial Institute. The 4-H Club has just concluded its ninth annual congress in Chicago and 1400 members were here, each a winner in local contests.

Fifteen boys also contested, and the high score here was made by William R. Bodenhamer, 20 years of age, of Johnson county, Missouri.

It was a close contest and the doctors had to check over their candidates several times. Marian's score was 99.7 and William got 98.7. The girl failed to make a perfect score only because of a slight inflammation of one eye lid, perhaps a bit of Chicago dust, and a small defect in the alignment of her white teeth.

SUBSTANTIAL DIET

She is a senior in high school and is the seventh child in a family of eight, her parents being of Danish blood.

Questions as to her diet revealed that she eats cooked cereal nearly every morning, with toast, fruit, eggs and milk or cocoa. Meat once or twice a day and plenty of vegetables. She helps her mother with the housework and sleeps nine hours a night. She drinks a quart of milk a day and does not take tea or coffee. Candy about once a week, after meals. Marian is 5 feet 3 1-2 inches tall, and weighs 138 pounds.

Young Bodenhamer is the youngest in a family of seven and is 5 feet 6 1-2 inches tall, weighing 151 pounds. His chest measurement is 35 inches and his waist 30.5. Legs slightly bowed and teeth defects kept him from a perfect mark.

He also drinks a quart of milk a day and has about the same kind of farm food. There are sleeping porches at both homes which are used in the summer and in winter the windows are kept open at night.

MARYLAND DRY RAIDS NET STILLS

Plants and Liquor Taken, but No Men Captured Due to Moonshine Signals

BALTIMORE, Dec. 5. (AP) — The "big push" against Southern Maryland still sites, said by Amos W. W. Woodcock, prohibition commissioner, to be the source of Washington's and Baltimore's liquor supply, has netted a dozen stills, and 200 gallons of whisky, but no arrests, Robert D. Ford, commander of the dry "army" and head of the Baltimore enforcement unit, said today. Mr. Ford blamed advance publicity given to the drive for meager results.

"Each time we entered a new road it sounded like the battle of the Marne," Ford said. "All sorts of guns were fired in warning by persons watching our advance toward their friends farther along that we were coming.

Besides the dozen stills found, which averaged 400 gallons capacity, between twenty-five and thirty still sites were discovered, the dry leader said. In each case, he said, the operators had dismantled the plants and decamped before the dry army arrive.

REDS ADVANCE THEIR PET IDEA

American Revolt Forecast by Inquiry Witnesses

Flag, Property Rights and Religion Denounced

Foster Balks on Names of Communist Leaders

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5 (AP)—The American flag, property rights and religion were attacked today by witnesses who told the special House Communist investigating committee that a revolution will end capitalistic domination of the United States.

One of the titular heads of the party in the United States, William Z. Foster, twice a candidate for President, said Communists believe in government confiscation of the necessities of life and that religion is "an opiate."

After lengthy questioning by Chairman Fish he added the "more advanced workers of this country look on the soviet union as their country."

ONLY ONE FLAG

"They have but one flag—the Red flag," he testified. "The other flags are flags of the capitalists and we owe no allegiance to them."

Foster previously had declined to name directors of Communist activities in the United States. Later he said he would "prefer not to name" the Moscow head of the American section of the Communist Internationale.

"He happens to be a native-born American worker," Foster testified.

To be a Communist, he explained, one must not necessarily be an Atheist, but he must "be in the process of liquidating his religious beliefs."

MARRIAGE QUESTION

"Can a member of the party be married in church?" Chairman Fish asked.

"My opinion is that any member of the party who would marry in church would be of no value to the party," Foster replied.

"Would he be allowed to stay in the party?"

"He would not."

Foster said a world revolution will be necessary for the elevation of the worker.

"The ruling class never gives up its power without a struggle," he said.

"So this revolution will be one of force?" asked Representative Eslick, Democrat, Tennessee.

"Yes, precipitated by the capitalists."

FEDERATION ASSAILED

Foster assailed the American Federation of Labor, from which he was expelled, and the "racketeers who stand at the head of the United Mine Workers." These organizations, he said, do not really seek benefits for the worker.

Israel Amter, Communist organizer for the New York district, told the committee he believes "churches will disappear of their own accord, even as they are doing in the United States, where they have to merge to stay open."

"What are you going to do with the ministers and priests when you close the churches?" asked Representative Bachmann, Republican, West Virginia.

"Put them to work for the first time in their lives," Amter replied.

PURCHASE OF MOTORS

The purchase of 400 army airplane motors from the United States War Department for the Amtorg Trading Corporation was described by Harry A. Heeney of Brooklyn. He said the motors were rebuilt and overhauled until they were "better than new" and then shipped to Russia.

Afterward, he said, he talked with an Amtorg official who saic he saw "about 250 of those engines in the air—the sky was just black with them."

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5. (Exclusive)—The House Naval Affairs Committee will meet Monday to give further consideration to the location of a dirigible base in California, it was announced today by Chairman Britten. Whether a vote will be taken on the rival claims of Camp Kearney at San Diego and Sunnyvale, Britten declined to say. "That will depend upon the committee," he said.

It will be a closed meeting.

UNEMPLOYMENT CURES OFFERED

Political and Social Science Academy in Session

Threefold Plan Suggested by Whiting Williams

Manufacturers and Union Officials Give Views

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 5. (AP)—Plans and suggestions to avoid unemployment were presented by more than a dozen speakers today at the first sessions of a two-day conference of the American Academy of Political and Social Science on the general topic of "Security in industry."

A threfold plan offered by Whiting Williams of Cleveland provided for great interest in international commerce with the object of utilizing the buying power of the world market, extra efforts in research for new products so more work can be provided, and closer co-ordination of the nation's industrial and social forces. Williams said he views with "crossed fingers" government insurance because it leaves out consideration of the morale of the worker.

CO-OPERATION NEEDED

International co-operation in ways and means of improving economic conditions was said by H. B. Butler, deputy director of the International Labor Office at Geneva, Switzerland, to be necessary in improving the situation in America or any other country.

Dr. Ethelbert Stewart, Commissioned of Labor Statistics of the United States Department of Labor, who said he spoke as an individual, asserted employment in America can not be stabilized if the same number of plants in individual lines are kept going as they now exist. To operate all establishments at their maximum efficiency would result in two-thirds of them being closed through overproduction, he said.

Higher wages and fewer working hours and days were recommended by Matthew Woll, vice-president of the American Federation of Labor, as labor's solution of unemployment. He asserted few American workers obtain "anything like a satisfactory standard of living."

INDIVIDUAL EFFORT FAVORED

John E. Edgerton, president of the National Association of Manufacturers, spoke in favor of letting responsibility for industrial conditions rest on individual efforts rather than on the government.

Government aid in the present situation was commended by Thomas Kennedy of Hazleton, Pa., secretary-treasurer of the United Mine Workers of America.

Pennsylvania manufacturers have found security in legislation, he said. He recommended as his program for security in industry complete unionization and contractual relationships between workers and employers and supplementary old-age pensions and other relief legislation for the worker who loses his job.

CAUSES OF WORLD'S DISTRESS OUTLINED

PARIS, Dec. 5. (AP)—Silas H. Strawn of Chicago, the American delegate and notables from France, Germany, Italy and Belgium today outlined the causes of the world's distress before the council of the International Chamber of Commerce, but were cautious about suggesting remedies. In view of the gravity of the matter it was decided to submit the whole question to the congress of the International Chamber of Commerce in Washington, May 4.

Mr. Strawn said one of the causes was the decline in the price of silver, particularly affecting the purchasing power of silver-using countries like India and China, containing about one-third of the world's population.

He also blames efforts to maintain artificially the prices of rubber, sugar, coffee, copper, wheat and cotton in spite of overproduction and underconsumption, and cited the accumulation of gold and state of apprehension resulting from these conditions.

Rene Duchmein for France took the stand for agriculture, asserting that industrialists should not remain indifferent to the difficulties of the agricultural masses. Dr. Alberto Pirelli, representative of the Italian chamber, also spoke for the farmer.

Sir Arthur Balfour, British delegate, said wages must be reduced if the law of economic prices is to be met.

LABOR DESCRIBED AS LOSER IN RACE

NEW YORK, Dec. 5. (AP)—Labor was described as the loser in its race with modern industrial machinery by two speakers today before the Taylor Society, industrial management organization.

Sumner H. Slichter, professor of economics at the Harvard University business school, charged American manufacturers shirk their responsibility to workers displaced by labor-saving machines.

He urged formation of a Federal board, representing labor, industry and the government, with the power to devise means for the "orderly marketing of labor."

Paul H. Douglas, professor of industrial relations at the University of Chicago, pointed out the number of factory workers has diminished while their output increased 45 per cent during the last ten years.

THREE SLAYERS EXECUTED

Ryley at San Quentin and Boss and Davis at Folsom Pay Penalties on Gallows

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 5 (Exclusive)—Three men went to their deaths in California's two prisons today in expiation of crimes in which they took human life.

George Ryley, 21 years of age, was hanged at San Quentin, and Alfred Boss, 33, and George Davis, 30, were hanged at Folsom.

Ryley and John Gomez, hanged August 15, last, killed George (Dad) Jones of Livermore, in a robbery which netted them $23.20 and cost three lives. The trap yas sprung on Ryley, who chewed gum, at 10:03 a.m., and he was pronounced dead at 10:15 a.m. Father Patrick Kerrigan of St. Raphael parish at San Rafael, who accompanied Ryley up the fatal steps, was overcome by emotion and had to leave the room. It was his first attendance at an execution.

Boss and Davis killed a clerk in a Sacramento grocery store hold-up that brought them $25 and also cost three lives. Both had served previous penal terms.

The trap was sprung on Boss, who smoked a cigarette on the death march, at 9:05 a.m. Davis followed him at 9:32 a.m. Davis's last words were good wishes for Warden Smith.

FARM PROSPECT REGARDED DULL

Board Files First Report With Congress

Production Cut Declared Only Remedy

Little Hope of Stabilizing Prices Seen

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5. (AP)—The Farm Board reported to Congress today that agriculture, to achieve a par with industry, must adjust production to consumption and perfect a self-controlled, economic system of distribution.

The first annual report of the board contained the views, along with a summary of the past year's studies, accomplishments and experiments.

Out of its own experience with wheat and cotton the board was able to tell the legislators that stabilization operations, without the backing of adjusted production, have a limited field. The board members pointed to the results of their stabilization efforts as an indication of some of the "difficulties and hazards" involved.

Particularly they said, did the failure of cotton producers to curtail acreage substantially in 1930 lead to defeat of stabilization measures.

As for wheat, the board said it has concluded the world outlook will remain gloomy through 1937, with the general price trend downward.

"The board could see no hope," it said, "for arresting such a movement or preventing its serious consequences to American wheat farmers by co-operative marketing as such, by stabilization measures of the type already employed, or through adopting any of the proposed measures designed to dispose of the surplus abroad at prices below domestic levels.

"The obvious economic remedy is curtailment of production so that the tariff might become effective on American prices."

Another recommendation emphasized by the board was reforestation, taking up marginal lands of little present value to preserve them for future years.

FARM BUREAU HEAD ASSAILS INEQUALITIES

BOSTON, Dec. 5. (AP)—Sam H. Thompson, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, today denounced inequalities which he said exist between agriculture and other business.

Addressing 300 farm women assembled for a two-day conference preliminary to the national convention of the American Farm Bureau Federation which opens Monday, Thompson asserted excessive taxation is the greatest of a number of burdens unfairly placed on the farmer.

GAINS ADVANTAGE IN MURDER DEFENSE

Mrs. Pearl O'Loughlin

PURPORTED CONFESSION RULED OUT

State Balked in Effort to Prove Murder Admission in O'Loughlin Trial

DENVER, Dec. 5. (AP)—Balked at every turn in efforts to get before the jury the purported oral confession of Mrs. Pearl O'Loughlin concerning the murder of her stepdaughter, the State planned to rest its case tomorrow, with the defense waiting to move for an instructed verdict for acquittal.

Late tonight the court ruled no admissions or confessions made by Mrs. O'Loughlin after her arrest could be introduced by police to whom they might have been made, since there was insufficient proof by the State to show no duress was exercised. It was the second ruling of that nature by Judge Henley A. Calvert.

The two decisions constitute a staggering blow to the prosecution, since Dist.-Atty. Wettengel, in his opening statement to the jury, said he would show a confession had been obtained and Mrs. O'Loughlin "admitted the act."

Under the rulings no police officer will be permitted to testify regarding any statements Mrs. O'Loughlin made to them. This bars Captain of Detectives Albert T. Clark, who conducted the investigation into the slaying of 10-year-old Leona O'Loughlin, and who was to have been the key witness in the State's fight to convict the 31-year-old stepmother.

RADIO WIZARD ADDS CHANNELS

San Francisco Boy Advances Television

Device Clears Up Detail in Pictures

Improves News Half-Tone by Five Times

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 5. (AP)—Discovery by Philo T. Farnsworth, youthful inventor of San Francisco, of a way of transmitting electrical images on a narrow band of frequencies, multiplies by about forty the number of channels which will be available for broadcasting television pictures.

This announcement at his laboratories here today was also supplemented by the statement that the principle evolved will make possible use of the new process for telephotoing pictures on the same wires used for the transmission of news by using inexpensive attachments to the teletype printers now generally utilized.

Farnsworth's narrowing of the band to three to six kilocycles is his second revolutionary development in the field of television within recent months. In his first he succeeded in doing away entirely with the scanning disc and transmitting without machinery or any moving parts. Using specially designed vacuum tubes for both sending and receiving, he was able to send motion pictures containing 640,000 elements of light sixteen times a second.

GREATER DETAIL

"Stills" he transmitted at the rate of twenty pictures a second, containing 40,000 elements, which is equivalent to more than five times the detail of a newspaper half-tone.

Sixteen pictures a second, the cinema has established, are all that are necessary to give the eye the impression of continuous sight.

This was done on ultra short waves on a wide band of frequencies and, therefore, its meaning in a practical way left much to be desired, for there would not be more than one or two channels available for general television broadcasting and it would take pictures, with sound accompaniment, into only those homes having short-wave receivers.

By narrowing down the band, Farnsworth, it is said, is able to transmit on standard wave lengths and the receiving apparatus can be attached to the ordinary radio receiver, although future developments probably presage manufacture and marketing of a radio in which the picture receiver is built into the cabinet.

NARROWER IN TRANSIT

The "picture" on its invisible travel through space carries with it all the potentials for the reproduction at the receiving end of the image with all gradations of light and shadow, yet in transit it monopolizes a lesser range or band of frequency variations than are embraced in the ordinary channel which the Radio Commission assigns to a sound broadcasting station.

The photoelectric impulses have the same extremes of frequency variation that sound transmission have in transmitting music from the lowest note of an organ to the highest of a soprano, yet the wave band need not exceed five kilocycles, whereas twice that width scarcely suffices for sound broadcasting.

TUBE ELIMINATED

Using the Farnsworth process for telephotoing, the receiving tube or florescent screen on which the image is reproduced, would not be needed. The electric impulses would be recorded in terms of light and darkness directly on the ordinary photographers' film mounted on a cylinder as is now done in telephotoing. If a positive print were desired rather than a negative, the cylinder would hold a sensitized paper instead of the film negative.

The synchronizing motor now used on the teletype, the automatic printers by which news dispatches are transmitted at a rate up to sixty words a minute, would perform the same function for the transmission of pictures for newspaper use. In the time now required to telephoto a picture, eight different "shots" could be delivered into the newspaper office on the same wires used to bring in the news. Although duplex transmission is possible it is anticipated that, in the interests of low installation costs, the news wires would be silent during the few minutes in which the photographs were being transmitted. In wireless transmission of pictures, synchronization is accomplished without the use of a motor.

BERLIN REDS TOSS ROCKS AT POLICE

Fascists in Demonstration Set Mice on Theater-goers as Feature of Protest

BERLIN, Dec. 5. (AP)—Communists threw stones at policemen and Fascists set white mice on theatergoers in a long series of protest demonstrations here tonight.

Up to midnight remarkably few serious injuries had been reported, considering the widespread areas affected by the disturbances, but the police frequently wielded their clubs in scattering crowds and occasionally fired shots of warning.

The white mice incident occurred in the one Fascist manifestation, which was a tumultuous protest against the German version of "All Quiet on the Western Front." In the midst of the performance Fascists, who were planted in the audience, shouted, "Out Jews!" hurled stench bombs and set white mice loose under the seats. Police were forced to clear out the whole house.

The Communists protested against the government financial program and "the hunger government" in general.

Several persons were injured by police clubs, in the dispersal of fifteen or more Communist manifestations, and one youth was reported sent to a hospital with a bullet wound in his arm and attributed it to the police. Three, on the other hand, accused the Reds of firing.

One policeman was accidentally wounded when his pistol dropped from its holster and was discharged.

In the Reichstag today both Communists and National Socialists trained their heaviest guns on the government's emergency financial measures which were fighting their way toward a final vote, due probably tomorrow.

LIVE BEEFSTEAK IN DASH GIVES BROOKLYN SCARE

NEW YORK, Dec. 5. (AP)—New York is a city of culture and refinement, unwary in the ways of such crass creatures as steers. It is not surprising, therefore, that when a 1200-pound steer went on a rampage in Brooklyn today, the population was greatly concerned.

A steer, reduced to beefsteak, is something New Yorkers understand, but steers on the hoof, steers that snort and plunge and bellow—they are something else again.

So the steer kept rampaging. The village peasants ran forth, waving their arms and exclaiming "whoa," which apparently was not the right word. Bold gendarmes flourished their clubs and struck toreadoric postures, none of which impressed the steer.

The animal made a dive for George Paskowski, knocked him down and then galloped to the top of an eight-foot pile of scrap iron where he stood snorting defiance.

Finally there appeared on the scene a native New Yorker—who most likely was born in Wyoming. He suggested that three or four docile cows be turned into the scrap-iron yard.

It was done. The steer, observing how well behaved were the cows, quieted right down and then was led meekly back to his abbatoir.

That portion of Brooklyn which had been running a temperature during the excitement, immediately returned to normalcy.

COAST GUARD'S REPORT POETIC

Rear-Admiral Billard Tells Sea Accomplishments

'Tis Tale of Tragedy, Pathos Skill, Nerve, He Says

Vessels Saved by Heroism and Dry Laws Guarded

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5. (AP)—Something very nearly approaching poetry was placed between the cold covers of an annual report today by none other than Rear-Admiral Billard, commandant of the Coast Guard.

The man who heads the organization charged not only with saving of lives at sea, but with the hard-boiled job of keeping liquor from being smuggled into the country, told of the story back of the cold recital of accomplishments.

"Statistics have the name of being cold, hard and sometimes forbidding," said Billard. "They do not in themselves disclose the chapter of tales that have wrought their creation. There is a story back of them, true and convincing, a story of facts, of high ideals, of tragedy and pathos, of self-sacrifice, renunciation, of brain and brawn, skill and courage, of battles with the sea when the storm lashes it into awful fury. These experiences challenge the best that is in man and show the stuff he is made of."

The routine passages of his report told how the guard has kept out enormous quantities of contraband liquor through its active patrol, constantly maintained with planes, cutters and destroyers. They recited the saving of 6004 persons from perils of the sea, assisting endangered vessels worth $49,000,000, patrolling of the northern steamer lanes against the iceberg menace and driving vessels through Alaskan winter to carry medicine and food.

It will require an increase in personnel and vessels, he said, to put an end to liquor smuggling, but considering the difficulties, "the results accomplished are very satisfactory."

But for the zealous work of our Coast Guard," said the admiral, "the amount of liquor smuggling on our coasts would be enormous without question."

SHEFFIELD HEADS BOARD

NEW YORK, Dec. 5. (AP)—James R. Sheffield, former Ambassador to Mexico, has been named chairman of the board of trustees of Barnard College, it was announced today.

MORROW NOW KNOWS SILENCE GIVES CONSENT

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5. (AP)—Senator Morrow of New Jersey has set for himself the task of mastering parliamentary law.

He chose Senator Goldsborough of Maryland for his instructor.

"Take this Senate calendar," said the teacher, "and you can't go wrong."

A few minutes later the pupil returned to teacher with a bewildered expression.

"Turn the page," said the teacher, "you are way behind."

"But," replied the pupil, "I haven't voted for this bill."

"Oh, yes, you have."

"And this one, too?"

"Why, certainly."

"Do you mean," asked the pupil, "that I can vote for something and not open my mouth?"

"That's the idea," said the teacher, explaining that failure to object means a bill is passed by unanimous consent.

When he returned to his office he told his secretary:

"Well, I voted for a lot of things today, but I opened my mouth only once—when I answered 'present.'"

Divorce Battle Continues After Couple's Deaths

RICHMOND (Va.) Dec. 5. (AP)—Litigation in an unusual divorce case, in which both principals are dead, reached the Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals today.

Charles R. Craddock was granted a divorce from Blanche Craddock at Alexandria, March 1, 1930. This was set aside June 17. Thirteen days later Craddock killed his wife and committed suicide.

Proceeding on the theory that when the divorce was set aside Craddock became a married man again, the administrators of Blanche Craddock claimed one-third of his estate. Craddock's administrators took an appeal from the decree setting aside the divorce.

Several Names Mentioned as Possible Choices

PARIS, Dec. 5. (AP)—France's parliamentary lobbies were in a [illegible] of politics tonight as the leaders of the thirteen groups making up the Chamber of Deputies and the parties of the Senate sought to [illegible] the atmosphere befogged by the defeat and resignation of the Tardieu Cabinet.

A score of statesmen and politicians visited President Doumergue today with advice but up to tonight the President had not chosen a pilot to steer the ship of state to safe waters.

The general concensus seems to be tonight that the President, in accordance with constitutional practice, may first call on some leader forming a part of the opposition which overthrew the government yesterday and give nim an opportunity to form a ministry. Most prominent of those mentioned are Theodore Steeg, former resident general of Morocco; Aristide Briand, Foreign Minister; Pierre Laval, close friend of Tardieu and [illegible] Cheron, former Minister of [illegible]

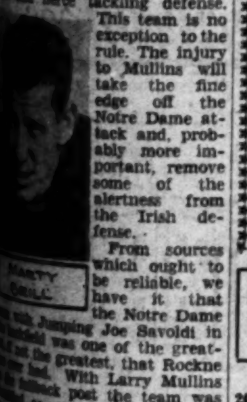
[illegible] Attack Deceptive and Speedy

Metzger, Wearing No. 4, Man to Watch Closely

BY BILL HENRY

Notre Dame teams are noted for [illegible], deceptive attack and an [illegible] fierce tackling defense. This team is no exception to the rule. The injury to Mullins will take the fine edge off the Notre Dame attack and, probably more important, remove some of the alertness from the Irish defense.



MARTY BRILL

From sources which ought to be reliable, we have it that the Notre Dame [illegible] with Jumping Joe Savoldi in [illegible] backfield was one of the greatest, [illegible] the greatest, that Rockne ever had. With Larry Mullins [illegible] fullback post the team was [illegible] as an exceptionally fine [illegible] Dame eleven. Without either, [illegible] a good team, but just [illegible] we won't know until this [illegible].

Marchy Schwartz at left halfback [illegible] scoring ace of the South [illegible]. He has scored nine touchdowns in nine games. Savoldi, however, [illegible] that many touchdowns [illegible]. With Savoldi gone, [illegible] speedy southerner has [illegible] the big scorer. He runs and [illegible].

At right halfback is Marty Brill, the burly boy who couldn't make the team at Penn, but is good enough for Notre Dame. [illegible] a fine interference runner and an exceptional defensive man. If Pinckert runs the [illegible] play as usual, he'll [illegible] collide with Brill and

Moon Mullins Not to Play, Says Rockne

Answering the question, "Will you play Larry (Moon) Mullins against Southern California tomorrow if the opportunity arises to use him" Knute K. Rockne, Notre Dame football coach, on arrival here last night from Tucson, said emphatically: "Larry Mullins will not play against Southern California! I don't know what the newspapers are trying to get at, but then I don't believe everything I read in the newspapers, either."

Rumors that Marty Brill, backfield ace, was injured, were also squelched.

"There's nothing the matter with Brill that I know of," said the "Sage of South Bend."

String of Victories Gives Team Advantages

Ramblers Make Less Errors Than Opponents

Four Notre Dame Men Win All-Star Honors

BY HOWARD JONES
Football Coach, University of Southern California.

This 1930 Notre Dame football team which Knute Rockne brought to Los Angeles yesterday has won nine straight games, which, when added to the string of nine victories in 1929, gives the Irish a record of eighteen consecutive wins. This is only one reason for Notre Dame being the favorite over Southern California, but it is enough. Followers of football and other sports long ago adopted the policy of stringing with the champion until he goes down and Notre Dame, unbeaten in two years of play, will, therefore, have plenty of supporters.

FRANK CARIDEO

Mr. Rockne has said that he doubts if Southern California will win by a margin of four touchdowns. Well, Knute has nothing on me there. I doubt it also. You only have to look back at our past games to realize how absurd this statement is. Three of the four years we have lost by one point and the season we won the score was 27 to 14. "Rock" claims that some Los Angeles newspaper men stated we would win by four touchdowns. And I read an eastern writer's article which stated that Notre Dame will crush any team in the country. It takes five or six touchdowns to cruch any team, so this eastern writer thinks Notre Dame is going to beat us that much. Which bears out my first statement that at Chicago it was the same old story. Carideo kicked one goal, while Duffield and Musick missed both attempts, giving the Irish another 13-to-12 decision.

Last year the Irish were slight favorites before the game, and they would be today but for the loss of Gus Savoldi and the later incapacitation of Moon Mullins, fullbacks. Therefore, the Trojans are the choice to a slight degree.

Savoldi, until his divorce action automatically let him out of Notre Dame, had proved himself the best power back of the year. He scored one of the touchdowns against the Trojans last year. He couldn't get through the line in two trials so he dove over it. Gus was a big 215-pounder who loved to play football and wore slivers on the bench itching for a chance to get into the fray.

Savoldi's loss hurt, but when Mullins injured his knee in the Army game Knute Rockne probably thought his luck was brutal. The defection of these two gents leaves the fullbacking chores up to Dick Hanley and Al Howard, the latter a 170-pounder from Alhambra.

However, Mr. Knute K. has emitted no sighs from Tucson, where he has had his boys in training for the past two days, bringing them into the city at nightfall last evening.

Back in the Midwest the newspaper boys have compared this year's team with the Four Horsemen and the Seven Mules of 1924 to the detriment of the latter.

In some respects this may be true, as far as Schwartz, Brill and Carideo are concerned, but it is doubtful if the center trio of Notre Dame's line this year compares with that of 1929, or of 1924.

Bert Metzger, the 155-pound guard, is said to be the fightingest demon that ever played in the line, but it is pretty hard

FACTS ABOUT TWO ELEVENS

Southern California Boasts Weight Edge Over Irish

Bert Metzger Smallest Man in Starting Line-up

BY RALPH HUSTON

In case you haven't run across the following facts in any of the many columns that have been written about today's classic, here are a few supersalient points that may be of interest:

BOB HALL.

Notre Dame unbeaten since the Trojans won that 27-14 game in 1928.

Trojans beaten, 7 to 6, this year by Washington State.

Trojans scored 115 points in 115 minutes against Stanford and California, their two major rivals.

Notre Dame averages 172 pounds on the line, and 182.5 in the backfield for a grand average of 175.8.

The Trojans average 191 pounds on the line, 184.7 in the backfield, for a grand average of 188.7.

The smallest man in the starting line-up will be Bert Metzger the midget Irish guard, who stands 5ft. 8½in., and who weighs 155 pounds.

HALL BIGGEST

The biggest man will be Bob Hall, Trojan tackle, who towers 6ft. 3½in., and weighs 211 pounds. And every inch a Grecian profile!

Marsh Duffield, and Jim Musick of the Trojans, and Tom Kassis of the Irish are the youngest men in the starting line-up, each being 20 years of age.

Baker, Shaw and Smith of the Trojans, and Culver, Kurth and Carideo of the Irish are all down in the program as 23.

West Holding Decided Edge

If Southern California beats Notre Dame today it will mark a clean sweep in intersectional games for the Far West this year.

In six games the West has won every battle. Here's the record:

St. Mary's beat Fordham.

Oregon beat Drake.

Oregon State turned back West Virginia.

Washington State blanked Villanova.

Stanford took Dartmouth into camp.

San Francisco University, formerly St. Ignatius, beat De Paul.

There was one tie, Minnesota holding Stanford 0 to 0 early in the season.

Line Play Key as Brilliant Stars Battle

BY BRAVEN DYER

Primed for the greatest effort of their careers, the Trojans of Southern California ran through a spirited workout in Pasadena yesterday morning and then retired to their Crown City hotel, there to await today's gigantic with Notre Dame.

JIM MUSICK.

And as the Trojans were resting preparatory to the season's greatest gridiron conflict, 90,000 excited fans indulged in long hours of prognostication calculated to reveal just how everything will happen at the Coliseum this afternoon. These rabid fans, themselves keyed to fever pitch for the struggle, will storm the big bowl to see how football is played by the pupils of two of the game's master teachers, Knute Rockne and Howard Jones.

They will see in the 1930 Trojan eleven the greatest offensive machine the Pacific Coast has ever known. They will see in Marshall Duffield, Erny Pinckert, Marger Apsit, Jim Musick, Orv Mohler and Gaius Shaver the most dangerous scoring threat Howard Jones has ever placed on a football field. They will see in these boys the best-rounded offensive combination the Far West has ever presented. And they will see, in front of this ball-carrying brigade, one of the finest lines Jones has ever molded.

If the various cogs in this machine are properly tuned and adequately oiled there is no reason to believe that three or more touch

These figures include tomorrow's sellout of 90,000 for the Southern California-Notre Dame game and a possible 85,000 gathering for the Alabama-Washington State contest at Pasadena, New Year's Day. For the 1929 season, the same section drew a total of 370,000 persons.

HOW TO AVOID TRAFFIC JAMS TODAY

As a final reminder to football fans to avoid traffic congestion at the Coliseum today, the management of the Southern California-Notre Dame game emphatically urges those who will attend the contest to start early so that they cannot only keep out of the rush but also enjoy the big Trojan homecoming parade which will enter the stadium at 1 o'clock.

In order to assist the traffic management in the vicinity of the Coliseum, there will be no parking in the following areas:

Vermont avenue, between Santa Barbara and Exposition Boulevard.

Exposition Boulevard, between Menlo and Budlong.

Santa Barbara, Figueroa to Vermont.

Thirty-ninth street, Vermont to Wisconsin.

Menlo avenue, east side of street from Thirty-ninth street to Exposition Boulevard.

Streets recently under repair at the Coliseum are now open. Those attending the game are urged to start early, take in the unique parade at 1 o'clock, keep their cars away from the immediate vicinity of the stadium, hold on to their own tickets and seat stubs, and keep good-natured in the jam.

Four Attractive Games to Draw Eastern Football Followers on Today's Progra

PENNSYLVANIA TACKLES NAVY

Maryland Goes Against Western Maryland

Colgate and New York U. in Grid Battle

Pittsburgh Eleven Faces W. and J. Outfit

BY TED VOSBURGH
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Dec. 5. (AP)—Four good games, comprising an unusually heavy schedule for so late in the year, will attract upward of 120,000 fans to eastern gridirons tomorrow.

Only two of the four were on the day's card originally—the Navy-Pennsylvania fray at Philadelphia, and the Maryland-Western Maryland tussle at Baltimore.

A special added attraction is the post-season clash between Colgate and New York University at the Yankee Stadium for the benefit of the unemployed, a game in which Colgate's claims to a place among the three or four best teams in the East will be thoroughly tested.

The fourth game brings together two old rivals at Pittsburgh—Carnegie Tech and Washington-Jefferson. This contest, marking the sixteenth renewal of a rivalry begun in 1906, was scheduled originally for last Saturday, but was postponed because of bad weather.

Interest in the Navy-Penn conflict is heightened by the fact that the Army and Navy are to meet here a week later for charity's sake in the first service game since 1927. Both the Quakers and the Middies have had disappointing seasons, but there is little to choose between them in the advance reckoning and one of those hard-fought, thrill-packed games is anticipated.

The battle for the Maryland State championship promises plenty of fireworks with Dick Harlow's Green Terrors from Western Maryland carrying an undefeated record of two years' standing into action against the old liners.

W. and J. once made an annual habit of trouncing Carnegie Tech, but those days are gone. This year's game finds the Tartans apparently stronger on paper, although the Presidents figure to be at their best with Rush, a star halfback, in the line-up again after being out with injuries most of the season.

Hoover Eleven Tips Glendale

In a post-season high-school game, held in the interests of charity, Coach Vic Cameron's Herbert Hoover High eleven nosed out the Glendale squad, mentored by Russ Cripe, by 12 to 6 score in a game played at Patterson Field, Occidental College, yesterday afternoon before a crowd of approximately 5000. This was the first football contest ever held between the two Glendale schools. The proceeds of the game will go to the Glendale Elks lodge, which will distribute it in one way or another among the poor for Christmas.

Glendale, who copped the cellar position in the Coast League, started the scoring in the second quarter, when Capt. Bill Barton threw a 10-yard pass to Bill Kingston, digit barker, who jaunted 40 yards for the touchdown.

Hoover finally scored in the third period, when Howard Bentley, quarter, plunged over from the 1-yard stripe to tie the score. The real thrill of the game came late in the last quarter, when it looked as if Glendale would hold Hoover, third-place winners in the Foothill League, to a tie. However, Bentley tallied, just as the gun went off, on a plunge from the six-inch line when it was fourth down. Hoover had a first down on the 2-yard line, but it took them all four to score the winning tally. The line-ups follow:

Glendale (6.)		Hoover (12.)

GARDENA DROPS TWO GAMES TO BELL FIVE

Bell High School's powerful basketball team won its second straight Marine League game yesterday when it scored a 30-to-17 victory over the Gardena cagers on the former's court. The play of Rodiger and Lyman was largely responsible for the home team's victory. The two tied for high-point honors with ten digits apiece. Hull showed up well for the losers.

The preliminary lightweight game also resulted in a victory for Bell, the score being 25 to 8. At half time the winners had amassed a 10-to-2 lead. Poertner and Cowles starred for Bell, the former scoring ten markers and the latter eight points. The line-ups:

RABBIT PUNCHES

THE BEST EVER

"THE GREATEST kicker I ever saw."

Tad Jones put that stamp on Frank Carideo during the Times half-hour sports interview which featured Tad, brother Howard, and Tom Lieb, the other night.

Tad, former Yale coach, is one of an all-American selection committee, and in the course of duties which brought him to the Coast for today's struggle, he saw the Notre Dame-Army game at Chicago last Saturday.

"It was miraculous the way Carideo kicked that heavy, mud-laden ball for 50 yards a crack at times.

"I have seen worse playing conditions than those that existed at Chicago, but never a punter who could toe the ball with such accuracy or for such distances on a muddy, sloppy field. Nor a more deadly man at putting the ball between the uprights after touchdown.

"And the kick he had blocked was not the Notre Dame star's fault at all.

"Mullins, second man in the tandem, slipped in the ooze, and King, the Army tackle, went right over him to block the punt which was recovered by Army for its touchdown."

SECOND BLOCKED KICK

TOM LIEB, who led the Irish to a national championship while Knute Rockne was bedridden last year, added that this was the second punt the Notre Dame quarter has had blocked on him in three years.

Curiously the other occurred in the Army game last year, and eventually paved the way for the lone touchdown by which Notre Dame defeated the Cadets.

Army had driven deep into Notre Dame territory, but finally the Irish took the ball on downs on their 20-yard line.

Carideo punted, but kicked the ball into Brill, who stepped back into the line of the oval as he warded off rush blockers.

Army got the ball on Notre Dame's 13-yard line, but a few minutes later Jack Elder intercepted a pass from Cagle and ran the ball back 95 yards for the touchdown that won the game.

Tad Jones also told of a similar incident during his playing days at Yale.

This was in 1907. Tad was playing quarterback, and Ted Coy was the kicker.

Coy failed to move back the required distance, and kicked the ball into Tad's beam.

The leather bounced over the line into the hands of the Princeton right tackle, and he ran for a touchdown.

Yale subsequently won the game in the second half, 12 to 10, but had a tough time overcoming Princeton's first-half lead.

ALWAYS A STAR

TODAY'S game will mark Carideo's second appearance before a Coliseum audience. He was a sub for Brady in 1928, but got into the game in the second half to unload a punt from the goal line to midfield and stave off an impending touchdown.

He also ran back a punt 52 yards, and paved the way for Notre Dame's second touchdown in the Trojan's 27-14 victory.

Last year he made the all-American, and in the Trojan game at Chicago he virtually nullified all attempts of the S.C. secondary to return the ball by punting out of bounds.

In addition, he unloaded one boot that netted a gain of 65 yards in the second quarter, and in the third period he returned a Trojan punt 30 yards, placing the ball on the S.C. 12-yard line, from where Elder in two runs around the flank and Savoldi in two dives over the line scored.

ABOUT PASS PLAY DEFENSE

THERE may be nothing to it, but one can't help wondering if another Notre Dame game may be lost to the Trojans by secondary defense play against passes today.

Three of them have gone that way in four years of play.

In 1926 Capt. Jeff Cravath was outfoxed on Parisien's two left-handed passes that brought a touchdown in the final minutes of the game.

In 1927 Dahman was over the goal in the clear when a pass from Riley plunked in his arms with Saunders nowhere in sight.

Last year it was on Saunders again, when he ran down the field step for step with Conley, and let this year's Irish captain take the ball out of his hands on a long pass from Elder for a touchdown.

HOWARD JONES CHARGES UNETHICAL GRID PLAYING

Speaking before a large gathering yesterday, Howard Jones, Southern California football coach, charged the last team against which the Trojans played (obviously the University of Washington squad) with "tactics which were not only unethical and unsporting but of so gross a nature that the man responsible should have handed in his resignation immediately after the game."

When asked last night whether he had made the statement attributed to him, Jones's reply was: "Yes, I did and I would not have said it if I had not meant it."

"We were advised, prior to our last game, by two Pacific Coast Conference universities whose teams had met our last opponent to be on guard for just such tactics as occurred in our last game here," said Jones. "What happened in the game merely bore out these advices which were in turn substantiated by my own players, both collectively and individually."

Jones's complete statement follows:

"Whether my team wins against Notre Dame Saturday or not, I know that they will play a clean game and that the highest standards of sportsmanship will prevail. My boys are the finest I have ever coached, and displayed in their last game a spirit of repression such as I have never before witnessed.

"And they were provoked beyond measure by tactics which, in my opinion, were not only unethical and unsporting, but of so gross a nature that the man responsible should have handed in his resignation immediately after the game, and, upon failing to do so, the institution which he represented should have demanded his resignation as soon as the facts were made known to them.

"I will no doubt be criticised for these remarks. I say them in defense of my boys and their sterling spirit. I say them in the face of the unjust criticism to which they have been exposed all season. And I shall continue to believe as I have spoken, so long as I live."

Southern California defeated Washington, 32 to 0. After the game five Trojan players, Pinckert, Sparling, Mohler, Gentry and Hall had to be taken to the hospital because of injuries suffered in the battle.

Five Hundred Policemen to Patrol Bowl

More than 300 uniformed policemen will be in and around the Coliseum this afternoon to insure orderly handling of the immense crowd of pedestrians and motorists which will converge on that location, it was announced yesterday by Deputy Chief Davis, head of the police traffic bureau.

Within the Coliseum and on the grounds immediately adjacent to it will be 200 uniformed policemen whose task it will be to see that the movement in and out of the stadium before and after the game is expeditious and orderly.

Ninety traffic officers who have had experience in the congested downtown area will be posted on the streets near the Coliseum to direct the motor traffic. In addition there will be a special detail of twenty motorcycle policemen, twelve of whom will patrol the streets near the stadium to prevent incidents which might lead to traffic jams. The other eight will be used as escorts for teams, officials and distinguished guests.

The regulation of the big-game traffic will be an almost superhuman task, Deputy Chief Davis said, and without the co-operation of the public it would be almost hopeless, he added. While he hopes he can take such co-operation for granted, he said, he warned that the police will be strict in seeing that their directions are followed willingly and alertly.

The two most potent causes of traffic jams on such occasions, he said, are left-hand turns either in or out of parking lots and moving of motorists from one line of traffic to another. Therefore, he has issued a special order forbidding either of these maneuvers. Parking-station employees have been asked to co-operate in enforcing the left-turn ban. Motorists observed trying to get out of the traffic lane in which they are traveling will lose their place in line, be shunted off to a side street and made to retrace their way to the Coliseum.

L.A.A.C. HOOPSTERS DEFEAT POET FIVE

With "Lanky" Hyatt, former Pittsburgh and all-American forward and now with the L.A.A.C. basketball squad, running up an individual score of 16 digits, the Los Angeles Athletic Club hoopsters last night trounced the Whittier College five by a 51-14 score in a game held on the Poets' court. The Whittier boys, who are coached by Vern Landreth, were helpless before the strong attack of the Clubmen, managing to collect but 14 points in the first half of the game to the winners' 25.

BASEBALL MEETING ENDS

National Convention Comes to Peaceful Climax as Draft Controversy Nears Settlement

BY HERBERT W. BARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

MONTREAL, Dec. 5. (AP)—After four days of verbal fireworks, the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues brought its twenty-ninth annual convention to a calm and unruffled close today.

Less than half of the delegates remained in Montreal to attend the final session. Most of them with representatives from the major leagues, were headed toward New York for the joint major-league meeting next week. About the only official business transacted at the final meeting was the appointment of a committee, headed by J. H. Farrell of Auburn, N. Y., secretary and treasurer of the National Association, to revise and clarify the by-laws of the National Association agreement.

Members of the committee included Thomas J. Hickey of Chicago, J. Cal Ewing of Oakland, Cal.; W. G. Bramham of Durham, N. C.; Warren C. Giles of Rochester, N. Y.; W. D. Smith of Birmingham, Ala., and Ross Harriott of Terre Haute, Ind.

The draft question, at the boiling point all week, settled down to nothing more than a steady simmer today as minor-league representatives expressed confidence the controversy between the majors and the five non-draft leagues would be settled amicably within a few weeks.

Although officially the committee of nine appointed by the three Class AA leagues, the American Association, International and Pacific Coast leagues, was the only body known to be empowered to treat with the majors should they desire a conference on the question. It was understood representatives from other classifications, A, B, C and D, would be in New York to join in any discussion that might arise.

There seemed to be no question that the non-draft leagues were agreeable to the universal draft under certain conditions. It was thought these conditions would include a draft price of around $15,000, with the minors privileged to retain a player for two or three years before he became eligible for the draft, and the added condition that the majors agree not to invade the colleges and sandlots in their quest for playing material.

Some of the major-league clubs, notably the Cleveland Indians, were understood to be prepared to withdraw from their minor-league interests so far as actual ownership and operation of clubs was concerned. They still are ready to aid the minors, it was said, but not directly through the ownership of clubs.

Less trading in players was done this year than in any previous convention of the association, veteran delegates said. Chiefly responsible, of course, was the current business depression as well as the draft fight, which severed all business relations between the majors and the non-draft leagues on December 1.

Name Fullback for Me, Rockne Says to Jones

After making four speeches at as many different gatherings last night, Coach Knute Rockne met Howard Jones in the course of his ramblings about the city.

"You name the man to play fullback for me today, and I'll put him in the game," challenged Rockne.

"No, I won't do that," said Jones. "I might pick a man that knows the position."

"Well, whoever I name, I'm going to tell him to get out of the way of the man with the ball and run for the nearest sideline," declared "Rock."

With that the rival coaches bade one another good night, and Rockne added:

"Go home and get some sleep, Howard. I feel fine. I'm ready for my licking."

Papke to Box in New York

Billy Papke, Jr., who gets the first great test of his career Tuesday night at the Olympic, will go to New York after the first of the year. It was announced yesterday by the boy's father that they plan to go after the big game of the light-heavyweights.

The 19-year-old son of the ex-middleweight champion meets Jimmy Hanna in the eight-round semi-wind-up of the Pauline Walker-Mike Payan welterweight bout.

Papke has won seven straight professional fights—six by quick knockouts. He has been under fire before, but Hanna is expected to be the real tester.

Papke, Sr., said they expected to box the James J. Braddocks, Tommy Loughrans and others of this class soon. The boy weighs 170 pounds now and is growing heavier every time he fights.

Sonnenberg to Respect Rival

"Dynamite" Gus Sonnenberg, world's mat king, made the mistake of underestimating Don George's ability as a wrestler, and as a result came closer to losing his title in their first match than any the champion has had in the past year.

That is the opinion held by those who are considered experts on wrestling in this section, who predict the return bout between Sonnenberg and George at the Olympic Wednesday night will see the two grapplers primed for a tough, rough slam-bang mat battle.

Sonnenberg is not underestimating George this time. He proved that by the size of the guarantee he demanded for a return bout with the young star, and his efforts to have the flying tackles barred for this bout. He will come into the ring weighing about 205 pounds, his ring weight for his most important matches.

ANGELS PEDDLE BARFOOT, WALSH

Chattanooga, Baltimore Buy Two Seraph Twirlers

Clyde Barfoot, veteran right-hander, and Augie Walsh, who failed to show winning form last season after a sensational year in 1929, were lopped off the Angel pitching staff in the pruning process now being employed by Manager Jack Lelivelt and Business Manager Oscar Reichow at the national baseball convention in Montreal.

Barfoot, who came to the Angels from the Missions in 1928, was sold to Bert Neihoff's Chattanooga club in the Southern Association, while Walsh went to the Biltmore Orioles in part of the deal that sent Outfielder Bill Barton to the Chicago Cubs.

Barfoot ptiched good ball during the first half of the 1930 race but an arm injury from which he failed to recover made him useless to the seraphs in the last half. Walsh won twenty-one and lost fourteen games for the Cherubs in 1929, but never was able to strike a winning stride during the season recently ended.

Maryland Gobs Fleet Winners

BY BERNIE HARVEY

Before a crowd of approximately 7000 officers, sailors and civilian football fans from the fleet and harbor district the battleship Maryland football aggregation sank the gridders from the U.S.S. West Virginia by a score of 26 to 0, to capture the battleship division football title and to gain the right to tackle the submarine base eleven from San Diego for the battle fleet title next Wednesday afternoon at Trona Feld, San Pedro.

Although they put up a stubborn battle yesterday the Wee Vee sailors were outplayed from the start and their heavier opponents had little trouble in tearing large gaps in their line for huge gains in the final quarter when they went over the line for the touchdowns in quick succession. The game started with the West Virginia kicking off. The Maryland received the ball on their 25-yard line and then started a march down the field.

Shipp toting the ball for the Maryland gained 15 yards around left end; he followed by going through center for 6 yards and on the following play he made a long run around left end to put the ball on the West Virginia's 7-yard line. The next play Keller carried the ball through center to score the initial touchdown. Shipp converted. Following the kick-off the Free Staters again pounded the Wee Vee line and Daigle took the ball from the West Virginia 25-yard line to the 3-yard chalk line through a broken field. Keller again scored on a plunge through center from the 3-yard marker. Shipp converted.

In the second quarter the Maryland launched an unsuccessful aerial attack and the West Virginia line strengthened by a number of substitutes managed to hold their heavier opponents.

The third period found the Mountaineers using an aerial attack and they managed to carry the ball to the Maryland's 4-yard line before they halted. The Maryland's goal was menaced on several occasions and the Free Staters were forced to punt on their first down several times. Maryland again had things their own way in the final quarter when they scored two touchdowns.

GRID BUSINESS GOOD ON COAST

gion, five institutions, California, Stanford, St. Mary's, Santa Clara and the University of San Francisco (formerly St. Ignatius,) played to approximately 700,000 spectators, a decided gain over last year. California's estimated total attendance was 387,362. It is about 54,000 less than last year, but California did not play an intersectional game this year as the one in 1929 with Pennsylvania which drew 71,000. Stanford's seasonal attendance was about 225,000.

The Pacific Northwest held up its end by showing a substantial increase. In Oregon, about 100,000 persons heard the call of the gridiron, against 80,000 in 1929. Football in Seattle coaxed out 125,000 compared to 80,000 last season. Larger crowds turned out at Pullman for Washington State's games this season, while at Moscow, home of the University of Idaho, the gate receipts were about the same as last year.

ROOSEVELT CEES WIN

Roosevelt's Class C basketball team, for two years champion of the Minor City League, made an auspicious debut into the ranks of the City League yesterday by whipping the Manual Arts quintet, 17 to 14, on the former's court.

COAST COACHES FAVOR TROJANS OVER RIVALS

Here's what the leading coaches of the Pacific Coast think of today's Trojan-Irish classic:

"Babe" Hollingbery, coach of the Washington State Cougars, Pacific Coast Conference champions: I think Southern California will win. I believe the last three games that the Irish have played have softened them up, and I expect the Trojan power plays to smother whatever defense the Irish can muster. In fact, I'll bet on it.

"Pop" Warner, Stanford: Results of the Notre Dame-Army, and Notre Dame-Northwestern games have caused me to revise previous opinions, and I now believe that the Trojans, playing on their home field, have an even chance to win. Previous to the two games mentioned, I thought Notre Dame had the greatest, and strongest team in the country. Now I think that it is possible for them to be beaten.

"Nibs" Price California: I look for the Trojans to win in a hard, gruelling game. Both teams have fast, hard-charging lines, and fine sets of backs. The loss of Mullins will hurt the Irish a great deal, as Hanley is not an experienced defensive man against smart teams like the Trojans.

"Bill" Spaulding, U.C.L.A.: I like the Trojans, and I think Orv Mohler will prove the deciding factor. It will be a great, hard-fought offensive battle, with the Trojan line giving Mohler a chance to slip into the open, and once there, he is a hard man for anybody to stop.

Jimmy Phelan, Washington: Being a Notre Dame man, I must favor, sentimentally at least, the Irish, but facts tell me that the Trojans will win. Those two hard games with Northwestern and the Army have taken a lot out of the Irish, and I think that will prove too big a handicap for Rockne's men to overcome.

"Tad" Jones, former Yale coach, and brother of Howard Jones: I've seen Notre Dame play, and I've seen the Trojans in dummy scrimmage, and I think that the Los Angeles team will win by a close margin. Notre Dame has a fast football team that is a great defensive unit, and while its line may not be impregnable, it manages to spring its backs into the open. I believe the contest will be an unusually high-scoring affair.

"Slip" Madigan, St. Mary's: I'll take Notre Dame no matter who the Irish may be playing, nor what their record is. I consider "Rock's" present team the strongest in the country, but also, I think that in Southern California the Irish are facing their strongest opponent of the year.

Paul Schissler, Oregon State: It looks like a toss-up to me. If there is any edge, it should go to Southern California because of the Trojans' powerful, hard-charging line. I believe that both teams will score, the Irish on passes, and the Trojans through the line, but I have a hunch that S.C. will score more often than Notre Dame. It should be a great battle till the final minute.

"Tiny" Thornhill, Stanford assistant coach: All I have to do is remember that 41-12 licking the Trojans gave us, to pick the winner of this game. Any team that can beat Stanford by 29 points, certainly can't lose to anybody, not even Notre Dame. But it ought to be a great game.

"Buck" Bailey, Washington State assistant coach: The Trojans look best to me. They've got one of the greatest lines I've ever seen, and that counts for plenty.

"Buck" Shaw, Santa Clara line coach: I'll take the Irish for two reasons. First, I don't think the Trojans will solve their passing attack; and, second, they'll be fighting for their second straight national championship.

Tom Lieb, Loyola: I'm still picking the Trojans, because of that powerful line, and Jones's many reserves.

Lions Go After Ice Comeback

Ted Leroy's Gilmore Oil Lions, champions of the Southern Amateur Hockey League last season, will attempt a comeback tonight when they face Clif Coleman's Sunfreze Bears. The Gilmore sextet has not been able to get going in the face of strong competition on all sides, but Leroy believes that his team has as good a chance as any team in the league. The game will be played at the Winter Garden.

All members of the circuit are closely matched and for that reason Leroy is not worrying about the early games. Two victories could put the Lions right in the running.

EAGLE ROCK CASABA TEAM CAPTURES TILT

Holding the upper hand throughout of the game, Coach Don Rigby's Eagle Rock High varsity casaba tossers defeated a fighting Owensmouth five, mentored by Coach McFadden, by a score of 20 to 17, in a San Fernando Valley League basketball game played on the winner's floor yesterday afternoon. In the preliminary encounter between the Class B teams, Eagle Rock was also the victor, trouncing the Owensmouth babes, 27 to 11.

Carlson, Owensmouth, was high-point man with 9 digits. Other high-point scorers were Long, Eagle Rock, with 8 points, and Bennet, Eagle Rock, 7 points. Eagle Rock chalked up their 3-point margin of victory in the first half of the game, while both fives tallied four times in the last period. The line-ups follow:

Sparks Signs Up at Ascot

A last-minute entry came as a surprise to the local speed colony yesterday when Art Sparks, Eagle Rock car owner, enrolled his new bullet-shaped Sparks Special in tomorrow afternoon's 100-lap auto race at the Legion Ascot Speedway.

Wilbur Shaw, intrepid Indianapolis youth who is one of the nation's ranking drivers, has signed to handle the car.

According to reports, the Sparks Special is an unusually high-powered creation, built along the same mechanical lines as Champion Billy Arnold's No. 40, which has been driven recently by Ernie Triplett.

It is a Model A Miller assemblage and will carry No. 37 during the season.

Sparks was reinstated only two days ago after having been on the A.A.A. suspended list for several months. The Eagle Rock engineer was barred from competition because of being a member of an alleged "outlaw" organization of pilots and owners.

O'LEARY TO WALK AT WRIGLEY FIELD

Dan O'Leary, 92 years young, and still kicking more or less vigorously, will be one of the featured performers at Wrigley Field tomorrow, when the Royal Giants face the Shell Oils in a double-header. O'Leary, whose walking ability is exceeded only by his performances at the table, will walk around the bases six times in five minutes, and if you don't think that's quite a walk, just try it some time.

Risko Shades Jim Maloney

BOSTON, Dec. 5. (AP)—Johnny Risko's great fighting heart gained that rugged Cleveland heavyweight a hair-line decision over Jimmy Maloney, Boston conqueror of Primo Carnera, tonight in their rubber bout at the Boston Garden.

Johnny suffered a terrific body beating in the early rounds but he was impervious to that sort of punishment and reserved enough of his strength to square the contest in the ninth and win the award of outslugging Maloney by the narrowest margin in the final.

Several times during the rough fray Maloney shook his rival with terrific rights to the head, but these blows only infuriated Risko into bull-like rushes that forced his opponent back to the ropes. With Maloney against the ropes, Risko usually whaled both hands to the body and ended the rally with a stinging hook to Maloney's head. Risko's best work was done in this fashion.

The score card gave each battler five rounds but Risko's wide margin in the ninth and his ability to stay out in front in the following session swayed the officials in his favor. The verdict was evenly received by the 13,000 spectators. It was the largest crowd boxing has attracted here in many months. Maloney weighed 196, a pound more than Risko.

PEACE PRINCESS WINS

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 5. (AP)—Peace Princess, owned by J. W. Marchbank and ridden by Johnny Maiben, galloped home to victory today in the feature race of the day's meet at Tanforan track. The 2-year-old ran the A. B. Spreckels course, a few feet less than six furlongs, in 1m. 11 3-5s.

KANSANS BACK IN GOOD GRAC

Jayhawkers Suspend Bausch and Return to Big Six

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 5. (AP)—The University of Kansas has returned to the good graces of the Big Six Conference.

Reinstatement of the Jayhawker school was voted late today by the governing faculty council of the conference after Kansas announced James A. Bausch, star athlete, had been declared ineligible.

The same faculty representatives who voted at Columbia, Mo., October 24, last, to cast Kansas adrift in athletics for the present scholastic year rescinded their action. Ostracism resulted from charges of subsidization and recruiting of athletes, brought against Kansas by Dr. W. A. Tarr, Missouri faculty representative.

In a statement presented by Dr. George C. Shaad, Kansas faculty representative, the erstwhile ostracized school promised to abide by conference eligibility rules and majority interpretations and to submit to investigation any of its athletes whose eligibility is questioned.

Any further investigation of the situation at Kansas, according to S. W. Reaves of Oklahoma, the faculty secretary, will be undertaken by the conference faculty committee on eligibility.

PEACE AND CALM PREVAIL AT BIG TEN MEETING

CHICAGO, Dec. 5. (AP)—An air of peace and calmness pervaded all meetings today as the Big Ten athletic chiefs hold their annual winter pow-wow to arrange schedules and discuss rules.

Unlike meetings of the past two years, arguments were scarce and the work of arranging schedules was finished quickly and satisfactorily in almost every field except baseball and several minor sports. Iowa is back in the conference fold again and happy. The rotating schedule precluded the usual debates and arguments among the coaches to obtain home games, and long meetings lasting into the morning hours were not necessary.

Northwestern provided most of the news in the football schedule making. The Wildcats scheduled a game with the University of California at Los Angeles, for Evanston, October 17, and with Nebraska for their opening home game October 3.

Several other Big Ten teams were looking for preliminary games tonight and expected to close them by the end of the conference meeting tomorrow.

The two teams have compiled envious records to date, although both have been beaten. The B. A. TROJANS FAVORITE TODAY to say that he and Kassis, the other guard, with Yarr at center form a trio equal to Moynihan, Cannon and Law from the 1929 eleven.

Unbeaten Notre Dame Eleven May Again Work One-Point Hoodoo on Southern Californians

Cannon was a unanimous all-American choice, and Moynihan made several all-American teams.

MUSICK TO CRACK LINE

Therefore, it will not be at all surprising to see the Trojans, with Musick carrying the ball, make a lot of yardage through the middle of the Irish line. And if the secondary moves up to tighten the gap, that paves the way for an aerial attack.

This is the sixth time in history that Knute Rockne and Howard Jones have matched wits on the gridiron. Jones's boys have won two engagements and Rockne's three.

Back in 1921 Jones's Iowa team, with Aubrey Devine and Locke and Slater, beat Notre Dame, 10 to 7. In 1926, when the current Notre Dame-Southern California series started, the Irish won, 13 to 12. They repeated 7 to 6, in 1927, lost in 1928 by a 27-to-14 score and won again last year, 13 to 12.

However, this is the first year in which Jones appears to have just as much in store in the way of deception as Rockne.

In other seasons Jones has leaned more to power and Rockne to speed and deception. Jones changed his system last year, and by the time Pittsburgh, with its four all-Americans, was faced in the New Year's Day classic, you never were quite sure what Jones had on tap next—power, or speed and deception.

Pittsburgh was fooled to the extent of being licked, 47 to 14, and Stanford, California and Washington were buried under tremendous scores this fall, 41 to 12, 74 to 0, and 32 to 0, respectively. All three of them major teams.

Jones's boys have shown so much this fall in the way of new stuff, reverses, spinners, plunges and passes from similar formations, that it is hard to believe he has anything new the sideline critics haven't lamped.

But in the last two Notre Dame games he has unfurled new pass plays, on each of which Apsit, who never carries the ball otherwise, has scored touchdowns.

It was Apsit's touchdown in the Chicago game last year that got the Trojans off in front against the Irish.

Notre Dame has won all its games this fall by orthodox football, beating Southern Methodist, 20 to 14; Navy, 26 to 2; Carnegie Tech, 21 to 6; Pittsburgh, 35 to 19; Indiana, 27 to 0; Pennsylvania, 60 to 20; Drake, 28 to 7; Northwestern, 14 to 0, and Army, 7 to 6.

The Irish have played punch football from their customary deceptive shift, and have revealed nothing at all in the way of a forward pass attack.

However, this was true last year—so true that Coach Wally Steffen of Carnegie Tech put himself on record that the 1929 Notre Dame team did not begin to compare with the Four Horsemen because it had no passing attack.

Then came the Southern California game, and with it a passing offense that beat the Trojans. The Irish completed five long tosses, one of them a Brick Muller heave of 55 yards for a touchdown from Jack Elder to Tom Conley, this year's captain.

LOOK FOR PASSES TODAY

You can look for passes today from both teams—and plenty of them.

As a matter of fact, the Irish have won all their three games from the Trojans with passes, and the Trojans also connected for their 27-to-14 win in 1928 the same way.

If that's handwriting on the wall, make the most of it.

With the exception of Savoldi and Mullins, Notre Dame enters today's struggle intact.

Somewhat offsetting the Irish loss is that of Wilcox and Sparling to the Trojans.

Sparling's bad leg prevents him from playing at all, it is said, and Wilcox is not likely to last long because of head injuries received in the Hawaii game.

IRISH AWARDED EDGE BY JONES

Notre Dame is entitled to be rated the favorite.

In defeating Northwestern and Army on successive Saturdays Notre Dame disposed of two undefeated teams, which is an accomplishment of no mean achievement. These games gave additional proof to what I have always contended: That Notre Dame, year in and year out, will make less costly mistakes than any other football team in the country. And this, in the last analysis, is why the Irish are able to keep on winning.

This year Notre Dame has four players who have won all-American honors. They are Frank Carideo, quarterback, and one of the best signal callers and punters I have ever seen; Marty Brill, halfback; Marchy Schwartz, halfback; Bert Metzger, guard. And had it not been for the loss of Joe Savoldi there would certainly have been a fifth all-American from South Bend.

These players would not have attained all-American honors had they not been flanked by competent team-mates, so you can bank on it that the other Notre Dame players are not far behind in the matter of ability.

The game will be the last intercollegiate contest for some of our players, including Marshall Duffield, quarterback; Marger Apsit, halfback; Jess Shaw, guard, and Ralph Wilcox, end, if he is able to play. These boys have been consistently good all year and I can truthfully say that I am sorry to see them come to the last game of their respective careers. I never coached a more dependable player than Apsit.

Notre Dame's style of play is best suited to a firm, dry field such as we are likely to have here. I say this because many people feel that the Irish were unimpressive against the Army last Saturday. Conditions at that game were such that no team could make a respectable showing and the marvel of it is that the two rivals were able to score at all.

DOUBLE MAIN GO AT MAIN-STREET

Two popular Mexican boxers will appear in the two feature bouts at the Main-street Athletic Club tonight, Sandy Casanova, young Mexican light-heavyweight, meeting Frank Rudenski, Polish heavyweight, and Jack Charvez, Arizona Mexican light-heavyweight, meeting George Matthews, a local club fighter who is rough and tough. Both bouts are scheduled for six rounds.

Jimmy Valentine and Max Morgan, a pair of busy featherweights, will box the four-round special event. Valentine will be conceded the edge. Two other four-rounders completing the card are: Eddie Lloyd vs. Max Morgan, 126 pounds, and Joe Skube vs. Damaso Onchustegin, 147 pounds.

SCHWARTZ ACE OF ROCKNEMEN

the shock will loosen the teeth of the boys up in the press box. As a ball carrier Brill got "hot" just once—against Penn—maybe he'll warm up again today.

At quarterback is Carideo, a husky, heady field general. He seldom carries the ball, but does the punting—and how he does it. He is a good passer and has seldom failed to turn in one big run returning a punt. His punt returns have cost the Trojans one touchdown in each of the last two years. He is as near sure death on the extra point after touchdowns as anybody could be, having kicked twenty-five out of thirty, and not having missed for some time.

If Mullins is able to play fullback, which is unlikely, he'll be handicapped in his speed offensively and defensively but he is a smart boy. Hanley, the first-string substitute, is a roaring lion on offense but has played in only three games this year, and only in parts of those games. He is untested in big-time competition. O'Connor, a sub halfback, who has been mentioned as a possible fullback, has had more experience than Hanley but not in the fullback post. Howard, another sub, hasn't played much.

BIG, RANGY OUTFIT

Notre Dame's forward wall is a big, rangy outfit with considerable class despite the fact that it is, almost to a man, last year's second-string outfit. The ends are long legged and long armed and fast and will probably get a forward pass workout today. So far this season Notre Dame has scored thirty-five touchdowns and only two of them on passes. With his running attack weakened and the Trojans none too good against aerial work, Rockne is likely to bust out with some fancy lobbing.

The outstanding individual of the Notre Dame line is a little runt named Metzger who is too light to play quarterback so he plays guard. Nobody knows how he does it but, weighing only 155 pounds, he gets into the opposing backfield and gums up the works with surprising frequency and has successfully withstood the hammering of giant linemen and backs all season long. Watch for the No. 4 on his jersey.

Ordinarily Notre Dame has a flock of star second-stringers but this year's substitute outfit seems much weaker than usual. Against Pitt the varsity made 35 points in the first half and in the second half the second-stringers let the tired Pitt varsity run up 19 points on them. The varsity handed them a lead of about 50 points against Penn, but the second-stringers allowed Penn to score three touchdowns in the last quarter. Looks as if Rockne would be up against it if his stars get hurt.

Don't go home until the final gun is fired. Notre Dame is always battling. All the excitement in the recent Northwestern and Army games took place in the last ten minutes of play. Notre Dame isn't going to give up an unbroken record of nineteen victories without a battle and if they should be lucky enough to get an early break and a touchdown, watch them hang on to it tooth and toenail. You'll get your money's worth today no matter who wins.

Irish Rooters Arrive Today

Seven hundred Notre Dame rooters arrive this morning from San Francisco in two special trains, to give the Irish some moral support this afternoon when they clash with the Trojans. The rooting section is a Knights of Columbus group, according to Fay Smalley, manager of the Alexandria Hotel, where the fans from San Francisco will put up after the game.

Parade Will Precede Tilt

Today's Coliseum football game, in addition to being the nation's gigantic, is the windup of a furious Homecoming Week for the alumni of the University of Southern California. Smokers, dinners, banquets and reunions have taken place all week, and the old grads will gather in the Coliseum today as the climax of the annual event. Fans arriving early will be able to view the annual Homecoming Day parade of floats, which each fraternity, sorority and organization in the university enters, in the annual competition. The floats are scheduled to parade inside the Coliseum just prior to the kick-off.

TROY SET FOR CRUCIAL GAME

downs should not be scored against the fighting Irish from South Bend. If the expected precision and effectiveness are there, and they ought to be, Notre Dame's great string of eighteen consecutive victories will be broken by the same team that handed the Irish their last defeat in 1928.

These 90,000 fans will see in Notre Dame a team which makes virtually no mistakes. It is true that the Irish bobble one, mentally or physically, now and then, but what gets the Ramblers by week after week is that they make fewer errors than their opponents. In a game as close as today's should be the team which makes the least mistakes should win.

These fans will see a team which ran hog wild against Pennsylvania and scored 60 points. They will see a team which, if given a break to begin with, will nurse a one-touchdown lead as carefully and tenderly as a Scotchman guarding his first dollar. They will see a team which, once ahead, will take no chances, conserving all energy on stopping their foes and making that one touchdown suffice.

These same 90,000 fans will see in Frank Carideo the personification of football brains and efficiency, a player who for two straight seasons has overshadowed every quarterback in the land. They will see amazingly accurate punting from the educated bunions of this young man, punting which has repeatedly put Notre Dame's foes in the hole and given the Irish many a start to a touchdown.

HOLD THAT LINE

Valuable as he is, and there are none to deny his worth, Carideo's great kicking will hardly win the game for Notre Dame unless the Irish linemen are able to at least hold their own with the sons of Troy. If the Trojan forwards are primed to the point where they can outplay their rivals during the major part of the game Carideo's kicking, good as it is, will hardly be sufficient to stave off defeat.

The game will be won or lost in the line. If the Trojan forwards outplay the Irish then Southern California's running attack will work. And once the Trojan running attack gets under way it will be up to the Irish backs to come in and help their linemen. Once this happens Duffield and the other Trojan tossers will immediately cut loose with the greatest barrage of passes Notre Dame has ever faced. There is no comparing Jones's present aerial attack with any he has had in the past. It is so far superior to anything he has ever shown before that some find it hard to believe the same man has conceived it.

If the Irish outcharge Southern California's linemen Knute Rockne's running attack will send cold chills up and down the spines of all Trojan rooters. The Irish are past masters at the art of blocking and they won't need much of a jump to get their plays running smoothly and their backs into the open.

FEW LONG RUNS

Southern California's main task in stopping this attack will be to keep Marchy Schwartz covered. He is by far the most dangerous man in Rockne's backfield when it comes to carrying the ball.

Do not look for long runs. They rarely happen from scrimmage in these Trojan-Irish games. Jones and Rockne are so thorough in their drill against each other's formations that long gains are the exception rather than the rule. O'Connor with eleven yards and Elder with nine turned in Notre Dame's longest gains from scrimmage last year.

It is natural to assume that passes will play an important part in the scoring attempts of each team. It is unlikely that Southern California's aerial barrage, good as it is, will be any better than that offered by the Irish. Brill, Schwartz and Carideo all pass for the Irish and pass well. So far Duffield and Mohler have done most of the tossing for the Trojans this year but I think you will find other Trojan arms in action today if the occasion demands it.

If Southern California's running attack functions as it is capable of doing, the Trojans will naturally stick to this style of play rather than give Notre Dame an opportunity to intercept passes. And to my way of thinking there is more chance of Troy's running plays working than there is that Notre Dame's ground attack will function.

But on passes it's a horse of another hue. Rockne's men have not done much with their aerial attack this year and as a result Southern California does not know exactly what to expect. That game against Washington provided the Trojans with some valuable experience in this respect and it is significant that, although the Huskies completed a number of throws, they never connected with one that was turned into a touchdown.

Much will depend on the start of the game. If the Trojans get away to a flying start, say by scoring a touchdown early in the game, they will be awfully hard to stop. The same goes for Notre Dame.

Therefore it will be interesting to watch what choice the rival captains make after the coin has been tossed. I look for the winner, be he Duffield or Conley, to elect to kick off. The receiving team, handling the ball after the kick-off has been returned, is always nervous. So is the defensive outfit, but this eleven does not have to handle the pigskin. And if the defensive team can stop that first mad dash of the opposition the confidence gained will be of inestimable value. Watch Conley and Duffield as the coin is flipped and then get Announcer Charley Keppen's word as to the choice the winner made. It may mean the ball game.

Norris and Ray Sparling of the Trojans are the youngest men on either team, each being 18. Lukats and Jaskwich, of the Irish, are 19.

Only four of the Trojans are from outside of California. They are Apsit, Aurora, Ill.; Black, Abilene, Tex.; Hall, Dallas, Tex., and Plaehn, Reinbeck, Iowa.

CALIFORNIA BOYS

The Irish are gathered from all over the country. Kosky is from Yonkers, and Kalamazoo claims Kerjes. Wyoming, Washington, Massachusetts, New York, Minnesota, Pennsylvania, Montana, Ohio, California and half the rest of the United States is represented in the line-up.

California boys on the visiting team include Roy Bailie of Fairfax High School, Los Angeles; Al Howard, Alhambra; Larry Mullins, South Pasadena, and Johnny O'Brien, L. A. High.

Scores between the two institutions to date are as follows:

1927—Notre Dame, 7; Southern California, 6 (Chicago.)

1929—Notre Dame, 13; Southern California, 12 (Chicago.)

Seniors on the Notre Dame team, playing their last game of intercollegiate football, are George Vik, end; Larry Mullins, full; Frank Cariedo, quarter; Paul O'Connor, half; Capt. Tom Conley, end; Johnny O'Brien, end; Tom Kassis, guard, and Dick Donaghue, tackle.

Third-year men on the Trojan squad include Marger Apsit, halfback; Marshall Duffield, quarter; Jess Shaw, guard; Ralph Wilcox, end, and Irving Winfield, guard.

FRANKLIN CAGERS DEFEAT FREMONT

Coach Dave Ferrell's Franklin High quintet won its first City League basketball tussle from the Fremont High five, coached by Les Hazresth, by a 16-to-14 margin in a game staged on the Franklin floor. The game was postponed from yesterday afternoon, when the bulk of the City League teams swung into action.

Fremont did not play very good basketball, but the Franklin boys were just able to eke out a two-point margin at that. Jamentz, Franklin forward, was high-digit marker of the game with 8 points. Steward, Fremont forward, with 7, and Snowden, Franklin, with 5, were the other outstanding scorers. Both squads scored 8 digits the first half, with the Franklin boys getting their 2-point superiority in the last part of the game. The line-ups follow:

Franklin (16.)		Fremont (14.)
Jamentz (8)	F.	Steward (7)
Snowden (5)	F.	Milliron (3)
Lindhl (2)	C.	Evans
Fitzpatrick	G.	Slack (4)
Schils (1)	G.	Montenurro

SCORE BY HALVES

Franklin	8	8—16
Fremont	8	6—14

Substitutions: Franklin — Aban for Snowden. Fremont—Quinn for Milliron, Ackerman for Evans.

Officials: Tipton, umpire; Oster, referee.

TEAM CAPTAINCY DROPPED

RENO (Nev.) Dec. 5. (AP)—The position of team captain for all athletic teams at the University of Nevada was today abolished by vote of the student body and henceforth a field captain will be selected before each game by the coach.

Denver Sport Scribes Pick Troy to Win

Trojans to lick Notre Dame tomorrow, is the opinion of two Denver sport scribes sent here to cover the game. Curley Grieve of the Rocky Mountain News and C. L. Parsons of the Denver Post, who arrived yesterday on a Transcontinental and Western Air plane, are agreed on this, but not on the size of the score.

Grieve believes that there will not be less than five touchdowns made during the game, and of these Jones's men will chalk up three.

Parsons is a bit more conservative. "I think the score will be closer than most fans on the Pacific Coast anticipate," he asserted.

Ed Hughes, San Francisco Chronicle, has turned Trojan for the day, and says you can't fly in the face of a team that beats Stanford, 41 to 12, and California, 74 to 0.

Who They Pick

Les Henry: I like Southern California to win by a touchdown.

Boyd Comstock: Under the existing conditions Southern California has an advantage which can only be offset by a psychological "break."

Jack Doyle: Notre Dame on the bit.

Warde Fowler: It looks like a standoff, but Notre Dame will win.

Gene Kennedy: Notre Dame is going to win, and I guess the score to be 21 to 13.

DeWitt Van Court: Southern California. Nothing to it.

Gene Doyle: Sure, the Irish.

Tom Gallery: Same for me.

Abe Roth: I'm the guy that picked the Trojans by three touchdowns.

"Dutch" Smith: The Trojans to win.

Mickey Reed: The Trojans are too strong. Any team that beats Stanford 41 to 12 will beat Notre Dame.

Roy Sargeant: I pick Notre Dame to win.

Hal Tuttle: The Trojans will beat the Irish.

Clayton Frye: The Trojans, in a gallop.

Phil De Voine: Southern California will swamp Notre Dame by five touchdowns. My guess is that the score will be 32-0.

Ed Hughes: I've turned Trojan.

Jack Smith: S.C., 13 to 7.

Chet Cooper: Tell the cock-eyed world, I pick the Trojans.

Hap O'Connor: Call me up tomorrow night.

Walter Merrick: Well, yes, and no.

Charley Traung: The Trojans. No argument.

Allan Bixby: The Trojans are a cinch.

Mickey Grealis: What fight? Oh, the Irish, of course.

Tom Carpenter: I'll take the Trojans.

Fay Smalley: I'll take Notre Dame.

Morrie Luxford: The Trojans are a cinch.

Walter McGrail: The Trojans, but it's no pushover.

Harry Simpson: The Trojans couldn't lose, even if I was playing with them.

E. O. Barnett: I'll pick the Firemen—I mean the Trojans.

Bill Blewett: The Irish look like winners to me.

"Boots" Weber: It looks like a Trojan victory.

Joe Reddy: Notre Dame—feet first.

Hal Baker: I string with Jones.

T. Lyell Buckett: I'd like to have some of the horsemen on my polo team, but I'll pick the Trojans.

Zach Farmer (Talented as ever:) Oh, yeah?

Howard and Brother Tad Finish Even

Battling tooth and nail around the Midwick Country Club golf course, Howard and Tad Jones, famous coaching brothers, finished all even in an eighteen-hole match yesterday afternoon. "I let him off easy," said Howard. "Didn't want to make him feel bad on his first game out here." "Naturally, I wouldn't beat Howard just before the Notre Dame game; I'll trim him Sunday," was Tad's version. George Cornes, Scotty Armstrong and Jim Spaulding played with the coaches.

Tartars Cop Thriller From Battling Tigers

Losers Put on Great Rally in Last Quarter

Compton Wins Right to Play for State Title

RIVERSIDE, Dec. 5.—Coach "Deacon" Pines's Compton Junior College eleven climaxed a football season that has seen no defeats today by winning the play-off for the Southern California J.C. championship with Riverside, 20-14. The game was the most sensational of the season for either team in spite of the absence of Tom Yancey, star Compton quarterback, and Capt. Elrod South, Riverside's great center, from the respective line-ups. Both players were on the injured list.

Riverside took the offensive early in the first quarter, three times going to within easy scoring distance only to lose the ball on fumbles. Near the end of the quarter Riverside scored a safety when the Compton kicker, punting from behind his own goal line, stepped outside of the safety zone while making the kick.

Compton crossed the Riverside goal line early in the second quarter. Slagle scored after Smith and Canfield had carried the ball within a yard of the goal following a Riverside fumble that was recovered by Compton. Capt. McKee converted.

The Tartars opened the second half in dynamic fashion, Canfield and Slagle, behind excellent interference, crashing through the Riverside line for repeated gains of from five to ten yards that netted two touchdowns on successive drives. Canfield made both scores, McKee failing to convert once.

Riverside appeared at this point to be badly beaten and unable to stop the Compton scoring machine. However, the Hill-and-Mortensen-coached team made a sensational comeback in the last quarter, aided by Ollie Arbelbide's great broken field running, and Sheffer's hard line bucks. Two touchdowns were made by the Tigers, the first by Sheffer and the second by Arbelbide. With but a few minutes left to play, Arbelbide, on fourth down, was run out of bounds within a foot of the Compton goal.

By defeating Riverside, Compton has won the right to play the northern champions for the State junior college title.

The line-ups:

SHEIKS AND MAGYARS IN SOCCER "NATURAL"

Magyars and Hollywood, two of the finest soccer teams on the Coast will hold down the spot tomorrow afternoon at Loyola Field in what is being hailed as the "natural" of the season to date. The Hollywood team has yet to meet defeat this season. Ernie Copeland has one of the fastest combinations that has ever been seen in action here. They won the City League title last season and advanced to the final round of the California State championship where they were nosed out by the Rovers of San Francisco.

The 1 p.m. game at Loyola will bring the Vikings and that young hustling Pasadena A.C.C. team together.

At Tournament Park, Pasadena, the league is staging a double-header. The Los Angeles A.C. plays the Scotts and the Victorias face the Sons of St. George.

GOEDDERS VICTOR IN SAN DIEGO TILT

SAN DIEGO, Dec. 5. (AP)—Joe Goedders, Santa Ana light-heavyweight, won a technical knockout over Paul Drake, San Francisco, in the fourth round of a scheduled ten-round bout here tonight.

Jack Dempsey, former world's heavyweight champion, was the referee.

Lefty Cooper, veteran welterweight, won the decision over Howard Critz, Los Angeles, in a six-round bout. Cooper won by a decisive margin with a stiff body attack.

Hollywood in Cross-Country Prep Title Win

Scoring one of the most sensational victories in local prep history, a versatile Hollywood cross-country outfit annexed the City League title for 1930, in a thrilling run over the Griffith Park course with over 100 contestants entered from twelve Los Angeles high schools. Although conceded a chance for the championship, the Redshirt squad pulled an upset in winning over the favored Manual Arts Toilers by a margin of 16 points.

By virtue of their unexpected victory over the Manual Arts harriers, the Sheiks earn the distinction of winning the first meet in the history of the newly organized City League.

Running true to form, Satterfield of Manual, durky State 440 champ, nosed out Carroll Lewis of Belmont by a mere 10 yards. Carroll Lewis was leading as the pair came down the home stretch but Satterfield's reserve strength proved too much for the Hilltopper lad. Earlier in the week it had been rumored that Lewis would be unable to run because of an injured leg.

The time for the one and three-fourths mile run was 8m. 32s., an exceedingly good performance. Coach Buehler of Belmont was in charge of the event. Manual Arts finished second, Belmont third, Los Angeles fourth and Fremont fifth.

The points scored by each team were: Hollywood, 38; Manual Arts, 54; Belmont, 103; Los Angeles, 104; Fremont, 124; Garfield, 145, Polytechnic, 241; Lincoln, 255; Fairfax, 294, and Roosevelt, 296. Those who finished among the first ten were Satterfield, Lewis, Hart, Benovitz, Priester, Parrish, Hickey, Kaz and Newcomer.

Stage Set for Charity Game Here

Charley Erb, former California captain and Idaho coach, refuses to make a prediction. "Naturally I am pulling for our western boys to win," was all Charley had to say for publication.

Champ Pickens, who is the man behind the gun in the charity game to be played here the 27th inst. between a picked team coached by Knute Rockne and another mentored by Jimmy Phelan, was back from Tucson yesterday, after having talked to "Rock."

"Everything's all set for the game," said Pickens, "and you can rest assured we will have two corking teams on the field. We will have an important announcement to make next week in regard to the line-up of the two teams."

Phelan, who has been in San Francisco visiting his mother, passed through here Wednesday en route to Agua Caliente for a little recreation, but will be back today.

At the Junior Chamber of Commerce luncheon yesterday Tom Lieb was one of the speakers. "Howard Jones has the greatest offensive football team I have ever seen," declared the popular Irishman. "It ought to be a great game Saturday, despite the strength of the Trojans for Notre Dame has a good team with a lot of fine 'little' men playing football." Jones smiled broadly at this "little" crack for it's a well-known fact that the Irish are capable of taking care of themselves in all types of company and there's nothing small about them.

SANTA ANA ELEVEN SWAMPS FULLERTON

SANTA ANA, Dec. 5.—Santa Ana Polytechnic High School football team, concluding its 1930 schedule, ran rough-shod over Coach Ernie Smith's Fullerton High School Indians today and won, 59 to 19. The game had been postponed from Thanksgiving Day. On the opening kick-off Don Crumley, right halfback, took the ball and ran 90 yards for a touchdown. In the second period Capt. Alvin Reboin, quarterback, scored for Santa Ana, as did Harold Pangle, fullback.

Santa Ana scored three times in the third period., Hideo Higashi, left end, Pangle and Reboin carrying the ball across. In the fourth quarter Higashi, Pangle and Reboin each scored again.

Fullerton scored in the first and fourth quarters. The game marked the conclusion of high school football for Capt. Reboin, Pangle, Higashi and Crumley, who starred for Santa Ana.

SOUTH PASADENA WINS FOOTHILL TRACKFEST

South Pasadena's cross-country squad ran off with first place in the first annual Foothill League meet held yesterday over the Occidental College mile and three-quarter course. The Tigers scored 29 points in taking first place and were followed by Monrovia with 50 points. Hoover and Muir Tech finished in the order named. Burbank and Whittier failed to enter teams.

Roachschild of South Pasadena nosed out Klann of Hoover for first place in a sensational finish. Klann led the race until the runners came down the track when Rothschild spurted past the Hoover entrant and led him to the finish by fifteen yards. The rest of the field finished in the following order: Murakie (S.P.) third; Poue (M.) fourth; Keyes (M.) fifth; Stave (H.) sixth; Westcott (S.P.) seventh; Henville (S.P.) eighth; Morton (H.) ninth; Asquith (S.P.) tenth.

E. S. HUTTON FIVE WINS CHAMPIONSHIP

For the second time in as many years, the E. S. Hutton Company basketball team has won the championship of the Los Angeles Stock Exchange League. The Hutton quintet cinched the title last night in the Hollywood High School gym, where they defeated the E. A. Peirce five, 31 to 21, in a hard-fought game. Hutton was leading at the end of the half, but in the third period they lost their lead and then staged a great finish in the final period to pull the game out of the fire.

CROSS-COUNTRY RUNNERS CLASH

All-Conference Events Draw Field of 150 Athletes

CLAREMONT, Dec. 5.—More than 150 runners—the best entry list to ever report—are expected to compete in the all-Southern California Conference cross-country meet here tomorrow morning, to decide the freshman and varsity championships. The first-year men will compete at 9:30 a.m., and the varsity event will follow. This early time, it is pointed out, will enable participants to see the Notre Dame-U.S.C. football game in Los Angeles in the afternoon.

Entrants from Pomona, Occidental, Redlands, Caltech, San Diego and Whittier will compete in the tournament. Whittier will be represented by only one man, but the remainder of the schools are sending several runners each.

Coach Bob Strehle's Pomona Sagehens, champions of the circuit, are expected to meet stiff competition in their quest to retain the crown. Redlands looms the strongest of the challengers, with San Diego the "dark-horse" entrant.

The Sagehens will be led for the second year by Capt. Sheldon Smith. All the men whose points won the title last year have returned for duty. They are Bill Cunliffe, Ollie Brogdon, John Morrison and Bill White. Several strong new men also will compete, including John Fukushima, Stan Warburton, Bus McBride, George Gibbs and Bill Cover.

John Ricker of Berkeley has been elected captain of the Pomona freshman outfit, and he will lead the following men: Sanford Lyon, Lynn Cooper, Sam Whitaker, Joe McGinnis and George Phillips.

Cunliffe, Pomona star, is given a good chance to win the event, but Hull and Miller of Redlands are expected to run him a close race.

Les Kennedy Stops Morro at Hollywood

Les Kennedy, Long Beach heavyweight, scored a technical knockout over Al Morro, Jim Jeffries's Burbank Italian heavy, in the ninth round of last night's main event at the Hollywood Legion Stadium.

The fight was even, each fighter having won three rounds out of the first eight, when Kennedy, on coming out of a clinch, connected with a hard right on Morro's jaw that dazed the Italian. Quick to follow his advantage, Kennedy pumped in a series of rights to the chin that had Morrow reeling helplessly about the ring with his hands at his sides. Although Morro did not go down, Referee Lieutenant Jack Kennedy saw that he was helpless and awarded the bout to Les.

The semi-wind-up resulted in Johnny Previs gaining a six-round decision over Augie De Mille, who subbed for Joe Galvez. De Mille was floored for a short count in the fifth. In the other bouts, Pepi Sanchez knocked down Mickey Erno in the fourth and fifth rounds and was awarded a technical kayo in the latter stanza; Ritchie Franklin dropped Mickey McLaughlin in the first round and went on to win an easy verdict, and Rudy Mendoze decisioned Joe Macy in the opener.

Doyle Takes Stand Today

Jack Doyle, dean of the West Coast fight promoters, will be the principal witness this morning when the board of inquiry into the boxing situation holds its third day session at the Alexandria Hotel. A number of boxing managers, fighters and promoters were examined yesterday by the State board which is directed by Allen Bixby.

Nothing sensational was uncovered at yesterday's session that the members of the board would give out for publication. It was stated, however, that a good deal of evidence concerning faked fights and crooked deals concerning matches staged in the Southland in the past two years was given to the board.

PASADENA HIGH TIPS CALTECH CAGE SQUAD

Coach Bill Dunn's Pasadena High varsity scored a well-earned victory yesterday afternoon by defeating the Caltech varsity, 21 to 18, in a practice game played on the Bulldogs' floor. Caltech started out with good team work to pile up an 11-to-10 lead over the Bulldogs in the first half, only to have the Crown City quintet outscore them 11 points to 7, during the second half. SHIPPING NEWS AND ACTIVITIES AT LOS ANGELES HARBOR

NAVAL BUREAU TO CELEBRATE

Hydrographic Office of Navy to Observe Birthday

Purveyor of Marine Data Organized in 1830

All Branches to Participate in General Program

Local shipping interests will today join the branch United States Hydrographic Office at Los Angeles Harbor in observance of the 100th anniversary of the Hydrographic office, United States Navy. From its establishment on December 6, 1830, in a rented house in Washington, D. C., by Lieut. L. M. Goldsborough, United States Navy, the Hydrographic office has grown so that today it is the world's largest organization for the dissemination of information to maritime and aviation interests.

The aniversary, to be observed by all branch hydrographic offices throughout the nation, will be featured by a radio address at 7:30 p.m. or 4:30 p.m., Pacific time, tonight by Secretary of the Navy Charles Francis Adams over the National Broadcasting system, in which Mr. Adams will review the history and long list of accomplishments of the United States Hydrographic Office. Scope of the work of the organization was outlined yesterday by Lieutenant-Commander James R. Crutchfield, United States Navy, officer in charge of the local office:

"The San Pedro branch office last fiscal year alone distributed 60,000 separate pieces of marine and aviation intelligence to ships and flyers. We have a regular mailing list of 285 ships of ten nations, while during the year we had 1143 mariners and aviators visit the office either to bring us information or to secure navigational aid," said Mr. Crutchfield.

"When one multiplies those figures by our nineteen branch offices at principal United States ports, where there are employed twenty naval officers and twenty-four civilians, plus the eleven officers and 108 civilians working in or out of the head office at Washington, some realization is gained of the scope of the United States Hydrographic Office. Our fund of information now includes a supply of 300,000 charts and 100,000 manuals and books ready for issue covering navigable waters in every corner of the globe as well as the skies above.

"We also have some 7000 merchant mariners and aviators on our list who are constantly sending us a constant flow of information respecting the seas and airs of the world, plus all data we receive from our Navy, scientific organizations and foreign governments. The Hydrographic Office maintains an absolute free exchange of information and publications with mariners of all nations, as well as all foreign navies and hydrographic offices."

Mr. Crutchfield is assisted at the local hydrographic office by M. J. Kelly, engineering aide.

OVERTIME BILL OF FEDERAL BUREAU UP

Indorsement of overtime and holiday pay for immigration inspectors, proposed in House Resolution 3309, passed by the House and now in the Senate, will be asked of the executive committee of the Marine Service Bureau Wednesday, and by the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce and the Los Angeles Steamship Company next week.

Appeal then will be made to California Senators to support the measure. The proposal is declared sought by steamship operators who are willing to pay the additional charges to expedite the movement of vessels, as is done with customs inspectors.

The local immigration staff long has been declared undermanned, requiring the inspectors who are paid only for eight hours, to work often from sunrise to 8 p.m. on boarding and frequently until midnight in examining papers.

This proposal, it is understood, will be pressed irrespective of a local move to obtain additional immigration inspectors here.

The Grace Line steamer Charcas came out of the Bethlehem shipyards after a $100,000 repair job completed eight days ahead of schedule. She went ashore a month ago at Point Fermin. The Charcas put to sea yesterday for trials and to adjust compass, and today will dock at the Outer Harbor Dock and Wharf Company to load 7000 tons of cargo for the West Coast of South America, departing the 9th or 10th inst. Capt. N. Richter, formerly master of the Coya, will command the Charcas. George J. Florintine, Grace claim agent, is down from San Francisco and Fred L. Doelker, manager of the line's steamship department, will arrive today.

Five Coast Guard boats yesterday completed its latest search for the fish boat Fidelity, lost three weeks with eleven San Pedrans aboard. More Coast Guard craft guarding rum vessels south will continue the search. The fish boat Sea Ranger with small boats aboard went out to Santa Rosa Island yesterday for a minute examination of shores, carrying Anton Esposita, who had three brothers on the Fidelity.

Inauguration of American-Hawaiian Line and Admiral-Oriental Line's agreement for through shipment of raw silk from Japan to New York via trans-shipment at Seattle and Los Angeles Harbor was effected yesterday when the American-Hawaiian steamer Pennsylvanian took out 700 bales, brought from Seattle aboard the Ruth Alexander. A regular schedule on silk consignments will be maintained by the A.-H. fleet.

The Pennsylvanian, sailing for New York, Boston and Philadelphia last night, also loaded here 1560 bales of cotton, 500 bags of wool and a consignment of green hides.

Inauguration of special Mexican tourist parties from Seattle, Vancouver, Victoria, Portland and San Francisco is planned by the Pacific Steamship Company, according to R. B. Schutten, assistant general passenger agent of the Admiral Line. The San Diego stopovers will make it possible for the northern visitors to visit both Agua Caliente and Ensenada during their southern voyage.

As they came in sight of they saw the askari running excitedly toward "What the devil is this?" cried Peebles. "What's with the beggars?"

"Tarzan of the Apes has been here!" they jabbered. "With all his Waziri—a thousand of them. They have taken away the gold!" Flora sought out the leader. "Tell me slowly and carefully all that has happened since we left," she ordered. She listened closely, questioning him often. When the tale was done she turned hopelessly to her confederates. "It is all too clear to me," she said. "Tarzan recovered from the drug we gave him. Then he followed us with his Waziri, caught Esteban, killed him, located our camp and got the gold. That's that, and we're lucky if we get out of Africa with whole skins!"

"There are other things in Opar besides gold," he continued, and then unfolded his plan. "I have learned this crazy language and talked with our blacks. They tell me there's a bunch of Arabs down here stealing slaves and ivory. Only a few of them and their slaves would turn on them with our help. Here's my idea. Our party is still strong enough to overpower them. Let's get their ivory by getting their slaves to help, promising them their freedom. What do you say?" "It sounds good to me," said Peebles, "I ain't 'fer going 'ome empty 'anded." The others—even Flora—agreed that ivory was almost as good as Opar's gold.

AGRICULTURE IN GOOD CONDITION

California Status Reviewed by Rail Report

Santa Fe Survey Emphasizes Proof of Prosperity

Arizona Outlook Reported as Favorable

California agriculture is in a prosperous condition, the monthly report on agricultural conditions in the Santa Fe States just issued by the Santa Fe Railroad emphasizes in recapitulating recent favorable developments. Increased production with the exception of citrus accounted for the gain in the agricultural returns this season to $799,325,000 from $763,445,000 in 1929, the report sets forth in citing figures compiled by the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce.

In spite of the material reduction in yield, citrus in the past season established a new record by returning to the State a total of $135,309,352, the report continues. The new citrus crop is promising with indications that it will approach and perhaps exceed the banner crop of 1928-1929. Shipments have been in progress from the San Joaquin Valley for some time and are now starting from Southern California.

All kinds of vegetables are moving in volume, including celery from the delta region. Cotton picking is in progress but due to low prices ginnings are slightly under those of last year. The grape movement is practically at an end but scattered shipments from the Fresno district may continue for another week or ten days.

Turning to conditions in Arizona, the report states that although considerable snow has fallen in the northern part of the State, weather conditions continue favorable for crops in the Salt River Valley. The fall lettuce crop is one of the largest in the history of the State. Carload shipments were started earlier than usual while green peas are also moving in carload lots.

Arizona has produced a large crop of citrus but shipments are slow. Weather conditions have been ideal for cotton picking. All parts of the State report stock, water and range conditions good.

The 1930 crop season in New Mexico was fair, the report states. Nonirrigated crops were below normal, due to a late, cold, dry spring which damaged the winter wheat crop and delayed planting of row crops. The fruit crop also was short. Cotton is estimated at 100,000 bales, the largest crop ever produced in New Mexico. Ranges and pastures are good and all live stock is doing well.

New Investment Trust to Offer Shares Shortly

Pacific Coast investors will be offered shortly a new fixed investment trust representating participating ownership in forty leading American corporations under the sponsorship of E. A. Pierce & Co., member of the New York Stock Exchange. The shares will be marketed through their thirty-seven offices in the United States and Canada together with dealers in a coast-to-coast distribution.

The trust, which carries reinvestment privileges, will consist of two classes of shares. Series A will be a cumulative type participating in a deposited unit of the forty stocks and Series B will be of the disbursement type, participating in a similar unit together with a cash reserve fund.

A feature of the trust is that every company represented maintains a department for scientific industrial research. "In a decade," say the bankers, "science has become the mainspring of industry. It has reorganized, expanded and revitalized modern business and is lighting the way to vast industrial realms hitherto unexplored."

Review Notes Slight Gain in Retail Buying

NEW YORK, Dec. 5. (AP)—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say:

Cold weather, the release of savings funds and actively advertised "sales" have made for a moderate expansion of retail trade, in which heavy wearing apparel and holiday goods have participated. Some effect of this has been in a slight gain in reorder trade in the above lines, with toys figuring prominently in some reports.

In industry the trend has been toward the quiet side, steel ingot capacity being reported below 40 per cent with lumber quieter, and what automobile factories are active, engaged to a moderate extent on new model production. An exception to the quieter trend among the heavier industries is found in the pick-up of demand for domestic sizes of coal, which has called for a slightly more active mining movement, particularly in bituminous coal in the West.

Weekly bank clearings, $9,961,026,000, a decrease of 24.8 per cent from last year.

LOEW'S STOCK HELPS FOX

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Successes Responsible for Important Financial Assistance

BY EARLE E. CROWE

Whatever improvement has taken place this year in the earnings of Fox Film Corporation must be measurably attributed to the assistance from Loew's Inc., the picture company recording the best financial performance of the year.

Loew's Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer unit has turned out more financial successes this year than any other picture factory, and the Culver City studio is the source of more than half of the parent company's earnings. The Fox Film interests, through General Theaters Equipment, Inc., own 46 per cent of Loew's, which gives to Fox a sizeable slice in the earnings of the Loew's business.

BOOST RECORDED

In its fiscal year ended August 31, last, Loew's reported net income available for the common stock of $13,646,369, or $9.65 a share on the amount of common outstanding at the end of the period. This compared with $7.92 in the previous fiscal year.

On its 660,900 shares of Loew's common, the Fox interests therefore had an equity in the Loew's earnings as of August 31 worth approximately $6,267,000. On the 2,525,660 shares of Fox A and B stock, this equity was equal to approximately $2.50 a share on the Fox stocks.

In the first twenty-six weeks of 1930, it was further estimated that the equity in Loew's profits was equal to about $1 a share on Fox common.

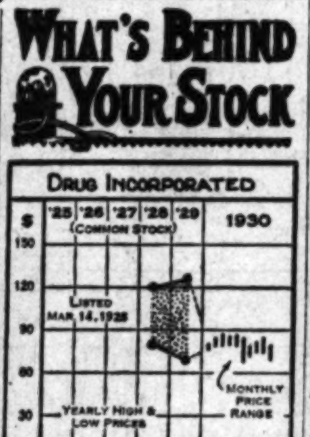
More tangibly, the dividends paid to Fox on its Loew's stock are a substantial contribution to the Fox treasury. Including the $1 extra recently declared by Loew's, the total $4 dividend rate amounts to $2,643,600 annually for Fox.

From still another source the interest in Loew's is a valuable aid to Fox. The Fox theaters have benefited materially through the exhibition of the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture successes, including the long line of box-office hits that have been shown in the Loew's and other theater chains. This arrangement has been particularly desirable during this period of transition from silent to talking pictures when the theaters have been hard pressed for high-quality products.

SHIFT RUMORED

Loew's superiority in the producing field and its financial successes have been responsible for rumors ever since the Fox reorganization that a divorce of interests was in prospect. It was common knowledge during the Fox troubles that various interests were willing to purchase the Loew's shares, but were not able to reach an agreement with the Fox management. Since that time the rumors have cropped up again occasionally.

In the trade an active supposition has been the possibility of the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer management assuming direct charge of the Fox and the Metro producing activities. Either this course will be adopted, it is suggested, or the two producing units will split entirely, instead of working on a semicooperative basis as at present. These are the suggested alternatives if physical divorce of the properties is not worked out.



DRUG, INC.

This large holding company is by far the most important factor in the drug field with its subsidiaries' activities covering both retail distribution and the manufacture of many widely known pharmaceutical products and candies. Through the United Drug division of the business the largest chain drug system in the world is maintained. Some 700 Liggett Stores in the United States and Canada are supplemented by about 10,000 Rexall dealers all over this country and the Boot chain of drug stores in England. Although total revenues are about equally divided between the manufacturing and retailing divisions, it is believed that the manufacture of trade-marked preparations furnishes the greater portion of net earnings. Most widely known of these are Bayer's aspirin, cascarets, Phillips' milk of magnesia, castoria, sal hepatica, life savers, three-in-one oil and Vick's vapo-rub.

Net income for the six months ended June 30, 1930, was equivalent to $3.01 on the outstanding common stock as compared to $3.10 in the like period of 1929. Manufacturing activities are currently reported to be more profitable than in 1929.

CAPITALIZATION

Funded debt	$43,899,000
Common stock, shares	3,501,499

Current data: Expansion of the profitable manufacturing activities and operating economies resulting from the more efficient management of merged companies are expected to bring earnings close to 1929 levels.

Prairie Oil Out of Crude Market

INDEPENDENCE (Kan.) Dec. 5—Prairie Oil Company officials announced today that effective January 1, 1931, and until further notice it will withdraw as a general purchaser of crude oil. This action by the Prairie Oil and Gas Company is in accord with its recent statement of policy that its crude oil purchases will be kept within market requirements.

"The fact that Prairie Oil and Gas Company will cease its general purchase of crude upon the market," the company's statement said, "does not prevent the producers from whom it has heretofore purchased oil, from selling and having their oil transported by available common carrier pipe line facilities to such market outlet as the producer may have."

Citizens' Bank Employees Get Annual Bonus

Distribution of a Christmas bonus to employees of the Citizens National Trust and Savings Bank was announced yesterday by Herbert D. Ivey, president, following a meeting of the board at which the regular quarterly dividend of $1 a share was declared.

The yearly cash bonus has been the custom of the bank for many years and its continuance this year is in appreciation of the loyal cooperation of the staff in all the bank's activities, Mr. Ivey said. The dividend on the stock is payable January 2 to stockholders of record the 19th inst.

"Earnings for the year have been considerably in excess of dividend requirements, despite the low interest rates prevailing," Mr. Ivey stated. "While the net income for 1930 is not expected to reach 1929 figures, which were the largest in the history of the bank, it does compare favorably with previous years, and is evidence of the steady earning record of the Citizens, even in the face of generally depressed conditions."

Mr. Ivey also pointed out that the average annual dividend return for stockholders who exercised all rights offered over the past ten years had been 7.31 per cent on the total investment.

HIGHER PRICES FOR OIL SOUGHT

Shell Group Seeks to Balance Supply and Demand

Royal Dutch to Cut Output Through Venezuela

Present Curtailment Held to Be Insufficient

NEW YORK, Dec. 5. (AP)—The Royal Dutch Shell group, the world's largest producers of crude oil, is launching a campaign to bolster crude oil prices, along with producers in two other basic industries, copper and steel.

"The great copper and steel industries have taken the initial step to bring about an improvement in their position. Why not oil?" asked Richard Airey, one of the leading officials of the Royal Dutch group in the United States, in a statement to the Associated Press today.

"It is the firm opinion of the Royal Dutch Shell group," he continued, "that the producers who have made possible the great curtailment of production already accomplished, and the need for still further curtailment, should be compensated by higher prices, and not penalized by a reduction.

"It has been said we have put out feelers for a joint price rise. This is not correct. We have made known our opinion through the press and the danger we fear that the curtailment program will be upset by the small producer being brought to the edge of ruin and being compelled to increase production to live.

"Trade advices show that the consumption of gasoline is declining; therefore crude-oil production and refinery runs should be further curtailed.

"We are following the United States movement by curtailing in Venezuela, where November 1 our production was 192,500 barrels daily and is now 156,000 barrels daily."

While official comment from heads of other oil companies was not available, it was said in oil circles in Wall street that the willingness manifested by Royal Dutch of late to take a lead in urging stabilization was decidedly encouraging.

Efforts of the past two years by the American Petroleum Institute to prevent wasteful production of oil, while having received sympathetic support and co-operation from Washington, has failed to check the steady decline in both crude and gasoline prices.

Furthermore, steps taken by some of the large domestic consumers in the slashing of crude prices, some months ago has caused considerable unsettlement.

Cotton Society Condemns Plan of Farm Board

Condemnation of the principles of the Agricultural Marketing Act and government policy of employing public funds to buy and sell commodities for the purpose of attempted stabilization has been expressed in the form of a resolution adopted by the economic committee of the American Cotton Shippers' Association, R. C. Dickerson, vice-president and secretary of the association, disclosed in an announcement yesterday.

The committee went on record as opposing the intrusion and operation of the Federal government through its subsidiaries in private business as entirely foreign to the principle of American democracy. The announcement stated further:

"We assert that the Agricultural Marketing Act is unsound in principles and dangerous in practice, not only to the business of this nation, whose rights it seeks to destroy, but to the very interests it seeks to aid.

"We accordingly express our continued opposition to the use of government funds for the buying and selling of commodities for the purpose of attempted stabilization or otherwise. We condemn as a temporary or permanent policy of government the employment of public funds for the purpose of participation in business in competition with established agencies and support the proposal for an amendment of the Agricultural Marketing Act to modify the bill in this respect. We are not opposed to and never have opposed any co-operative movement owned, controlled and financed by the producers themselves."

COTTON MARKET

NEW YORK, Dec. 5. (AP)—Cotton was quiet today and prices fluctuated within a narrow range. A slight early advance on some trade buying and covering for over the week-end was followed by moderate reactions, but the midafternoon market was fairly steady within a point or two either way of yesterday's closing quotations. According to a canvass made today, New York Cotton Exchange members are expecting a crop of 14,405,000 bales.

GERMAN DOLE LOAD HEAVY

Method of Handling Unemployment Problem Held Responsible for Municipal Debt Burden

BY JOHN F. SINCLAIR

(Copyright, 1930, by the North American Newspaper Alliance)

NEW YORK, Dec. 5.—Unemployment in Germany is not handled in the same way as it is in Great Britain. Germany had long experience with unemployment insurance before the war, much more experience than any other nation.

So now the national German dole is given to the unemployed only for a period of eighteen months, not indefinitely, as in Great Britain. After that the recipient must get what help he can from the local government or fall back on private charity.

That is one reason why German cities are up "to their necks" in debt. Here is the way it works: In 1913 Frankfort-on-the-Main expended 3,735,000 marks (around $900,000) to take care of 8111 destitute persons. In August, 1931, there were 82,998 persons, or 15 per cent of the entire population of 540,000, on the pension rolls. These were persons not eligible to the national dole. In the fiscal year of 1929-30 this city of 500,000 expended 38,000,000 marks for relief, or 22 per cent of its total budget of 170,000,00 marks.

Oswald G. Villard, editor of the Nation, said recently that Frankfort expended in her fiscal year 1928-29 31 per cent more than the sum expended for the same work in 1927-28. The figures are steadily rising. Where is the end?

So when a writer refers to the 4,000,000 unemployed in Germany this is only part of the problem. For German cities, too, have their unemployment troubles. Figures, to be comprehensive, must include not only the nationally unemployed, but the locally unemployed as well. And this is rarely done.

Wednesday the German Reichstag met. Chancellor Bruening will submit his financial plans to the national congress and await the results.

"It ought not to take many months more for the so-called statesmen to realize that the German crisis affects everybody and that as one country sinks, as Germany is doing, the lower and lower standards of living gradually affect the welfare of every other country," writes Mr. Villard from Germany.

Still there are some who feel that the business of making Europe prosperous or poor is of no concern to America.

How much money is a public utility company entitled to earn? In the recent Chicago Telephone Company case Chief Justice Hughes in his first important case since his accession to the United States Supreme Court, speaking for the court, answered the question by saying:

"A public utility is entitled to such rates as will permit it to earn a return on the value of the property which it employs for the convenience of the public equal to that generally being made at the same time and in the same general part of the country on investments in other business undertakings which are attended by corresponding risks and uncertainties, but it has no constitutional right to profits such as are realized or anticipated in highly profitable enterprises or speculative ventures."

And then this further statement: "The return should be reasonably sufficient to assure confidence in the financial soundness of the utility and should be adequate under sufficient and economical management to maintain and support its credit and enable it to raise the money necessary for the proper discharge of its public duties."

While that statement is rather general in its application, it does not change the position which the Supreme Court has maintained in recent years, dealing with the income of public utility concerns.

TRADING ON WOOL MART STILL DULL

Weekly Review Expects Turn of Year to Show Change for Better

BOSTON, Dec. 5. (AP)—The Commercial Bulletin tomorrow will say:

Although there is general agreement that the wool market is on the last stages of liquidation and that the turn of the year undoubtedly will bring improvement, the market has continued sluggish again this week and prices have favored the buyer, with all interests showing a disposition to meet the market, the finer qualities have had the chief call again.

Foreign markets have been a bit irregular but on the whole little changed from a week ago. Merinos are considered in fairly safe position and even crossbreds are believed to have reached bottom at length. London is reported more spirited.

The manufacturers appear to be marking time still, so far as current purchases are concerned, but there is evidence of growing interest in wool on January 1 dating. Meanwhile, the natural course of events is in favor of heavier buying by the mills and reports from the piecegoods markets supports this theory.

Mohair still is dull and hardly changed in price.

The rail and water shipments of wool from Boston, according to the same authority from January 1, 1930, to December 4, 1930, inclusive, were 122,694,000 pounds against 162,419,000 pounds for the same period last year. The receipts from January 1, 1930, to December 4, 1930, inclusive, were 311,876,612 pounds against 290,740,900 pounds for the same period last year.

November Steel Ingot Output in Sharp Decrease

NEW YORK, Dec. 5. (AP)—Steel ingot production in November declined to an approximate daily output of 89,379 gross tons, the lowest since June, 1924, and the lowest for November since 1921, figures published today by the American Iron and Steel Institute disclosed.

The figures compared with an approximate daily output of 100,756 tons in October. The average for June, 1924, was 82,700 tons, and that for November, 1921, 72,800 tons.

NEW YORK BOND PRICES

NEW YORK, Dec. 5. (AP)—Pressure against carrier obligations contributed to unsettlement of domestic bonds today. Losses of two points or more were distributed through the rail bonds, and the day's decline carried many to new lows for the year.

United States governments suffered from the decline, receding about 1-16th on an average.

In the foreign section the strength of German governments and some other obligations originating in that country was marked. German International 5½s, at a closing price of 74, were 1⅛ higher on the day and 6 points above the record low.

The reaction in railroad bonds was the sharpest in several weeks. The drop of nearly a point in the average of ten rails was the principal factor in the general average, dropping ½ point to a new 1930 minimum. It was the third new low in as many days.

A 10-point drop in New York, Ontario and Western 4s represented the extreme decline in the rail group. Erie 5s of 1967 dipped 6 points, the 5s of 1975, 2⅞, general 4s, 1⅛ and the infrequently traded convertible 4s, 8¾. Alleghany Corporation 5s of 1944 declined 5, and the 5s of 1949 4½.

Frisco 4½s reacted 2 points. Among issues at new 1930 minimums were Northwestern 4½s C, and Great Northern 5½s.

Investment issues of communications and electric companies were heavy.

Some of the oils and sugar bonds were liquidated. Texas Corporation 5s and Shell Union 5s eased to new year's lows. Sugar Oriente 7s, sagged 2 points, and Punta Alegre 7s were 5 points lower.

The closing price is omitted when same as the low, and both low and close when same as high.

Corn Futures Weaker; Wheat Rules Steadier

CHICAGO, Dec. 5. (AP)—Enlarged receipts here and at other market centers gave a sudden tumble to corn values today, but wheat received adequate support, ascribed to government-sponsored sources. Besides, reports of poor wheat yields came from Argentina.

Corn closed heavy, 1¼@2½ cents a bushel lower than yesterday. Wheat closed irregular, ⅛ off to ⅛ cent up, with oats at ⅛ decline to ⅛ cent advance, and provisions from 15 cents lower to a rise of 12 cents.

Corn broke nearly 2½ cents a bushel in some cases, and showed little power to rally.

Wheat was responsive at times to corn weakness, but price declines did not get far in the face of timely buying credited to Farm Board allies. Oats were governed by other cereals, especially corn.

Offers of No. 2 Canadian rye were made here at equal to 4¾ cents over the Chicago December delivery. The offers were c.i.f. duty paid, with free storage until next spring.

Provisions averaged lower with hogs and corn.

NEW YORK CURB STOCKS

NEW YORK, Dec. 5. (AP)—Curb market shares again worked irregularly lower today, although partial recovery was recorded in the last hour. Trade expanded moderately, making total sales 509,500 shares, the first time the half-million share level has been exceeded in more than a week.

The prominent oil shares attracted support, after sagging in spots. The decided stand taken by Royal Dutch officials in favor of stabilization of crude prices, at a time when the industry is faced with low consumption, low prices and considerable uncertainty, may have helped this group. Declines of a point or so in Cities Service, Gulf and Standard of Ohio were regained before the close. Cities Service closing up ⅛. Derby sagged ½ to a new at 3⅛, and British American lost nearly 2 points.

The utilities moved more narrowly than they have recently. Electric Bond and Share sagged more than a point, then rallied to close off only ⅛.

Industrials and specialties were irregularly lower. Novadel Agene gained about 2 points in response to the larger dividend, but Aluminum Company lost 2 points.

Most insurance stocks declined in light trading. Guardian Fire, Employers' Reinsurance, Insurance Company of North America, and Fire Association of Philadelphia lost a point or two.

United Founders touched 8¼, a new low and closed at 8⅜, off only ⅛.

Mining shares were mixed. Noranda rallied a point, while Newmont sold off as much. In the natural gas shares, Natural Fuel Gas lost 2 points, and Southwest Gas Utilities touched a new minimum at 3½.

The closing price is omitted when same as the low, and both low and close when same as the high.

METAL MARKETS

CLEVELAND, Dec. 5. (Exclusive)—Daily Metal Trade today says: The recent advancing of prices on plates, shapes and bars for first quarter shipment, by leading producers has cleared the market atmosphere considerably. Much of the uncertainty resulting from the absence of a published price for the first quarter is thought to have tended to defer contracting. Even wit the price announced, however, producers do not look for any marked pick-up in buying immediately, although they are confident consumers will enter the market on a fairly large scale at the first of the year.

ROLPH AND WIFE HEAD THIS WAY

Governor-Elect Expected to Name Two Officials on Visit in Los Angeles

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 5. (Exclusive)—Gov.-elect Rolph, accompanied by Mrs. Rolph, left for Los Angeles tonight on a combined official and pleasure visit, the official part of which will result, he anticipates, in the naming of a new State Corporation Commissioner and a new Real Estate Commissioner. Both these major posts in the new State administration are slated to be filled by Southern Californians but who they will be the Governor-elect gave not the slightest inkling.

It is highly probable, he indicated, that he will name also, while in Los Angeles, a director of social welfare and a new chief for the Division of Industrial Welfare, and he plans to keep an eye alert for a prospective new director of the State traffic patrol.

Capt. Cannon of the Los Angeles county traffic squad has been mentioned as a possible successor to Eugene Biscailuz in the State traffic post. Rolph declared he wants to keep this post out of politics and wants a policeman to fill it. Two San Francisco police captains are said to have been approached about the job but declined.

P. W. Meherin, J. J. Tynan and Joseph J. Moore will be appointed San Francisco State Harbor Commissioners, Gov.-elect Rolph announced today.

NEW COAST AIR ROUTE PROPOSED

Line From Portland to Los Angeles Would Run Inland Through Reno

PORTLAND (Or.) Dec. 5. (AP)—Establishment of an airway east of the Cascades from The Dalles, Or., south to Los Angeles by way of Reno, would be a boon to western aviation, Tex Rankin, Portland aviator, told a western regional traffic and aviation conference here today.

The conference opened immediately after the closing session of the Western States Aeronautics Association and was attended by the same representatives of western States.

Rankin said fog is seldom found east of the Cascades, while along the coast it often is heavy in winter. East of the Cascades flying would be mostly over desert, and a ship could be landed almost any place.

Resolutions concerning the suggestion will be drawn up tomorrow and will be referred to the western division meeting of the United States Chamber of Commerce meeting here next Monday and Tuesday.

Heavy Tourist Influx Indicated by Trails' Check

SAN BERNARDINO, Dec. 5.—Heavy tourist travel into California this winter is indicated in the November report of the Daggett and Yermo checking stations of the State Department of Agriculture, released today by J. P. Coy, county horticultural commissioner. The report shows a total of 19,885 persons traveling in 6577 vehicles, entered California over the National Old Trails and the Arrowhead Trails highways during the past month.

The count at the Daggett station on the Old Trails Highway was 9768 passengers in 3258 machines. Of the total number of cars, 2232 bore license plates from other States, and 1026 were from California. Through the Yermo station on the Arrowhead Trails Highway 10,117 persons traveling in 3319 vehicles were counted. There were 1769 out-State cars and 1550 from California.

The checking stations are maintained by the Department of Agriculture for inspection of all agricultural materials brought into the State, and for the rejection of any which might cause the spread of agricultural pests or diseases.

Autos Pile Up in Dense Fog

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 5. (AP)—A dense fog caused twelve automobiles to pile up today on the Yolo Causeway, west of Sacramento. State officials were caught in the tangle, and Emanuel Diel, Sacramento salesman, was cut and bruised.

Two cars collided on the narrow causeway. An automobile carrying Vincent Kennedy, executive secretary to Gov. Young, and Ralph Bull, Eureka, highway commissioner, stopped at the wrecked machines. Some one ran into them, damaging their car. Other vehicles halted. Then Diel hit the line of machines, jamming them together.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 5. (AP)—Two Municipal street cars collided in a dense fog at the Ocean Beach terminal here today, and Lloyd Griffin, a motorman, was injured seriously.

HOLD-UP VICTIM SHOT AND MAY SUCCUMB

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 5. (AP)—John M. Ford, 55 years of age, well-known Sacramento grocer, was shot here tonight by two armed bandits who held him up in front of his home. He may die. The hold-up followed two other robberies in the same general neighborhood just a few moments before. In the first Mrs. Elizabeth Spencer was robbed at the point of a gun at the door of her residence. In the other, a small sum was taken from a bakery.

HARDWICK BANK LOSES TO BANDITS

Two Unmasked Men Hold Up Cashier and Escape With Approximately $1150

HANFORD, Dec. 5.—Bandits held up the First National Bank of Hardwick, nine miles northwest of here, just before the closing hour today and made away with approximately $1150.

Two unmasked men, one wearing a sweater and drab trousers, the other overalls, entered the bank a few minutes before 3 p.m., and at the point of a blue automatic pistol, ordered Cashier J. L. Sharp to "stick 'em up and keep quiet." One of the bandits demanded Sharp's gun, which was handed over, and the other hastily scraped the counter money, amounting to $150 in gold pieces and about $1000 in currency, into a sack. Both then left the bank hurriedly and entered a tan-colored roadster and drove at breakneck speed westerly toward the town of Riverdale.

Sheriff W. V. Buckner was notified and immediately sent word to authorities throughout the valley. Up to this evening no trace had been found of the bandits.

There was some speculation here as to possible identity of the robbers. It was believed by some that the gunmen might be members of the trio who yesterday held up the State Bank of Escalon in Stanislaus county, and that they might be members of the Frank Smith gang. Smith was slain in a gun battle with officers in Oakland, last Sunday. Other officers expressed the opinion that the Hardwick bandits were probably the same who twice recently held up the Plaza Service Station on the Golden State Highway thirteen miles east of here, and who not long ago held up a cotton company office near Corcoran.

SEARCH FOR SIX MANIACS UNAVAILING

No Clews Found in Hunt for Madmen Who Escaped Matteawan Hospital

NEW YORK, Dec. 5. (Exclusive)—Hiding behind chimneys, peering through the dusty windows of vacant apartments, strolling through East Side crowds, a whole squad of detectives today haunted the neighborhood of West Fifty-third street, where Frank Vanderkuylen, the insane acid thrower, who was one of the six madmen who yesterday escaped from Matteawan State Hospital for the Criminal Insane, twice turned up yesterday searching for his wife.

His wife already had fled from the building in terror, taking her two small children with her. Vanderkuylen did not stay long on his second visit. Today the police department was lavish in its display of detectives in the neighborhood, but the insane killer did not come back.

Nor has any trace been found of the other inmates of the hospital. They made a clean break from the hospital early yesterday morning after three friends "from the outside," headed by William E. Nelson, a former inmate who had escaped two weeks ago, invaded the grounds and tied up six guards.

School Trustees Adopt Resolution in Southland Gathering at Glendale

GLENDALE, Dec. 5. (Exclusive)—School trustees from all over Southern California, meeting here tonight, adopted resolutions condemning the present teacher tenure law as opposed to the best educational interests of the State, and perfected a permanent organization to carry the matter before the next Legislature with a view to having the law amended.

It is planned to have the legislative committee of the new organization meet with the legislative committee of the California Teachers' Association in Los Angeles the 12th inst., to endeavor to reach an amendment that will be satisfactory to all concerned.

The resolution adopted as presented by Paul E. Stillman of the Glendale Board of Education held that the principle safeguarding the profession of teaching is correct but that the present teacher tenure law goes beyond it.

CURB ON GAS IN WARFARE SUGGESTED

Polish Delegation at Arms Commission Has Proposal for Multilateral Treaty

GENEVA, Dec. 5. (AP)—The Polish delegation to the preparatory disarmament commission today proposed a special convention to consider restriction of gas and chemical warfare. The proposal received the support of several other delegations.

A mere promise not to employ gas and other chemical weapons such as bacteriological germs in warfare is not enough, Gen. Kaprzski, Polish spokesman, told the commission. Such a promise is embodied in the general treaty draft just completed by the preparatory commission.

The Polish proposal was backed by the delegations from Belgium, Jugo-Slavia, Finland and Rumania. It would provide for a multilateral treaty not unlike the financial assistance convention, whose signatories would engage to come to the aid of any country which suffered a gas or bacteriological attack from another nation.

FILM AIDS STUDIES OF AUTO KNOCK

Camera Spots Trouble Through Quartz Window in Cylinder Head

NEW YORK, Dec. 5. (AP)—Motion pictures which reveal the nature of an auto engine's knock were described tonight by T. A. Boyd of the General Motors Research Laboratories before the New York section of the American Chemical Society.

A narrow quartz window was put in the top of a cylinder head, and through it the camera photographed the flame as it moved from the spark plug to the other end of the combustion chamber.

When a knock was present the flame started at the usual rate, then suddenly seemed to leap instantly to the end of the chamber.

"It is this combustion of a substantial portion of the charge at a rate that is substantially infinite which is the thing called knock," Boyd said.

Los Rojos Exponen sus Ideas Ante una Comisión de la Cámara

WASHINGTON, Diciembre 5.—Los testigos comunistas que declararon hoy ante la comisión especial nombrada por la cámara de diputados para investigar la cuestión del comunismo, atacaron la bandera de los Estados Unidos, los derechos de propiedad y la religión, y aseguraron que una revolución daría al traste con el dominio capitalista en este país.

Uno de los jefes titulares del partido en los Estados Unidos, William Z. Foster, candidato dos veces a la presidencia, dijo que los comunistas creen en la confiscación gubernativa de los artículos de primera necesidad, y en que la religión no es más que un estupefaciente.

Manifestó que no tenían más que una bandera, la bandera roja; que las demás son banderas de capitalistas, a las que no rinden homenaje ninguno.

Previamente se había rehusado Foster a dar el nombre de los directores de las actividades comunistas en Estados Unidos. Más adelante dijo que "prefería no mencionar" quién era el jefe en Moscú de la sección yanqui de la International Comunista.

Agregó Foster que era obrero nativo de este país, y explicó que para ser comunistas no es indispensable ser ateo; pero "debe uno hallarse en camino de liquidar sus creencias religiosas."

Senator Scores Indian Affairs Administration

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5. (AP)—The government's administration of Indian affairs was assailed today by Senator Wheeler, Democrat, Montana, as "little less than criminal."

He told Interior Department officials at a hearing by a Senate Indian Affairs subcommittee the department is letting the government's wards "starve to death," and field agents are "sitting around doing nothing."

Joseph M. Dixon, assistant Secretary of the Interior; Charles J. Rhoads, Commissioner of Indian Affairs; J. Henry Scattergood, assistant commissioner, and other officials argued they were hampered by lack of funds.

They contended some of the conditions complained of involved "competent" or citizen Indians, for whom the government has little or no responsibility.

DETECTIVE INSPECTORS APPOINTED

Davidson and Longuevan Will Have Field Jobs by Reorganization Plan

In line with Chief Steckel's recent move in assigning three police inspectors to supervise the uniformed ranks in three divisional areas, Chief of Detectives Taylor yesterday placed two inspectors of detectives in the field to operate in a like capacity with the various divisional detective bureaus. The officers are David Davidson and D. W. Longuevan.

Davidson will be in charge of the Hollywood, Wilshire, Valley, Venice, University and West Los Angeles detectives bureaus, while Longuevan will command the Lincoln Heights, Hollenbeck Heights, Newton street, Seventy-seventh - street, Georgia and San Pedro bureaus.

Davidson has been in charge of the central division homicide squad. Longuevan has been business officer inspector at night.

As a result of Davidson's transfer, Acting Captain of Detectives Miller was moved from Hollywood to fill the vacancy on the homicide squad, Acting Captain of Detectives T. M. Carmen was transferred from the Seventy-seventh-street division to Hollywood, Captain of Detectives Hubert J. Wallis left Lincoln Heights to take command of the Seventy-seventh-street division detective bureau, and Detective Lieutenant Niles R. Hoff was moved from Georgia-street to command the bureau at Lincoln Heights.

Christmas Seal Warning Issued

Christmas seals bearing the crimson double-barred Cross of Lorraine, which have been mailed to residents of Los Angeles by the Los Angeles Tuberculosis Association, are the only official Christmas seals of the national, State, and local tuberculosis associations, used to raise funds to stamp out tuberculosis.

The warning was issued by Dr R. L. Cunningham, president of the Los Angeles Tuberculosis Association, that several types of holiday seals are being offered which have no connection with the association and which tend to confound the public mind with the Christmas seal movement inaugurated twenty years ago by the National Tuberculosis Association and conducted in Los Angeles for thirteen years.

TAX ZERO HOUR PASSES

Last Day for First Half of 1930-1931 Payment Sees 1929 Collections Record Beaten

Opportunity to pay first installments of county taxes for the fiscal year of 1930-31 passed yesterday at 5 p.m. and all delinquencies became subject to a penalty of 10 per cent.

At the close of business yesterday collections estimated at $34,515,513.86 had been received at the office of Tax Collector Welch on the third floor of the Hall of Justice. This figure was exclusive of remittances estimated at close to $40,000,000 in approximately 200,000 parcels of unopened or uncredited mail.

MARKED CONTRAST

As a marked contrast to closing days of previous years, taxpayers yesterday were not compelled to wait hours in long lines to make payments. This was brought about, Welch explained, through increasing the facilities of the office and thereby making it possible to serve a greater number of persons with a minimum of effort and time.

When the books of the office were balanced at noon yesterday it was found that collections totaling $33,765,513.86 had been received and credited. This figure was approximately 26.77 per cent of the total tax of $126,131,533.60 to be collected for the present fiscal year. On the corresponding day last year $31,053,024, or 23.75 per cent of the total tax had been collected.

FINAL COLLECTIONS HIGH

During the eight business hours between noon Thursday and noon yesterday $4,040,491.15 was collected, as compared to $3,566,094.39 for the corresponding day a year ago, according to figures compiled by W. A. Ashcroft, general book-keeper.

Activities of the office for the next several days will consist chiefly of crediting payments received through the mail, which must bear a postmark not later than 5 p.m. yesterday to avoid the penalty.

Collection of second installments of taxes begins on January 20, next.

City Job Fund Details Given

In a formal announcement yesterday by President Steele of the Associated City Employees' Fund for the Unemployed, the name of the secretary-treasurer is given as Thad M. Erwin, 209 South Broadway. First announcement declared J. F. Moran was secretary-treasurer.

Registration booths for men seeking employment have been opened at fire stations. Los Angeles citizens and heads of families will be given preference. City employees are expected to contribute 1 per cent of their salaries and contributions will be accepted from the general public.

BAR GROUP NOMINEES SELECTED

Association Presidents Outside of City Put Up for Trusteeship

The first report of a Los Angeles Bar Association nominating committee since the adoption of the revised constitution, which calls for representation on the board of trustees of four men from affiliated associations outside the city, was received yesterday and shows that the nominations include Allen P. Nichols, president of the Pomona Bar Association; Raymond Thompson, president of the Pasadena Bar Association; James H. Mitchell, president of the San Fernando Valley Bar Association, and Judge S. H. Underwood, president of the Long Beach Bar Association. The other nominations for trustees are from the Los Angeles Bar Association and are as follows: T. W. Robinson, Loyd Wright, Judge William Hazlett, Clement L. Shinn and Harry J. McLean. Three trustees whose terms do not expire and who hold over are Arthur M. Ellis, Henry F. Prince and Joe Crider, Jr.

Besides the trustees the nominating committee has named Irving Walker for president, Robert J. Jennings for senior vice-president and Lawrence L. Larrabee for junior vice-president. These officer and trustee nominations will be balloted upon at the annual election in January, 1931.

The nominating committee consisted of William J. Hunsaker, Roy W. Dowds, Joseph Smith, Edward Winterer, Ezra Neff, E. Neal Ames and J. H. Mitchell.

Railway Urged to Run Signals

Operation by the Santa Fe line of the traffic signals on Slauson avenue so that they would co-ordinate with the operation of its trains along its right of way would eliminate present traffic danger and much of the whistling and bell ringing now complained about by the Slauson Avenue Improvement Association, the Board of Public Utilities and Transportation was informed yesterday by its engineers.

The City Council, which referred the complaint of the association about the noise to the board, is to be informed of the suggestion that the railway operate the signals.

CASEY TO "TAKE MEDICINE"

Self-Admitted Swindler Will Plead Guilty, He Says, and Accept Sentence of Court

Indictments will be asked of the grand jury charging Thomas Casey, 76-year-old financier of Huntington Park, with grand theft on numerous counts, and the man will plead guilty to the accusation and accept sentence to San Quentin prison, it was announced yesterday after an all-day investigation of his asserted issuance of fraudulent notes and mortgages.

"I am willing to take my medicine," Casey told Dep. Dist.-Atty. Ferguson yesterday, "and I want my creditors to get back as much money as possible from my estate and want them to realize all they can from the financial losses my acts have brought about," he said.

Casey spent almost the whole day yesterday going over in detail his transactions carried on as president of the Casey Investment Company of Huntington Park.

From his own admissions it was apparent that approximately $175,000 has been obtained by Casey in issuance of the forged notes and mortgages from between twenty-five and thirty residents of Huntington Park. Approximately seventy-five to 100 people, including the two title insurance companies, are involved.

Out of the wreckage there will be little salvage, according to Ferguson and Joseph N. Owen, attorney for Casey. The former banker has assets of approximately $25,000 which it is planned to take through bankruptcy so that some division may be arrived at to repay a part of the sums invested. About $35,000, according to Casey, was sent back to Missouri to creditors there who were pressing him for payments on losses sustained in a bank failure. Casey served a five-year term on a forgery charge in Missouri as a result of the failure.

Casey will be taken before the grand jury Tuesday and will relate

WRIGHT VISIONS COUNTY FUTURE

Supervisors' New Chairman Outlines Projects

Flood Control, Courthouse and Hospital Listed

Jail Expansion and Highway Work Considered

Flood-control work must go forward, a new Courthouse must be considered, the new General Hospital should be finished as soon as possible and the county's road program expedited, according to Henry W. Wright, new chairman of the Board of Supervisors, in a statement issued yesterday.

Chairman Wright predicted that within a short time the new members of the board will have familiarized themselves with their duties and that body will be functioning 100 per cent.

UNEMPLOYMENT PROBLEM

While the board is facing many problems, the most serious at present being unemployment, the chairman declared the proper solution of them lay in full co-operation between the Supervisors and the citizens of the county.

"The new members of the board," he said, "have assumed their offices and duties with an evident desire and purpose to familiarize themselves with the vast problems of county government in the shortest possible time, and I therefore predict the board will very soon be functioning 100 per cent.

"The new plan of group committees is meeting with approval everywhere, and should strengthen the board in its control and supervision over the various departments and functions of county government.

"Obviously, the most serious problem confronting the new board at the present time is the widespread unemployment among our people. There must be no long delay in meeting this situation effectively. Every dollar available for public improvements requiring labor must be put to work at once.

KEEP TAXES LOW

"On the other hand, taxes, which come from the rich and poor alike, must be held down to the minimum, consistent with the maintenance of efficient service. For that reason, expenditures of public moneys for nonessentials must be strictly avoided. Taxes and assessments must be curtailed to the minimum in order that money may find its way into channels of trade and thereby aid in restoring prosperity.

"The new County Hospital must be finished and put in use at the earliest possible date, both because of the public need and because only thus will it return dividends on the largest investment therein.

"Very soon the board must again consider and solve the County Jail situation, either by establishing a prison farm, an extension of the honor-camp system, or by other suitable means.

"The need for a new Courthouse to house properly the courts and departments of county government is imperative. Very soon the county will be paying rentals far beyond the bounds of good business. The Civic Center development must receive attention.

"Nine flood-control dams have been completed and the tenth is now being constructed in Tujunga Canyon. The San Gabriel project, for which there are in the County Treasury more than $21,000,000 of unsold bonds, will, under the direct guidance and supervision of new hands, find, we hope, a suitable and satisfactory solution.

ROADS AND FIRES

"The county road program must intelligently go forward; an improved method of preventing disastrous forest fires and the destruction of watersheds, must be evolved.

"Our ocean beaches must be saved to the public; more community parks must be established; dangerous grade crossings must be eliminated; a county building code is becoming a necessity; intelligent zoning to protect both residence and business and industry must be carried out; the need of a comprehensive water conservation program for the county is on the horizon; the appeal to industry to locate in our county must not lessen; the tourist must be invited to come and remain." In closing, he said:

"The cultural development of a great community is another thing that must not be overlooked.

PARENTS FILE SUIT OVER CHILD'S DEATH

For the death of Ruby McLorn, daughter of James A. and Margaret McLorn, the parents yesterday sued Stephen A. and May Gordon for $50,500. The child was run over and killed by an automobile belonging to the defendants, according to the suit, while she was playing in front of 1825 Beloit avenue, on August 7, last. Attorney Paul Taylor filed the suit.

FORMER OFFICER REPAID FOR "LOAN" TO TRANSIENT

Seven years ago Police Officer L. D. (Dinty) Moore gave 50 cents for carfare to a transient who accosted him near the Pacific Electric station and inquired the shortest road to Long Beach.

Yesterday Moore, now a bailiff in Municipal Court, received a letter from Hi. Jameson, now a prosperous Missouri farmer, recounting the incident and inclosing two $1 bills. In the letter Jameson thanked Moore for the "loan" and recited that he had obtained a job in Long Beach which he retained for some years, saved his money and purchased a Missouri farm. He is in Los Angeles for the winter, he said, but wrote the letter instead of calling on Moore because he had to depart unexpectedly for New Mexico.

Today, Moore declared, the first four "down-and-outers" who are discharged from his court will receive 50 cents each from Jameson's "fund" to help them along.

"I'm going to get it back into circulation immediately," Moore said, "and I hope it'll bring as good luck to other fellows who happen to be down and out as it did to Jameson."

CITY ADVISED HOW TO CURB CRIME WAVE

Chamber of Commerce's Suggestions Referred to Council Committees

The City Council yesterday received and referred to the Police and Fire committees and the Finance Committee a communication from the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce containing the conclusions of the board in the city's campaign against crime.

First suggestions are that police officers in clerical positions and on minor crime assignments be released to activities against major crime and other city employees inducted into their roles, although no way was suggested to overcome civil service rules prohibiting transfers in the latter case.

The letter also recommends a special election to raise the present tax-rate limit of $1.25 per $100 assessed valuation to $1.50. Such action, the Council announced, will require an amendment to the city charter. The proposed amendment in turn must be approved by the State Legislature, which meets in one month.

Mrs. Richbart's Rites Tomorrow

Funeral services for Mrs. Alice C. Richbart, 62 years of age, a local resident for the last thirty-three years and an active worker in Jewish philanthropic circles, will be conducted at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow at the Glasband & Groman mortuary, 901 West Washington street.

Rabbi Herman Lissauer will officiate at the funeral ceremonies, which will be followed by interment in Hollywood Cemetery Mausoleum. Mrs. Richbart was one of the organizers and the first president of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Hebrew Sheltering Home for the Aged.

Mrs. Richbart leaves her husband, Louis; a son, Floyd Goodman, and a daughter Bertha Richbart. She died Thursday evening at the family residence, 634 South Gramercy Place.

REGIME OF FAMILIES ASSERTED

Councilman Asks Inquiry on Positions of Relatives of Municipal Workers

Charging that Los Angeles is governed by "families," Councilman Lewis yesterday introduced a resolution in the City Council calling on each municipal employee to furnish data on his own and his relatives' employment, in the event they work either for the city, county, State or Federal government.

In discussing the resolution, which was referred to the Efficiency and Personnel Committee, Lewis said it will be highly illuminating if it is learned how many city employees are living in other municipalities.

Lewis wants each city employee to file with the department head the following information:

(1.) If he is the only member of the family working for the city;

(2.) The relationship of said employee;

(3.) Employee's age;

VETERANS URGE HOLIDAY FOR WOMEN

Asserting that thousands of married women whose husbands are gainfully employed are holding city, county, State and Federal jobs, the Hollywood chapter No. 35, Disabled American Veterans of the Great War, yesterday adopted a resolution urging these women be granted a holiday "in order that their positions may be filled temporarily by men and women who are now unemployed and in dire need of relief."

The resolution urges governing bodies of the city, county, State and Federal offices to make a survey of their employees to determine which can be laid off without injury to their dependents.

KIWANIS CLUB PICKS NEW SET OF OFFICERS

X-RAY AIDS LEPROSY STUDY

Radiologist Sees Hope of Eradicating Disease; Convention Ends With Agua Caliente Trip

With the help of the X-ray, science is learning more and more about leprosy, that oldest and most dreaded scourge of the human race, Dr. W. Edward Chamberlain of Philadelphia declared yesterday in an address before the closing session of the sixteenth annual convention of the Radiological Society of North America at the Ambassador. An exhaustive study of the disease has been facilitated by the ray, he said, and has given rise to hope that some day it will be unknown to mankind.

The paper read by Dr. Chamberlain was prepared by him in collaboration with Dr. L. H. Garland of San Francisco, and Dr. N. E. Wayson of Honolulu, who has studied leprosy in the Hawaiian Islands.

"Leprosy affects most markedly the bones of the hands and the feet," he said, "and often a case progresses until deformity is unpreventable. But by modern X-ray diagnosis of these bone changes, we have shown in 150 cases that the disease, which may be fully localized, does not need to be dreaded as incurable.

"Of course, a definite cure for leprosy has been established. I refer to Chaulmoogra oil, a serum given to patient by injection. This oil is now being produced in Porto Rico and also in Asia, where it apparently originated from the Chaulmoogra tree.

"And so with a serum which cures, and with X-ray observation for diagnostic purposes, it seems likely that leprosy, which dates back to Biblical times, is destined at last to be abolished from the earth."

As on the four previous days of the convention, cancer and its treatment by radium again received attention in papers by other members. Dr. Francis Carter Wood of Columbia University deprecated attempts to "cure the incurable in cancer," and advised those stricken to seek early treatment. Just as 70 per cent of those who apply for treatment of malignant growths are

My old friend Bill Fawcett is motoring in from somewhere or other tomorrow. He comes by motor cars, trains and flying machine, and he is always bound for some weird place to find out what the Mayan Indians used for cocktails—or how many bighorn sheep are left in Beluchistan.

He is a singularly interesting and restless character. Banged up in the war, he was lying wounded in a military hospital; began writing smart cracks to amuse the boys. Out of this grew a chain of some ten or twelve successful magazines.

TEACHING BY TALKIES

These slow-motion talkies revealing the mysteries of golf strokes and football plays are leading to something beyond the present imagination of the movie magnates.

The future of the motion pictures is in the way of education. Eventually they will change all modern educational methods. We are an "eye" people. And one easily bored by inaction.

I have always contended that to bore a pupil in school is to fasten upon his mind a permanent injury.

FOLICE TARGET OF $40,000 SUIT

Maywood Officers Named in Bruce Boyce's Action

Beating Charged to Pair of Suburb Patrolmen

Plaintiff Was Acquitted in Drunk-Driving Case

Bruce Boyce of Maywood asks a total of $40,000 damages in two suits filed yesterday, one against two policemen of Maywood for a beating asserted to have been received by him and the other against the same officers and the police judge and Chief of Police of the suburban city.

Boyce was arrested in the driveway of his father's home, he said, and after being handcuffed, was taken to the Maywood Jail, without a citation having been issued for him. Later a felony complaint was filed in the Los Angeles Municipal Court, after deputies of Dist.-Atty. Fitts had investigated the case and refused to file.

At his trial, in Superior Court on a charge of driving while intoxicated, Boyce was acquitted.

For the beating he asserted he received, Boyce asks $10,000 from Policemen Jack D. Lyons and Roy Main, and from these officers and their chief, A. J. Haws, and from Police Judge J. Harold Craigin, who ordered him committed for trial in Municipal Court, he asks $30,000 more.

Attorney Louis Budway filed both suits.

While Casey was preparing for his plea of guilty investigators from the District Attorney's office were endeavoring to locate parties in Missouri who are asserted to have threatened the exposure of Casey unless he made payment for losses sustained in the bank failure of twenty-seven years ago.

Forest-fire prevention demands the development of an organization requiring an annual outlay by the State, exclusive of funds from Federal and other sources, of not less than $800,000, E. W. TRADE WEEK PLANS MADE "Overseas market for California products" will be the theme of the California Foreign Trade Week to be observed from February 16 to February 22, 1931, C. L. Progress in the historical marking project was reported by A. Emory Wishon of the highway committee.

Eastman, as chairman of the simplified practice committee, stated that the committee is studying safety regulations for the different industrial groups and plans later to present definite recommendations for the application of safety standards that will reduce the present basic rate of compensation insurance.

Tailor Selects Mortuary for Suicide Trial

A mortuary yesterday stood out in the despondent mind of a would-be suicide as the most logical place to end his life. Ralph De Fiore, 42 years of age, a tailor, of 1940 Cypress avenue, entered the Los Angeles Undertaking Company at 4513 Pasadena avenue and asked Norman Worley, proprietor, to show him some caskets. After inspecting them casually he went to an adjoining room and shot himself in the chest with a .32-caliber automatic pistol. Georgia-street Receiving Hospital surgeons say he probably will recover.

In De Fiore's pockets, police found a note to his divorced wife, Mrs. Anita De Fiore, 2378 West Avenue 31, referring to domestic discord. Mrs. De Fiore said her ex-husband had been unemployed for some time. The couple have a 9-year-old son.

Inauguration of Gov. Rolph will be the signal for the launching of California's Fiesta Year program, according to A. E. Goddard and Fred Kiesel, both of Sacramento, members of the Citizens' Committee of Sacramento for the Gov. Rolph inaugural, who came to Los Angeles yesterday for the directors' meeting of the State Chamber of Commerce.

Pageantry of the romantic days of early California will be a distinguishing feature of the festivities, the committee members reported, stating that the activities will begin Sunday, January 3, next, and continue through January 5.

Goddard, as chairman of the invitation group of the Sacramento Citizens' Committee, and Kiesel yesterday invited the directors of the State chamber to attend the inaugural. An invitation also has been extended to Mayor Walker of New York, a personal friend of the newly elected Governor.

POETESS LOSES PROPERTY SUIT

Mrs. Ida Eckert-Lawrence's Claim Rejected

Real Estate Worth $22,500 Involved in Case

Action Over Tract Due to Mortgage Foreclosure

Mrs. Ida Eckert-Lawrence, poetess who was commissioned to write the ode to the St. Louis Exposition, today may find comfort in her poem which contains the following stanza:

"The world's not filled with roses,
The purtiest face may frown,
An' many have lost in battle won,
An' many a good ship's gone down."

Superior Judge Gould yesterday filed a decision against Mrs. Lawrence, her daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Peacock, and others, and in favor of William J. Gunn, who instituted suit to quiet title to an entire beneficial interest in a trust involving $22,500 worth of property.

Judge Gould's memorandum recites that Mrs. Lawrence owned a twenty-acre tract incumbered by a mortgage which had been foreclosed. On the last day of redemption, Gunn became owner of a small judgment against the poetess and redeemed the property, taking title. Subsequently, he conveyed title to the Title Insurance and Trust Company, as trustee, with the proviso that he would be satisfied with the payment of $22,500. After payment to Gunn, the net profit of the trust was to go 60 per cent to Mrs. Lawrence, 20 per cent to Mary M. Arnold, and 20 per cent to Charles Lewis, then Mrs. Lawrence's attorney. The property was subdivided at expense of $20,000 advanced by Gunn, who claimed to have acquired all interest in the trust. Mrs. Lawrence opposed this contention and Gunn sought to quiet title.

Holding that Gunn observed all legal requirements, Judge Gould gave judgment for him, quieting title in the entire beneficial interest in the trust against all defendants.

already in an inoperable stage, he said, so at least the same proportion are not in a condition suitable for the application of radiation for a cure.

Dr. Douglas Quick, director and attending surgeon of the Memorial Hospital, New York, stressed the tooth brush and the dentist as preventives of the more common forms of cancer. Although science still is in the dark as to the cause of cancer, he declared, it knows something about the contributing factors. And the greatest of these is constant irritation of any part of the body. This, he added, is particularly true of the commonest forms of mouth cancer. If people would give more attention to oral hygiene they would be doing much toward the prevention of the disease, he said.

RADIUM PACK

A report of experiences and impressions of the specific value of a four-gram radium element pack, as employed at the Memorial Hospital for the past three and one-half years, also was read by Dr. Quick. This pack, the largest single quantity of radium in use anywhere, is valued at $250,000.

An historical touch was given the meeting yesterday by Dr. Sanford Withers of Denver, in a paper on "Admission of X-ray Plates in Court Evidence." Dr. Withers recited details of the first instance in which such a plate was introduced. Thirty-five years ago yesterday, when the X-ray was but six months old, a Denver boy sued a physician for malpractice in connection with the setting of a femur bone. Judge Ben Lindsey was his attorney, and offered the plate in evidence. At first the court refused to admit it, remarking it looked "like the picture of a ghost," but finally allowed it when confronted with proof of the invention. The boy won the suit.

POUND OF GOLD

Members who made the trip here from Chicago on a special train chose the closing session as an opportunity to present a gift of appreciation to Dr. I. S. Trostler of Chicago, secretary and one of the founders of the society, who managed the journey. The gift was a pound of gold in the form of $186 in gold pieces. Dr. Rollin Stevens of Detroit, a past president, made the presentation speech.

The concluding event on yesterday's program was announcement that three exhibits had tied for first prize offered for the best scientific display during the convention. They were entered by Dr. Leon Manville of Tulane University, New Orleans; Dr. William Henry Sargent and Dr. John Martin of the Children's Hospital, Oakland, and the University of California, department of surgery.

PAPER READ

While the delegates were spending their time in recreation and visiting last night, members of the Los Angeles County Medical Society listened to a paper prepared by Dr. Joseph Colt Bloodgood of Johns Hopkins on "The Importance to the Patient, of the Diagnosis of Cancer and of Lesions That Are Not Cancer, by Both the Practitioner and the Specialist." Dr. Bloodgood attended the convention during the week, but due to an indisposition yesterday, the paper was read by another.

"Why it is," Dr. Bloodgood asked in his treatise, "that there has been no such improvement in lesions of the cervix, as compared with the marvelous change in cancer of the breast, skin and mouth? In the first place, modesty of the women—in the second modesty of the press. Both are mock modesty. In addition it is a fault of the medical profession, especially the gynecologists and obstetricians."

Before returning to their homes, the convention delegates today will visit Agua Caliente aboard a special train leaving at 8 a.m. and returning at 9 p.m.

As the convention drew to a close, Tampa, Fla., prevailed as the probable choice for the scene of next year's gathering. The proposition to select the city, however, was tabled with the understanding it will be chosen by balloting through the mail.

DAM QUIZ OPENED BY GRAND JURY

Five Witnesses Heard on Reasons for Abandoning San Gabriel Project

Facts concerning abandonment of the proposed San Gabriel dam yesterday interested the grand jury enough to summon five witnesses to testify regarding the reasons why the project was discarded after millions of dollars had been expended on preliminary work.

It is understood that the present inquiry is intended to determine the responsibility, if any, for authorization of construction of the dam and the expenditure of money in the face of the reports of geologists and engineers which condemned the site.

The witnesses who testified were J. P. Lippencott, engineer, who once advised the Board of Supervisors that they should not construct the dam without a further study of the geology; A. E. Sedgewick, geologist, who reported to the contractors, Fisher, Ross, MacDonald and Kahn, that there were two earth faults in the damsite rendering it unsafe; H. E. Sedgwick, former flood-control engineer; E. B. Davies and Sam Fisher.

Although members of the grand jury declined to discuss the case in any way, it is believed that the inquiry is being made to obtain information that will be made public in the grand jury's annual report which will fix responsibility for expenditure of county money on the abandoned dam.

FOUR BEING TRIED FOR MAIL FRAUD

Jury Obtained to Hear Charge Against Members of Anagnosti & Co.

Four Los Angeles business men went to trial yesterday before a jury in United States District Judge Cosgrave's court on charges of using the mails to defraud in connection with the asserted stock manipulations of Anagnosti & Co., stock and bond brokers of Los Angeles. Practically the entire day was used in an effort to obtain a jury, the first panel being exhausted. It was necessary to call in ten men in the corridors of the Federal Building. The trial will be resumed this morning.

The defendants are William Anagnosti, who was head of the concern; Sam Goldstein and Albert and Henry Tuber, the latter three being what Assistant United States Attorneys Redwine and Davis called "super salesmen." Another defendant, C. S. Ransom, also indicted, now in the East, did not make an appearance and will not be tried at this time.

It is charged by the government that the four used the mails to misrepresent the values of various stocks, selling stocks valued on the market at from $5 to $7, at from $15 to $17.

Jobless to Sell Theater Tickets

The Orpheum and R.-K.-O. theaters in Los Angeles announced yesterday a plan for providing employment and at the same time stimulating sales of tickets as part of a general undertaking by the Radio-Keith-Orpheum Corporation throughout the nation.

"In Los Angeles applications are being received by the first contingent of 200 workers who will sell tickets by direct contact with the public, receiving a commission of 25 per cent of their sales.

The national corporation expects to employ 35,600 men and women in 115 cities in similar sales work.

ADVENTURER'S NAME CLEARED

Jesse C. Carson Told He's Not Wanted for Arson

Soldier of Fortune Helped Clara Phillips Escape

Central and South America Visited Since 1922

JESSE CARSON

Jesse C. Carson, 46-year-old soldier of fortune who aided Clara Phillips in her sensational escape from the Los Angeles County Jail in 1922, appeared voluntarily at the District Attorney's office yesterday to request that an old arson charge held against him in the files either be prosecuted or dropped from the record.

Capt. Jesse Winn and Edward C. King, investigator, after spending more than two hours checking up on the matter, told Carson he is not wanted for prosecution and permitted him to go his own way.

BUILDING SOLD

The arson charge, denied vigorously by Carson, concerned the destruction by fire of a building on Whittier Boulevard on December 25, 1922. Carson asserts that he once owned the structure but prior to the fire he had leased the building to W. K. Taylor, who now lives at 653 Amelia street, Belvedere Gardens, and then sold it to Edgar K. Brown, transferring to him all of the insurance.

Carson also declares that he was in Tia Juana on the day of the fire being entertained by Pancho Villa, Mexican revolutionist, now dead.

According to Carson, a revival of the story of the escape of Clara Phillips disrupted his home and he decided to come to Los Angeles to settle forever the question of whether or not he is wanted here for trial.

NO CORROBORATION

Although Carson admitted that he aided Mrs. Phillips in her escape from the jail after she had been convicted of the murder of Alberta Meadows, no effort has been made to prosecute him for it because no evidence ever has been obtained to corroborate it.

Since the escape, Carson said, he has visited Los Angeles frequently and made several trips to Central America and South America. Only two years ago, he said, he returned to Tegucigalpa, Honduras, where Mrs. Phillips was captured, and dug up some cash that he had buried there when he learned that Honduran officials intended to arrest him.

Two Red Aliens to Be Deported

Because of Communistic utterances against the government advocating its overthrow, John Vilarino, a cook, 40 years of age, and Guiseppe Rade, 30, will be deported to their native country, Spain, it was ruled yesterday by United States District Judge Hazel.

The two, who had been ordered deported by the Department of Labor because of their Communistic activities, had filed a writ of habeas corpus, but Judge Hazel ruled they had been given a fair hearing and ordered the writ dismissed.

WIFE DIVORCES MATE WHO OFTEN DINED OUT

What to do with one's money—dine out or pay tax assessments? Mrs. Lida G. Slaughter yesterday testified in Superior Judge Price's court that her husband, George A. Slaughter, chose dining. "He wasted our finances dining out when we needed the money to pay bills and meet assessments on community property," the wife testified. "In six months, he only came home to dinner six times. When he consented to do so on those rare occasions, he only stayed a short time." Judge Price granted her a divorce.

SHOW BIDDERS PLAY SANTA

Fat Hog Entered by Poor Widow's Son Brings $1.25 a Pound at Live-Stock Event

The Widow McKean, at Hanford, will enjoy a merry Christmas this year. Yesterday an occurrence in the auction tent at the Los Angeles Union Stock Yards at which her 14-year-old son Harold was the central figure, brought unrestrained tears of joy to the boy's eyes.

Harold's mother is so poor that she does washing to make ends meet. Harold is a freshman at the Hanford High School, where agricultural subjects are taught. He also is a member of the Future Farmers of California.

Without cash, he induced Charles E. Elwood, manager of the Wreden & Elwood ranch at Hanford, to sell him a hog a few months ago. Elwood accepted his note, although he never intended making collection. The consideration was $17.50. The hog, a Duroc barrow, thrived under Harold's care.

Entered in the fifth annual Christmas Live Stock Show here, it was adjudged grand champion and won a $40 premium in the junior division of the individual fat hog competition. Yesterday, when he led the animal into the auction ring the word was passed along that the boy needed encouragement. With the market price of hogs at less than 10 cents a pound, the bidding started at 25 cents. In the end the hog sold for the highest price ever paid for "pork on the hoof"—$1.25 a pound—to the Hauser Packing Company.

Ninety tons were disposed of at $45,000, which is far in excess of the market value, most of it being done to encourage the growers and particularly the young men who are entering into competition with their elders. Seventy-five cents a pound was paid Douglas Little, Wasco, for his 4-H Club Chester White barrow by the Wreden Packing and Provision Company.

The arrival yesterday of about 600 boys representing the Future Farmers from all parts of California, was attended by ceremonies. With their own band and that of the California Polytechnic School at San Luis Obispo, the boys paraded to the City Mall. There they were given possession of the Council chambers, including the Councilmen's chairs. W. J. Sanborn, president of the Council, welcomed them on behalf of the city. In the afternoon the boys paraded in the rodeo arena.

The Ambassador trophy was presented by Catherine Mills to Leslie Carlson, manager of the Congdon & Battles herd of Aberdeen-Angus cattle, Yakima, Wash., which won this trophy the second time.

Winners in the State-wide public speaking contest conducted among the Future Farmers, spoke over the radio last night, as did John Elliott, Brush, Colo., a 16-year-old high school boy who won an elimination essay contest conducted through ten States outside of California.

Today is the last day of the Christmas Live Stock Show and Rodeo. Junior activities will take most of the day. The rodeo will be held at 2 and again at 8 o'clock this evening.

Confessed Bandit Seeks Probation

Claude Willeford, who, with Lowell M. Barton, is charged with the robbery of R. T. Rickaby of Pasadena and Miss Victoria Rico of Flintridge, yesterday pleaded guilty to the charge when he appeared before Superior Judge Schauer and was granted permission to file an application for probation. Hearing on his probation plea was set for the 19th inst.

Barton, too, has entered a guilty plea to the robbery charge. He also faces prosecution on a charge of assaulting Miss Rico after the asserted robbery.

TRIO HELD FOR BONUS RACKET QUIZ

Asserted Use of Name of Legion in Advertising Charged

Charged with false advertising, three men who, according to police, used the American Legion's name to cover a "bonus petition racket," were arraigned before Municipal Judge Curtis yesterday.

The three, Harry B. Granlee, Frank Wilmot and Harry C. Long, entered pleas of not guilty and demanded jury trial, which was set for January 2, next. In spite of the protest of their attorney, who requested low bail, Judge Curtis fixed bail at $250 each.

The three men were arrested by police at 1008 West Sixth street and the complaint was signed by Stanley Wood, chairman of the Legion's State racketeering committee. It charges that they advertised for solicitors who were later employed to circulate petitions calling for the payment of the Federal veterans' bonus in cash. Police reported they instructed those employed to collect 10 cents from each person signing the petition, retaining 5 cents and turning the balance over to the promoters.

The complaint recites that the petitions declared the movement was sponsored by the Legion, whereas the Legion is not interested in the movement and has refused to indorse such a proposition.

Board Approves Spring Street Trackage Plea

Application by the Los Angeles Railway for a franchise to extend its double tracks on North Spring street from Temple street to Sunset Boulevard where the street opening is contemplated was approved by the Board of Public Utilities and Transportation yesterday, for the information of the City Council which has yet to act on the request.

The application is made at this time because the condemnation for the street extension is complete and it is expected that within sixty days the opening work from Temple to Sunset will be under way.

The railway company does not contemplate crossing Sunset with its North Spring street cars, but to turn them just south of Sunset instead of in front of the City Hall, as at present, according to the board's investigators.

Slap Charged to Husband in Bridge Game

One grand slam was scored by the loser in a bridge game which yesterday had its post mortem in Superior Judge Yankwich's court. Mrs. Eleanor R. Allen wished to quit playing partner to Henry G. Allen, local representative of a flour manufacturer.

"Why, Judge, on one occasion, my husband became so angry because of my misplay at bridge that he slapped me," Mrs. Allen testified.

"That's odd," Judge Yankwich observed. "I always thought bridge was an inoffensive game, and that people played it because it did not lead to quarrels."

He awarded Mrs. Allen a divorce, and custody of her daughter, Cynthia, 2½ years of age.

In the past Los Angeles county has not associated water conservation with flood control, but under the new set-up the saving of water will be one of Supervisor Thatcher's problems in addition to flood control.

BANDITS KIDNAP AND ROB VICTIM

After Ride to Coyote Pass Thieves Take $233

Druggist Forced to Drive, Then Kicked From Car

Two Masked Negroes Slug Clerk and Customers

One citizen was given an automobile ride out of town and robbed of $233, a druggist was kicked out of his machine after being forced to drive two bandits away from the scene of a robbery in his drug store, another citizen was slugged with a black jack by two masked Negro bandits and a clerk and a customer in a radio store were bound and gagged in Wednesday night's series of nine robberies.

Robberies for the first four days of this month showed a still higher total than that reported for a similar period in November, last, when all former records were broken for one month. At midnight Wednesday forty-four robberies had been reported, as compared with thirty-one last month, and twenty-eight for the first four days in December, last year.

KICKED FROM AUTO

The victim of the auto ride was Joe Madich of 312 Ord street. He told police he was held up near his home by two bandits who spoke Italian fluently and forced him into their car. After they had driven him into the hills near Coyote Pass they robbed him of $233 and then kicked him out of the car. During the ride he was forced to keep his cap pulled down over his eyes and was warned that he would be killed if he attempted to raise it.

After two bandits had robbed T. Brayton of $100 in cash and several hundred dollars' worth of narcotics in his pharmacy at 3723 South Vermont avenue, they forced him to drive them half a dozen blocks from the scene of the robbery in his own car. They then kicked him out and drove off with the machine.

TIED AND TAPED

Paul S. Pearlman, clerk, and Willard Williams of 121 West Eighty-fifth street, a customer, were tied hand and foot with adhesive tape by two bandits, who held them up in the Central Electric Radio Company shop at 5521 South Vermont avenue. The bandits obtained $15.

Within a few steps of his home at 1347 West Thirty-sixth Place, Harry Harda was held up by two masked Negro bandits who, when he started to run, struck him on the head with a blackjack, knocking him down. As he lay in a semiconscious condition the bandits took $7.50 from his pockets.

Four persons were herded into the office of a service station at 4429 South Vermont avenue by a trio of bandits. They were J. Parky, attendant; Axel Peterson and A. Brazelton of the tire and battery shops, and A. Capdeville, a customer, of 4426 South Vermont avenue. Parky was robbed of $57 while the others lost a total of $25.

As she was walking in front of her home at 344 West Sixty-fifth street, Mrs. Mildred Lee was stopped by a bandit who crept up behind her and held a pistol against her side. Theatened with death if she cried out she was robbed of her purse containing $5.

After approaching the soda fountain in the Cralego Pharmacy at 2171 West Florence avenue a man suddenly drew a pistol and leveled it at William Young, clerk. He got $150 from the cash register.

LONG FORCED RIDE

W. C. Snow of San Jose reported that a bandit who climbed into his automobile near his home town, forced him to drive here and, at Washington Boulevard and Figueroa street, put him out of the machine minus $85.

Three women were victims of purse snatchers. Miss Helen Hynes of 1561 West Twenty-ninth street reported that her purse was taken at Twenty-ninth street and Van Buren avenue. It contained $10.

FIGHT ON TO SAVE LIFE OF INFANT

Firemen of Verdugo City Using Inhalator on Tiny Pneumonia Victim

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

VERDUGO CITY, Dec. 5.—A flicker of life in the tiny body of Stanley Hays, 4½-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hays, was being kept alive tonight by five blue-uniformed men working in steady relays.

The five are members of the city's fire department inhalator squad. They are Battalion Chief John O. Meyer and Firemen Harry McCluskey, Roy Paul, Lute Jones and John Wright.

The baby caught cold last Wednesday and last night pneumonia developed. Jack Hays, the father, a garage owner at Glendale, and Mrs. Hays, frantic at the though of losing their baby, summoned the inhalator squad.

The squad worked all last night, all today, and is ready to continue throughout tonight. Meanwhile little Stanley's laboring lungs continue to function, and there is hope he will be saved.

JANITOR SUES CLERK OF REDONDO SCHOOLS

Charles F. Smith, janitor at the Redondo High School, yesterday sued George H. Anderson, clerk of the Redondo School Board, for $35,000 asserting that the defendant called him a "thief" and after dismissing him from his job, prevented him from getting another. Smith declared that he had lived in Redondo Beach for ten years, and had during that time enjoyed a good reputation.

FARMER IN CITY APPLIES FOR RELIEF

Agriculturist Sues for Crops Destroyed to Make Dirigible Landing

Because the dirigible Volunteer needed a landing field, a lawsuit developed which Superior Judge Neville yesterday took under submission. G. E. Black, truck farmer, sued the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company for $7992, asserted property damage to crops which he anticipated reaping until the airship's landing was leveled off on his truck farm.

Black set up that on February 26, 1929, he leased twenty acres of land known as Goodyear Acreage at Florence and Central avenues. J. W. Caskey, a farmer, who asserted a lease with the Goodyear concern, sublet the land to Black, who added that he put it under cultivation for tomatoes, pumpkins, corn, beets, potatoes and alfalfa. On June 1, 1929, the defendant company by its representatives forcibly evicted Farmer Black and plowed under the land to prepare a smooth landing field for the Volunteer.

The defendant replied that Caskey was farming the acreage on a month-to-month basis and denied his rights to sublet to Black for a long period. Caskey intervened with an additional suit against the Goodyear concern for $15,000, asserting he lost a half-interest in Black's crops and that his farm buildings were removed from the farm. The defendant company replied that Caskey removed his own buildings, and that he owes $96.69 rental.

The hearing before Judge Neville went extensively into city farming and crop prices. George F. Wasson, Jr., is Black's attorney. B. E. Ahlport appeared for Goodyear, and J. L. Murphy for Caskey.

EASTERN AIR HEAD LAUDS CALIFORNIA

State Should Excel in Advancing Transportation Due to Climate, He Says

Need of more and better airports was sounded here yesterday by Marshall C. Hoppin of Washington (D. C.) airport specialist of the United States Department of Commerce, who came here on an inspection trip at the invitation of the California State Chamber of Commerce.

MARSHALL C. HOPPINS

"Airports are the bottle necks of air traffic," said Hoppin. "Only through the development of adequate and safe airports may we expect to increase air transportation."

With ninety-eight airports in California to inspect and with others in Washington and Oregon also to be visited, Hoppin expects to remain on the West Coast until May.

"With your climatic conditions, you should excel in the advancement of air transportation," said Hoppin. "California should also exceed all other States in the number of individual owners because of these same advantages." He said California is maintaining its rank with other States in aviation progress.

Theater Groups Freed of Blame in Injury Suit

Three related theater organizations yesterday won a court victory when Superior Judge Scott granted a motion for nonsuit of Josie Garrison Powell's suit for $36,000 damages for personal injuries. Mrs. Powell, a nurse, named as defendants the Pasadena Theater Corporation, Fox West Coast Theaters, Inc., Pasadena Theater Company, and Henry C. Jensen.

Judge Scott granted the nonsuit on the ground that the defendants are merely lessors of the Raymond Theater and Auto Park and were not in control of the premises January 18, 1929, when Mrs. Powell fell off the auto park runway. She broke her nose, fractured her knee and suffered contusions. The defendants set up that they leased the theater to Dana Hayes and the auto park to James C. Robison.

FIREMAN LEAVES LOVE'S EMBERS

Flame Fighter Wins Divorce by Proving Night Work Was Curbing Blazes

When a fireman is out all night fighting fires and responding to alarms, his wife should not suspect him of stepping out, it was established yesterday in Superior Judge Scott's court. Henry G. Adams, fireman, won a divorce from Amelia Adams, who had sued him for separate maintenance. She accused him of answering false alarms outside of the home district, but Adams's superiors testified that the fireman really was battling flames.

Adams won his divorce by asserting too much beans.

"My wife would cook a pot of beans," he testified. "Then we would have hot beans and after that cold beans until I couldn't look a bean in the face."

In Imperial China, Mr. Fong See On is collecting the finest old Chinese art objects, some of which are being received daily at his interesting shop at 510 N. Los Angeles st., Chinatown, just in time for your Christmas buying. If you want the unusual and different go down now to this very worth while store.

For those of you who want to learn a trade, here's a suggestion! The Liberty Candy Co. will teach you either for home or commercial purposes, candy-making, chocolate dipping and cake ornamenting. Supplies may be bought from them also. The address is 4th floor Grant Bldg., 355 S. Broadway. TUcker 4156.

Here is news! You may buy from Mrs. Gardner of 1036 S. Norton, (ORegon 3247,) lovely hand-quilted coverlets in soft pastel shades. She has a few antique ones in red, green and white.

Children learn by doing: give them the privilege of earning and saving money.

Pineapple and cucumber salad: Pare a pineapple and cut it in thin slices crosswise after removing the eyes; then quarter the slices. Pare and slice a cucumber and combine it in layers with the pineapple; pour over it French dressing made with lemon juice and containing paprika; serve in nests of lettuce and garnish with mayonnaise.

Right now while you think of it, take your worn silver to the Peerless Platers, 239½ S. Spring st., (upstairs) to be made beautiful for the holidays. Why, do you realize that they re-plate your knives, forks and tablespoons for $3.50 a dozen, charging but $2.50 for teaspoons? I'd suggest that you go up right away.

To whiten discolored china or earthenware and restore its original whiteness, scour it with baking soda, or vinegar and salt.

To remove brown stains from baking dishes, let them stand over night in a rather strong solution of borax and water.

You will be sure to need imported Italian and French groceries during the holidays. Get them from R. Fazzi & Co., 219 S. Spring st. MUtual 7612.

Chocolate fruit cake (sugarless:) Beat up two eggs, add a cupful of corn syrup, a pinch of salt, two-thirds cupful of evaporated milk (or two-thirds cupful of sweet cream, or sweetened sour cream,) one teaspoonful of vanilla, two and one-fourth cupfuls of flour, mixed with two teaspoonfuls of baking powder, one-half cupful of cocoa, and two cupfuls of seedless raisins. Bake in a loaf or in gem pans.

Here's a good one. Through my last week's article on healthful coffee and the proper appliances for making same, an advertising salesman was influenced to visit the offices of the Ben-Hur Coffee Co., where a wonderful variety of all kinds of drip coffee-making appliances, including china pots and the Ben-Hur de luxe all-china coffee makers are on display. He purchased one of the all-china coffee makers. Two days later he phoned the advertising manager of the company and in most enthusiastic language began to tell of the wonderful difference he was experiencing in now being able to make a most uniformly delicious coffee.

He stated that some friends had visited them the evening before and that every one of them were going down to buy one of those all-china coffee makers. He wound up by asking: "Why don't you tell the public what wonderful coffee makers these are?" The advertising manager thought this was a good joke on him, as he had already spent nearly $200,000 in trying to educate the public to the fact that a more delicious and healthful beverage could be made by the use of the specially adapted Ben-Hur Drip Coffee and the Ben-Hur Healthful Coffee-making appliances.

It only goes to show how hard it is to get individuals aroused into changing fixed habits even though health is the consideration. Nearly 150,000 homes in Southern California are now employing the healthful drip method of coffee making, and the increase in the sale of Ben-Hur Drip Coffee is the talk of coffee roasters all over the United States. There are still, however, nearly 300,000 homes in this territory that have yet to learn the great difference, both in delicious flavor and general health results between the bitter, indigestible and acid-forming beverage as obtained from boiled or percolated coffee and the delicious sparkling and clear, digestible beverage as obtained by the more healthful, drip filtration method of making.

The Ben-Hur Coffee Company still have a full assortment of all types of healthful coffee-making appliances, including china pots and the all-china coffee makers, also several thousand seconds with slight flaws but perfectly serviceable, which were brought in from the factory to sell at prices so low that everybody can afford them. Many ladies who came in the first part of last week and bought these appliances returned with friends, buying more of them to give away as Christmas presents. What more useful and beneficial present could one give than a coffee-making appliance which will make delicious coffee in the most modern and healthful way possible, for years to come.

Remember, coffee is ruined by allowing it to stand in metal containers, and that's why the Ben-Hur Coffee Company are offering these china pots at their offices at cost, simply as an aid in helping to educate the public to the proper and healthful way of preparing coffee, and to introduce the most perfectly adapted coffee, their special Ben-Hur Drip Coffee, to new homes. Don't delay, but visit their offices a 800 Traction Avenue, at once.

My readers will be happy to know that they may buy the finest Mangoes and Guava Jelly, both put up in Manila, from Orlanes Philippine Products Co., 110 E. 1st street. You know there is nothing much more delicious than these fruits of the Orient, so do try them!

Egg creole dressing: Add to three-fourths cupful of French dressing two hard-boiled egg yolk (mashed smooth,) one teaspoonful of mustard and two tablespoonfuls of tomato catsup.

Such a perfectly beautiful Christ- mas as you all will have if you will make this an electrical one and select from among the following suggestions—the gift which best suits each member of your entire household and dearest friends.

The Newbery Electrical Corporation, 726 S. Olive, will, in the guise of old Santa, supply you with the numerous splendid articles of which I will tell you and this you may depend upon, they will bring such joy to the hearts of those who are lucky enough to receive them, that long will your gift live in their remembrance!

And now for the suggestions: A clock first off, a Telechron by preference—think how delightful that would be! No winding, just perfect time always—and do you know they have them marked as low as $9.95? They have some gorgeous models with Westminster and Canterbury chimes which are extremely handsome. Such a gift would be perfect for father.

Then why not a General Electric Radio this Christmas for mother, nothing could be much more acceptable! For dear little old grandmother a warming pad so she will never more complain of the cold. For the kiddies' tree there are electrical ornaments—get those now of course, and going back to electrical pads, smart hostesses are making them part of the equipment of each bedroom. Nice idea, don't you think?

For married sister, an electrical waffle iron or percolator or both—these suggestions and many more you will find once you step inside the attractive shop of the above mentioned concern so try and go in there this coming week and do your shopping early!

What could make a more ac- ceptable gift for friends than a box of "Udelco" Stationery consisting of 200 sheets of paper and 100 envelopes with name and address printed in blue, on paper and envelopes, for $1 and $1.50! Splendid idea, don't you think? Write or phone now for samples to the Udell Co., 5455 Virginia ave., GLadstone 3250.

To make white enamel look like new, rub it well with baking soda, then wash it in hot soadsuds.

To mend holes in enameled ware, use equal parts of soft putty table salt and sifted coal ashes; cover the holes well and heat on the stove till the cement is hard.

For dishwasing, keep leftover bits of soap and use them in a tin can with a cover, with holes punched in both ends, for a suds producer.

Can you imagine a more accept- able gift than a set of scissors? . . . And such beautiful ones as Steinen's Cutlery Shop, 210 W. Third st., are showing, are hard to resist! Even a single pair in a leather case is a worth-while Christmas remembrance.

Milk chocolate frosting: Mix one and one-half cupfuls of confectioner's sugar, one teaspoonful of butter and two tablespoonfuls of cocoa; add one tablespoonful of strong coffee and two tablespoonfuls of cream; then add one teaspoonful of vanilla; it should be about the stiffness of whipped cream and spread on the cake while it is still warm.

To wash greasy dishes one-half easier, dissolve a little washing soda in the hot water before washing them. The juice of a lemon is also good and no soap is needed Never use soda, however, when washing dishes with gilt decorations. Very greasy dishes should first be wiped with soft tissue paper.

So many of my readers would like to serve southern mashed sweet potatoes, but alas, and alack, they have no good recipe for them. Anticipating their desire, I am giving today a simply splendid recipe for preparing the sweet potatoes and a sauce as well. You'll require some Guasti Cooking Sherry for this recipe so give three rousing cheers—because every time you use this wonderful Guasti product, you make each viand that much more delicious.

SOUTHERN MASHED SWEET POTATOES

Six medium-sized yams, three-quarters cupful rich milk or cream; one-quarter cupful brown sugar; one-quarter cupful melted butter; one-eighth cupful Guasti Cooking Sherry.

Sauce as covering—one-half cupful brown sugar; two tablespoonfuls butter; marshmallows.

Clean yams, pour boiling water over them and cook until tender. Peel and mash while still hot, season with salt and paprika, add milk, brown sugar, melted butter and Cooking Sherry and mix thoroughly. Place in well-oiled casserole and bake in hot oven until heated through.

Sauce—While yams are baking place one-quarter cupful water and one-half cupful brown sugar in a saucepan and heat until it is thick like caramel, then beat in two tablespoonfuls butter. Spread this over the top of the potatoes and, if you like them, place a few marshmallows over the top and return to the oven until they are browned.

Now is the time to have shirts made for your husband's Xmas present! Arthur M. Werner, the Custom Shirt maker of 122 S. Spring (MUtual 1589,) is taking orders now. He does such splendid work.

Best way to make dishcloths: Take four thicknesses of cheesecloth, turn in the edges and quilt it on the machine about two inches apart. Cotton crepe is good for dish towels, being cheap, nonlinty and easy to launder.

To mend holes in any utensils for holding cold liquids, pour melted paraffine over the holes and let harden.

Get up a bundle of discarded clothes and useless articles about the house, and give them in the same spirit that Tiny Tim of Dickens's fame gave—to the Children's Hospital Salvage Department of 77 Maple ave., (TUcker 1203.) They will help some wee lad and lassie to be happy this gladsome Yuletide season.

To freshen old lemons that have become old and dry, and make them fresh and juicy again, put them in a pan of hot water and keep the water at an even temperature, without boiling, for about two hours.

To remove tea stains from china, dampen the spots with warm water, then rub them hard with plenty of common salt mixed with bicarbonate of soda.

Fluff rugs can't be too numerous —there is always a place in your home for them, so get out all your old carpets and allow the Hoffman Rug Works of 2814 W. Jefferson st., (EMpire 2048) to call for same, and make you the best looking floor coverings you have seen at so modest a price. They make Colonial rugs, too, out of rags.

To remove brown marks from dishes, caused by baking in the oven, rub them well with damp salt; wash off and repeat.

JURY WILL HEAR MANY NEXT WEEK

More Municipal Affairs Expected to Be Gone Into at Tuesday's Session

Numerous witnesses will be called before the grand jury when it resumes its investigation of municipal affairs next Tuesday, it was announced yesterday by the District Attorney's office.

The announcement set at rest, temporarily, at least, rumors that the inquisitorial body was about ready to abandon its inquiry on city conditions. No definite announcement was forthcoming, however, as to whether Mayor Porter, W. B. Mosher, the Mayor's secretary, or Chief of Police Steckel will be among those requested to appear before the jury, as has been previously intimated.

The witnesses to be called Tuesday, it was learned, will be those that the jury believes can throw light on conditions in the Mono Basin water district, Los Angeles Harbor and the recent reputed attempted "frame-up" of Police Commissioner Walkup.

ORDINANCES ADOPTED

The ordinance of intention for the improvement of Marmont avenue between Presson Place and Valley View Drive was adopted yesterday by the City Council. It was set for hearing of protests January 14.

JOB DIRECTOR GIVEN AIDES

Supervisor Shaw Names Committee of Seven to Help Fremming in Employment Stabilization

Supervisor Shaw, chairman of the county-wide citizens' committee on unemployment, yesterday appointed seven representative community leaders as members of a correlating committee who will assist Harvey C. Fremming, director of employment stabilization. Those chosen are:

John C. Austin, president of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce; William F. Prisk, Long Beach publisher; Henry J. Engelbrecht, Santa Monica banker; J. Lee Cathcart, Pomona industrialist; C. E. Chenoweth, Glendale civic leader; Dr. H. C. Hudson, president of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, and William Dunkerly of the Pasadena Chamber of Commerce.

Each member of the committee will be delegated to assist Fremming in setting up a plan for stabilizing employment and affording relief in their respective communities, Supervisor Shaw declared.

"Constructive work by the citizens' committee will be possible immediately upon the adoption throughout the county of a uniform operation plan outlined after careful consideration of all angles of the problem," the Supervisor said.

Central headquarters in the county to be in charge of Director Fremming were opened yesterday at 626 California Building, 205 South Broadway. With the director will be a secretary and two clerks.

Men and women unemployed, however, are asked not to apply for work at the above address, as this office will be used merely to clear registrations that come from all parts of the county through schools and fire stations.

"Our first job is to establish a contact with all municipalities and communities in the county," Fremming declared, "to set up the machinery for registration and in making a survey of work that can be done and rushed in order to give men work."

Last Rites for Arizona Pioneer Set Tomorrow

Final rites for I. E. Solomon, 90-year-old Arizona pioneer who founded Solomonville, Ariz., in 1876 will be conducted tomorrow at 1 p.m. from the White chapel, 684 West Washington street. Cremation will follow.

Mr. Solomon died last Thursday from a heart attack at his home, 1751 South Westmoreland Boulevard. He had resided in Los Angeles for ten years, following retirement from extensive business interests in a number of merchandising and financial institutions of Southern Arizona.

Besides his widow, Mrs. Anna Solomon, he leaves four daughters and a son.

HEARING OF LIPPS SUIT CONCLUDED

Wife Denies Husband's Charges of Cruelty in Battle for Divorce

Many times her husband threatened to take Mary Ann, their 2-year-old daughter, from her, Mrs. Rhoda Lipps testified late yesterday in Superior Judge Rankin's court where her suit for divorce and William L. Lipps's cross-suit are being tried. Mrs. Lipps conducts kennels at Monrovia, on the founding of which Lipps said he spent $35,000 of his inheritance.

Mrs. Lipps denied that she told her husband "I married you for your money and I will wreck you financially and physically." She also denied that when Lipps took their daughter away from their Monrovia dog farm, she cried, "I never want to see you or Mary Ann again."

The mother added that she did not see her baby daughter again until Thursday, when her husband brought the child to court.

Mrs. Lipps asserted that Lipps struck her just before the birth of her son, William, 1 year of age.

Lipps rested his case yesterday. He complained that his wife drank five bottles of home brew at one sitting and that she threw crockery at him and poured a pot of hot coffee on his head.

Judge Rankin took the case under submission.

Purdue athletic management announces a decrease of $75,000 in football receipts for the year and the consequent lack of funds for competition in many lines of sport supported by the grid gate. A DANGEROUS VERDICT

The verdict of a jury which freed Mrs. Ruth B. Weimer of responsibility for the slaying of her sister, described as a hopeless invalid, would be very dangerous if it should set a precedent. That the jury was swayed by emotion rather than by cold reason seems to be plain. That juries should not be so swayed, but should act only on the law and the evidence, is equally plain. Yet the jury was in a difficult position. It was a case in which the law's requirements genuinely seemed unduly harsh. Perhaps the most satisfactory disposal of the case, from a public policy point of view, would have been a disagreement—which would have meant no punishment for an act not intended to be criminal, but at the same time could not have been construed as approving it.

To permit any private individual to take life, except in self-defense, or to save another life, is flatly against the teachings of human experience. No individual is wise enough, not even a physician, to say that the death of another person is for that other person's best interests. Add to this the danger that "mercy killing," if it was approved, could be used as a cloak for genuine murder, and plenty of reason for not setting up such precedents becomes apparent to anyone.

It should be remembered that the overwhelming majority find life, with all its disappointments and discouragements, sweet, and prefer to cling to it as long as possible. To aid another in throwing it off is to take a tremendous responsibility, since the impulse which at the moment prefers death may be merely temporary—not only may be, but most probably is. The subsequent history of many who attempt suicide without success is sufficient proof; they rarely make a second attempt, but live out their lives normally.

THE REPORT ON FARMING

"By this time it is evident that supply and demand conditions cannot be set aside by legislation, that the dumping of surpluses abroad is not feasible, that the indefinite storing of agricultural surpluses tends to prevent rather than cause a rise of prices, that tariff duties are not effective on commodities produced largely for export, and that subsidies would increase rather than restrain production. Voluntary curtailment of production is the only logical remedy for the surplus problem."

This paragraph and a definition of surplus from a practical standpoint that is somewhat novel, are the most interesting things to the general public in the annual report of Secretary of Agriculture Hyde. The report is remarkable in that it does not discuss the Federal Farm Board directly, but the paragraph given above may be said to sum up the lesson of the Farm Board's experience, give answer to the debenture and equalization-fee agitators and show why the Farm Board is putting most of its emphasis on the organization of cooperatives.

A surplus, according to Secretary Hyde, must take the price of production into account. "There is overproduction," he said, "if the price received does not exceed the cost of production by a margin sufficient to give the reasonably efficient farmer a fair net income."

The report declares California crops were about 10 per cent better than usual in 1930, in Colorado, Oregon and Arizona about 13 to 19 per cent. In the drought area, most of Ohio, Kentucky and West Virginia, and south-central Pennsylvania, they were only two-thirds of normal. The wheat crop was 7,000,000 bushels above the five-year average and that of cotton about the average, though 400,000 bales short of 1929.

Secretary Hyde offers cogent advice both to wheat and to cotton producers. Adjustment of acreage is possible, he declares, as well as desirable, and offers as proof reports showing that the winter-wheat planting is being reduced this fall by 4½ per cent. Transference of higher-cost land to other uses, concentration of wheat production on the most productive land and elimination of marginal land from production altogether, are his suggestions.

"It is not correct to say," he continues, "that the same result would be reached by leaving the curtailment to the free play of economic forces. This course lacks scientific discrimination. It forces good land as well as poor into the discard, because it acts primarily on farmers instead of on acres. . . . Comparatively small changes on a sufficient number of farms have in the aggregate a great beneficial effect." Production must not be decreased by abandoning machinery and scientific methods, but by reducing acreage.

Secretary Hyde blames cotton producers for not growing the longer-staple varieties and for producing too much cotton of inferior quality. "It is no longer necessary for agricultural reasons," he says, "to plant varieties growing less than one-inch staple in any part of the United States. Yet we continue to grow millions of bales of inferior fiber which enters the market in direct competition with the very short staples of India and China. Fine fabrics are in demand. Larger quantities of strong and uniform fiber are needed in the automobile industry and also in the production of fabrics for airplanes, balloons and dirigibles."

Secretary Hyde points out that farm taxes continue to rise, though less rapidly than from 1913 to 1924, and declares the movement must be stopped or reversed by finding other sources of government income than land taxation.

As a whole, farm incomes were less favorable in 1930 than 1929, a drop in gross farm income of nearly 16 per cent being indicated, and the farm price index as of August last was only 108 per cent of prewar prices, compared with 143 per cent in August, 1929. Producers of stock and live stock fared no better than the cotton and grain farmers and the dairymen and poultry men also suffered severe drops.

The report recommends reforestation as a protection to the water supply and to take marginal lands out of agricultural production.

Concerning the Mediterranean fruit fly, the report says that "while total eradication cannot yet be announced, there is strong hope of it." No sign of any infestation has been discovered since July 25, last.

MAIL EARLY

"Shop early," as a slogan, has done its duty. The merchants caught the spirit of it and decorated for Christmas earlier than usual. Already the stores are thronged and the best patterns are vanishing.

But another cry should be sent up: "Mail early!" It will have a better chance not to be lost en route. If lost, it will have a better chance to be found. Mail early is the best insurance.

It will save the life of the postmaster and prolong the days of the postman. He will not be bowed with age in the holidays and can have a brief respite like other folks.

Mail early and you will cut the long queues hanging from the package windows of the postoffice. They will grow earlier and not develop so long. Time will be saved and patience will be conserved. Clerks will not be frazzled out and fewer mistakes will be made.

Mail early and the folks back East will not think you a piker. Packages with presents will not arrive a week after Christmas and you will not be suspected of just trying to pay a debt. You will be credited with initiative and affection.

A good deed done spontaneously is worth a thousand forced upon you. Mail your Christmas cards early. They will have double meaning. Why wait until others remember you? All the Christmas spirit oozes out.

Mail early and save yourself a lot of worry. A present in time saves—explanations.

WHICH END?

A recent editorial subsided as follows: "A stunt flyer in the East had weathered all sorts of perils in the sky; but a stairway in his own home got him in the end." A correspondent writes and asks sadly, but sympathetically, "Which end?"

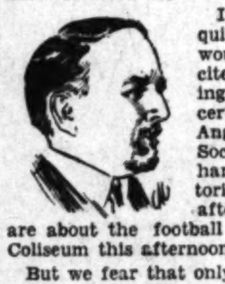
How Civilized Are We?



If we were quite civilized we would be as excited this morning over the concert of the Los Angeles Oratorio Society in Philharmonic Auditorium tomorrow afternoon as we are about the football game at the Coliseum this afternoon.

But we fear that only John Smallman and the 300 members of the Oratorio Society and a comparatively few others are that civilized. We must admit we're not. But it would be to our shame if our absorption in the football match should make us forget that in the long run Los Angeles must owe a great deal to Smallman and the Oratorio Society after the football game has been forgotten. Smallman has done much to inspire a love of good music and to teach understanding of good music. The society had a membership of about forty when he became its conductor and now has 300. A Cappella Choir of forty voices has toured from coast to coast, distinguishing itself as one of the noteworthy singing organizations of the country and a dozen other organizations in Los Angeles and surrounding cities have benefited by Smallman's leadership.

Tips for Our Successors

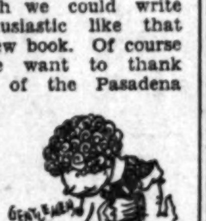
We hate to do this, but our duty to posterity compels us to ignore any tragic results which may befall us.

We have just received a copy of the latest revised edition of Charles Dillon's "Journalism for High Schools" and now that nearly every high school in the country is training a class of young men and young women to be far better journalists than are we poor duffers who just grew up in newspaper offices and learned by our mistakes, we feel that that book ought to be in every one of those classes. When we were a cub, Charles Dillon was the star reporter the Kansas City Star used to send on Presidential special trains. He left newspaper work to head the department of journalism at the Kansas State College of Agriculture and in a few months had a long string of students writing such good stuff that they were selling it to the agricultural magazines, all the way up to the Country Gentleman. After that he became a magazine editor, so if there is any angle of journalism he doesn't know it is pretty obscure and he also knows how to tell what he knows in the way most interesting and instructive to students. Not only journalism students but any literary worker who wants to know what to avoid to keep from being stilted and rubber-stampish or seeming ignorant will find it a book worth studying.

How many of us, for illustration, know how to dodge the common mistakes of using anxious for eager, would for should, will for shall, people for persons, want for wish, expect for suspect, those kind for this kind, and so on? There are plenty of working newspaper men who do not know scores of things about their profession which this little book teaches. The New York Evening Post, commenting on the book, suggested that the "for high schools" be stricken from the title, as the book is worth any writer's study.

Envy and Appreciation

Golly! We wish we could write something enthusiastic like that about our own new book. Of course we can't, but we want to thank Harold D. Carew of the Pasadena Star-News, Vera Kackley of the Long Beach Press-Telegram, C. C. Johns of the Corona Independent and "Uncle Walt" Mason of La Jolla for doing it for us.



GENTLEMEN WE THANK YOU!

The Singing Soul of Hollywood

While we're feeling bookish, Emmy Matt Rush comes forward with an effort to prove that Hollywood has a soul by presenting an anthology of Hollywood verse! And darned if she doesn't pretty nearly make her case, at that, though she stretches the limits of "Hollywood" to include some pretty distant "suburbs," such as La Jolla. The book starts with "Camulos," by Charles Fletcher Lummis, and includes poems by Carrie Jacobs Bond, Walt Mason, Orra Monnette, Ernest McGaffey, Ben Field and about 100 other local poets. The book is so good that it will be an assured success if each poet represented will step manfully up and buy five copies.

And that's about the only way a local anthology can be made a success, no matter how much good stuff there is in it.

SMALL CURRENCY ECONOMICAL

When the small greenbacks and other currency were introduced about a year ago it was stated that the aims of the government in reducing the size of the bills were threefold. First, it was expected to decrease the cost, as less paper would be used. Second, the period of usefulness of most of the bills would be increased. Third, there would be less counterfeiting.

Two of these expectations have been realized, according to a recent report of the Treasury Department. The cost of production and circulation has been reduced one-third, it is estimated, and counterfeiting by figure raising has been cut down to "the very minimum." But the life of the new currency has been found to average a few days less than that of the old large bills, despite the fact that the small ones are not folded by many persons when they put them in their wallets.

Most of the wear and tear on paper money comes from folding. It was thought by Treasury officials that the life of the currency would be lengthened by 40 per cent by the issuance of the smaller bills, but this idea proved incorrect. They are now trying to secure paper that can be crumpled or folded without destroying its tissue. The report does not show the actual saving in the cost of production and circulation, but the one-third reduction must amount to millions of dollars a year.

TO A CAT

By James J. Montague

Since you've inhabited the house
You have not caught a rat or mouse,

And for my life I cannot see
Why you lay down the law to me

While now, out yonder in the night,
You hear the turmoil of a fight

And meow, the while you walk about
Imploring me to let you out.

Just why I have to leave my task
And do exactly as you ask

Is something that I do not know.
However, drat you, out you go.

(Two hours later)
You would get out, and out you got,
And, though you relish it or not,

Since you must have your selfish way,
Until tomorrow, out you stay.

Meow, if you want, till your're hoarse,
I know no pity nor remorse,

Your supplications shall not keep Me from my badly needed sleep.

You'd only treat me with renewed
Displays of rank ingratitude,

You're nothing but a feline bilk—
Oh, well, come in and get your milk.

WHAT OTHERS THINK ABOUT IT

CONFERENCE WINS

[Baltimore Sun]

It would be interesting to know what the Navy football team got in return for conceding Army's right to use veterans of other college teams in the game between the two service schools now promised for 1931. The Army has previously rejected all compromise, but we are now informed that, although Army sticks to the right to use men who have starred for years on college teams, "some concessions have been made."

It is hereby suggested that the modus operandi may have been arrived as as a result of keen observation of technique at disarmament conferences. Schedules may have been prepared assigning arbitrary weights to various types of players. Dreadnaughts like Wilson, Cagle or Hewitt could be weighted at 66.66 on a scale of 50, which would mean that for every such player Navy has been given the right to use one and a half players of standard cruiser strength.

Or it may be that the men have been classified according to previous years of play. Thus, for each former superdreadnaught of Penn State or Colgate in the Army line-up Navy would be permitted to use the common garden midshipman, plus .33 of a midshipman for each year of football the Army star in question played before he came to West Point, minus .06 of a midshipman as compensation for the alleged fewer hours for practice allowed to Army players. Or it may have been agreed that Navy may make up for the shiftiness and greater cruising radius of some of Army's experienced backs by arming her own backs with greased oilskin jerseys.

"LESS HORN, MORE BRAKES"

[Philadelphia Public Ledger]

Commissioner Eynon of the State Bureau of Motor Vehicles is indisputably right in his contention that there are too many drivers who need "to forget the notion that a blast of the horn relieves them of the necessity of pressing the brake pedal or twisting the steering wheel." The auto horn is a much abused and misused appliance, and while there will be few who will agree with Mr. Eynon's dictum that the roads would be safer if all cars were without that particular equipment, they will agree that his counsel for "less horn and more brakes" is a sound one. The driver who in the city sounds his horn as he approaches every crossing is a public nuisance. His clamor is apparently inspired by the thought that he alone has the right of way and that everybody must stand by while he thunders past. Without his horn he might possibly learn to drive with more care and with some regard for the rights of others.

HOUSE NUMBERS

[St. Louis Post-Dispatch]

The game seems to be to put the house number where it will be as nearly invisible as possible. By night it is simple. A location in the shadows away from the illumination of the street light is all that is needed. Daytime, however, presents a sterner challenge to those who would outwit collectors and puzzle suburban friends. An old standby is to paint the number the same color as the house. Block co-operation is a great help. If every householder will post his number in a different place a first-class result can be obtained.

THREE MEN OF MARK

EINSTEIN, MILLIKAN AND MICHELSON

BY BAILEY MILLARD

[In part, a radio address delivered recently over KHJ.]

Early next month there will be a remarkable gathering in Pasadena. It will not be heralded by a blare of bands, a blaze of banners, a great street parade, or anything that smacks of pomp or pageantry. Three quiet, dignified men and their associates will sit down and talk about their business. This has nothing to do with dry goods, groceries, real estate, automobiles or the stock market. It is of far greater significance. It has to do with the boundless reaches of sidereal space, with suns, planets, the atoms of which the universe is composed, the distances between the heavenly bodies and the earth, and between star and star.

These three men are physicists of high renown. They are Albert Einstein, Albert Abraham Michelson and Robert Andrews Millikan. Dr. Einstein, now on his way from Berlin, is best known for his studies of relativity, Dr. Michelson for his investigations as to light waves and the velocity of light and Dr. Millikan, for his measurements of electrons and the discovery of the cosmic rays. All of these men are Nobel prize winners.

Einstein was born at Ulm, Germany, in 1879. After spending most of his boyhood days in Munich he went to school in Aarau, Switzerland, and afterward in Zurich, where he supported himself by teaching mathematics and physics. He became a Swiss citizen.

Relativity, the work that has made him famous, first attracted his attention in 1905. This principle consists essentially in the hypothesis that it is impossible by physical experiment to measure or detect the absolute motion of a body through space. Only relative motion can be detected or even defined. This is of importance as indicating that space and time have no absolute significance—they depend upon the motion of the observer.

We have been taught that the shortest distance between two points, whether they are mountain peaks or stars, is to be measured along the straight line determined by the two points. But Einstein has held to the theory that we must measure along circles called geodesics. According to Einstein the paths of light in space are geodesics. He is a wonderful mathematician. He calculated to what extent a ray of light passing near the sun would be deflected from a straight course in accordance with his theory. Later observations were made by British scientists in Brazil during a total eclipse of the sun, and the theory was confirmed. Einstein also made many investigations in gravitation and electro-magnetism.

The theory of relativity has had its effect upon the experiments of Dr. Millikan and Dr. Michelson, although in turn, Einstein is indebted to Michelson, whose famous experiment for detecting absolute motion was made with E. W. Morley in 1881.

Albert Abraham Michelson, a physicist known the world over among scientific men, was born in Strelno, Germany, and on the 19th of this month will be 78 years old. He began life as a midshipman in the United States Navy in 1873. Meantime his parents had removed to San Francisco and the young man became identified with the life of California, a tie he never has broken.

Dr. Michelson early directed his researches to the velocity of light. At Cleveland he invented his interferometer for measuring distances by means of the length of light waves and determined with great precision the speed at which light travels—approximately 186,300 miles a second—and he is still working to perfect his calculations. It is because of our knowledge of the velocity of light that we can measure the distance from the earth to the heavenly bodies and express it in terms of light years. And so we say that the North Star is distant forty-five light years, Capella seventy-one light years and Vega twenty-three light years. Of course, thought or sight travels much more rapidly than light. We can think of the planet Neptune, 2,190,000,000 miles from the earth, in a fraction of a second, but it would take more than three hours for a ray of light to travel there. Some stars are so distant that it takes many years for their light to reach us.

In 1887 Michelson, assisted by Prof. E. W. Morley, performed his celebrated experiment to attempt to measure the velocity of the earth through the ether. This was the Michelson-Morley experiment so often referred to in scientific works. The fact that they could detect no influence of the earth's motion on the velocity of light really formed the starting point of Einstein's theory of relativity.

During the World War, Dr. Michelson rejoined the naval service and devoted all his time to new devices for naval use. His range-finder was adopted as part of the United States Navy's standard equipment.

Soon after the war he was able to demonstrate by light interference that the diameter of the star Betelgeuse was 260,000,000 miles. This was the first accurate determination of the size of a star and has since been verified. But think of it! A star with a diameter that measures three times the distance from the earth to the sun!

Dr. Michelson has a passion for perfection. Not being wholly satisfied with his measurement of the speed of light, he came to California several years ago and from time to time worked at the Mt. Wilson Observatory checking up his figures. He used the most accurately measured base line in the world, twenty-two miles long, stretching between the summits of Mt. Wilson and Mt. San Antonio. He projected a powerful light through a narrow slit on to a mirror which was spinning at the rate of 30,000 revolutions a minute, which in turn projected it on a projecting apparatus at the far station. The reflector turned the light to the original source. With an accurate knowledge of the rate at which the mirror was revolving and of the distance between the two stations, the velocity of light could be calculated. The experiment enabled Dr. Michelson to give a new figure for the velocity of light—186,284 miles per second.

In the Paris International Bureau of Weights and Measures there was a sacredly guarded bar of steel, just one meter in length. Had it been lost or destroyed the world would have had no absolute unit of measurement. But Michelson measured a meter in terms of wave-length of calcium light for the bureau and now the valuable meter bar can be easily replaced, as its length is known in terms of an absolute unit.

Early last summer this learned physicist had a mile-long vacuum tube constructed on the Irvine ranch in Orange county and this, with other apparatus, has been used further to test the speed of light. The tube is three feet in diameter and is of corrugated steel. You can well imagine the interest Einstein will take in it when it is shown to him by the man upon whose discovery his theory of relativity is based.

One of the most important ideas in the world today is that of the electrical constitution of matter. According to Robert A. Millikan of the California Institute of Technology, one of the foremost physicists of the day, this idea, though less than thirty years old, including as it does radioactivity, electronics, quantum theory and relativity, has had enormous consequences in changing man's conception of the physical world.

This Pasadena wizard knows an electron when he sees it, though it is a pretty minute body. It takes the diameters of millions of them to make one inch. And yet Dr. Millikan has not only measured but weighed single electrons and has done this many times, though it was a feat that had been considered well-nigh impossible. It was for this difficult, painstaking work, together with certain photo-electric researches, that he received the 1923 Nobel prize in physics.

Dr. Millikan is a native of Illinois and is 62 years of age. He is a graduate of Oberlin and Columbia. He has received degrees from Berlin, Gottingen, Dublin, Columbia, Yale and other universities. He occupied the chair of physics at the University of Chicago from 1896 to 1921. He was chief of the science and research division of the United States Signal Corps during the war. He is now chairman of the Executive Council of the California Institute of Technology at Pasadena.

In 1922, following the inconclusive researches of some German physicists whose work had been halted by the war, Dr. Millikan began the investigations which resulted in his discovery of the cosmic or Millikan rays. He sent up sounding balloons containing electroscopes from Texas plains to a height of nearly ten miles. An electroscope is an instrument for detecting the presence of electricity upon a conductor by the repulsion of pithballs or strips of gold leaf. When the electroscopes were examined they showed a high degree of radiation coming from somewhere, presumably from beyond our atmosphere.

In the summer of 1923 he carried on further experiments on the top of Pike's Peak to determine the nature of this radiation, and he found it to consist of hard or gamma rays. In 1925 Dr. Millikan and Harvey Cameron went to Muir Lake, at an altitude of 11,800 feet in the Sierras and 2000 feet deep. They sank their electroscopes in the lake to depths of sixty-seven feet and a little less and brought to light a radiation of such extraordinary penetrating force that the rays had the power of passing through six feet of lead. Now the most penetrating X-rays used in our hospitals cannot penetrate one-half of an inch of lead and the new rays seemed marvelous to the investigators. It could hardly be, they thought, that here were rays at least 100 times more penetrating than the X-rays, but experiments conducted by them at Lake Arrowhead and on a high lake in the Andes verified their Muir Lake findings, as did other experiments made near Churchill in the Hudson Bay country and elsewhere. I heard Dr. Millikan say recently that the cosmic rays have much to do with meteorological conditions.

Dr. Millikan is guarded in his statements. He wants to continue his researches with the cosmic rays, and to this end he has gained possession of a new electroscope fourteen times as sensitive as any he has previously used.

As Californians we should be proud to have these scientists meet and discuss their favorite studies in our Golden State and prouder still that the most remarkable work of two of them, Drs. Millikan and Michelson, has been done here.

Numerous Suicides Averted

That 214 women and girls who were planning suicide read its posters and were saved last year, is the announcement of the Kobe Women's Society, of Kobe, Japan. To cut down the great number of suicides in Japan the organization put up posters reading: "Wait a moment! God is love. If you are in such circumstances that death seems the only way out, please come to us. We will be your friends."

COURT TO RULE IN DOG CASE

Responsibility for the death of Shanty, football-playing Scotch terrier valued at $10,000 by W. H. Groh in a suit against the Los Angeles Transfer Company for $30,000 on account of the dog's death, will be decided by Superior Judge Sproul after submission of the case on briefs.

Shanty died in a local dog hospital after injuries asserted to have been received while the animal was in custody of the defendant. Numerous transfer company employees testified that they were not responsible for the dog's wounds, after Groh had described his valuable pet's death, which interfered with a vaudeville contract, he said.

DOROTHY LEE TO BE STARRED

First National Assigns Comedians to "Broad-Minded;" Patrick McGill Signs to Write Stories for Fox; John Holland Plays Lead in Lasky Film

BY GRACE KINGSLEY

There was one very happy little girl on the R.-K.-O. lot yesterday. Her name is Dorothy Lee.

DOROTHY LEE

Such excellent work has Miss Lee been doing in the various pictures to which she has been assigned, and especially in the Robert Woolsey-Bert Wheeler comedies, that R.-K.-O. officials yesterday at a meeting held solemn conclave concerning her, and decided she should be starred.

Her first story is not yet selected, but readers at R.-K.-O. are already at work reading scripts, novels and plays with a view to finding the most suitable material possible with which to launch the little actress on her starring career. In the meantime Miss Lee is playing the leading feminine role in the current Wheeler-Woolsey comedy, "Assorted Nuts."

FIRST NATIONAL ASSIGNS COMEDIAN

Just as soon as Joe E. Brown completes his stage engagement with Henry Duffy, under whose management he will appear shortly at El Capitan in "Elmer the Great," the comedian will at once begin work on a First National comedy. In fact, if "Elmer the Great" runs too long, there is a possibility that the smiling Joe may find himself busy both in picture and on the stage at the same time.

JOE E. BROWN

The story selected for Brown is a comedy called "Broad-Minded," which was co-authored by a trio of noted writers, including Edgar Allen Woolf, Humphrey Pearson and Henry McCarty.

It is likely that Clarence Badger will direct the picture.

FAMOUS IRISH POET TO WRITE FOR FOX

It actually looks as though Fox is going a bit high-brow. At any rate that organization, despite its "East Lynnes" and its "Fatal Weddings," is signing up these days some of the most noted writers.

The newest author to be gathered into the Fox fold is none other than Patrick McGill, internationally famous novelist and poet, native of Ireland, and one of England's most popular novelists these days, who came to this country only a fortnight ago, bringing his family with him.

Among other works of the writer, you may recollect, are "Children of the Dead End," "The Rat Pit" and "Lanly Hanlon."

It is likely that, in addition to originals, written by McGill, some of his published stories also will be acquired by Fox.

John Holland with Paramount

More and more the screen actors who have been suffering partial eclipse in the overshadowing glory of the stage are being brought back to the screen.

Now it is John Holland, formerly under contract to Fox, who has been signed by Paramount to play the juvenile lead in "Ladies' Man," in which William Powell carries the title role of a society Don Juan.

Holland, who has appeared all too seldom of late on the screen, formerly made a hit in a number of films including the Halperin Brothers' picture, "She Goes to War," "Hell Harbor" and "Eyes of the World."

Wynne Gibson In It

Wynne Gibson's work in Jack Oakie's present starring vehicle, "The Gang Buster," has won her one of the leading femine parts in the comedian's next Paramount picture, it is announced by B. P. Schulberg.

The former Broadway musical-comedy personality will join the cast of the Oakie production, which is based on the Ring Lardner and Georges S. Kaufman Broadway hit, "June Moon," as soon as work is completed on "The Gang Buster."

Virginia Sale Travels

For the first time since she came to Hollywood three years ago, Virginia Sale is going to pack up her carpet bag and hie her home to Urbana, Ill., where she will visit her parents. Following that the young character actress will go on to New York, where she will spend Christmas with her famous brother, Chic Sale, who is now appearing in a New York show.

Dorothy Christie Signed

That charming young actress, Dorothy Christy, is a very busy young lady these days. At present, she is appearing in the leading romantic feminine part in Buster Keaton's current starring vehicle, "Parlor, Bedroom and Bath," which features Charlotte Greenwood.

DOROTHY CHRISTY

And yesterday she was signed as the feminine lead in Warner Brothers' "Red-Hot Sinners, which is to go into production around January 1, next.

Miss Christie was formerly of the stage, but has been devoting herself to talking pictures during the past several months.

Daphne Pollard in Films

The half-pint comedienne, Daphne Pollard, who used to have London audiences in stitches, has cast her lot quite definitely with Hollywood and the talking pictures.

DAPHNE POLLARD

Miss Pollard has just signed with Universal, according to the announcement of M. Stanley Bergerman, to star in a series of short-reel comedies which will be commenced late in the spring. In the meantime Miss Pollard is making a series of short-reelers for Pathe.

Helen Ware Buys Home

Helen Ware seems to believe that one isn't a real Hollywood-ite until one owns a beach home somewhere along the California coast. Therefore Miss Ware has hastened to make her citizenship complete by purchasing a beautiful little bungalow in Carmel. There Miss Ware and her husband, Frederick Burt, will spend their holidays and weekends.

POLICEWOMAN AIDS IN ARREST

Dance Hall Patron, Accused of Shooting Rival in Love, Caught After Chase

Policewoman Ann Brewer assisted her husband, Police Sergeant Brewer, to capture a suspect yesterday accused of shooting his rival for the affections of a woman.

Steve Kinhalon, 25 years of age, Filipino, of 750 West Fourth street, was the one shot. He received a bullet in the neck at Third and Main streets early yesterday morning, following a quarrel in a dance hall with Frank Bravo, 23, of 7028 Hollywood Boulevard.

Bravo is accused of shooting Kinhalon and was captured while running from the scene. Kinhalon is in Georgia-street Hospital and is expected to recover.

PATHE-R.-K.-O FILM DEAL ANNOUNCED

Culver City Studio With Players, Directors and Pictures Sold to "Radio"

Purchase of the Pathe Culver City studio and other properties by the Radio-Keith-Orpheum Company was disclosed in a formal announcement made in New York yesterday, according to dispatches received here. The purchase of these properties was made from the Pathe Exchange, Inc.

According to the dispatches, the deal will give to R.-K.-O. control of the Culver City plant, the Jersey City (N. J.) film printing laboratories, Pathe News and Audio Review and all of its distributing and exchange facilities in this country and Great Britain.

Local interest in the deal centers on the announcement that the personnel of the studios, exchanges and other units included in the deal will be retained by R.-K.-O. The deal gives to the purchasing concern all of the Pathe stars, directors and featured players as well as a number of feature pictures now completed.

Previous announcement was to the effect that the Culver City plant in all probability will be operated as a separate production unit as in the past.

While no details of the amount involved in the deal were contained in the formal announcement yesterday, it is believed the consideration is in the neighborhood of $5,000,000. Beside the cash consideration, dispatches stated, Pathe will participate in the earnings of certain Pathe pictures acquired by R.-K.-O. and the latter concern will distribute for exhibition other pictures previously produced by Pathe.

It was stated that the deal does not include Pathe's interest in the Dupont-Pathe Film Manufacturing Company, makers of raw film, and a number of other Pathe subsidiaries. The deal has been approved by directors of both companies and now awaits stockholders' approval at a special meeting early next month.

Dirigible Catastrophe Shown in "Lottery Bride"

Friml Musical Feature at United Artists

Jeanette MacDonald in Lead; Joe Brown Amuses

BY EDWIN SCHALLERT

Presented as a screen operetta, but with its music often reduced seemingly to mere scratches of lines, "The Lottery Bride"—made in an earlier and happier day of the melody films—arrived yesterday at the United Artists Theater. Rudolf Friml is credited with having created the songs and the incidental accompaniments, while Jeanette MacDonald, John Garrick and Robert Chisholm are the vocal principals. Paul L. Stein is mentioned as the director.

The picture, of course, suffers from the handicap that all musicals are heir to at the present time, namely that the public doesn't seem especially responsive to such pictures. One never knows, to be sure, when the tide will turn in favor of this type of entertainment, but the evidences are not particularly visible right now. However, "The Lottery Bride" drew a large audience at the evening showing, and the comedy by Joe E. Brown, Zasu Pitts and Harry Gribbon—especially the first-named—appeared to win the listeners-in the initial day.

The plot of "The Lottery Bride" is a true make-believe affair—just as cheerfully far-fetched as comic opera plots usually are. It even goes to the remote ends of the earth for a locale. The setting of the story in the earlier sequences is in Oslo, Norway, and later on somewhere up above the Arctic Circle.

The Nobile catastrophe, it would seem, has been dramatized in the destruction of a dirigible attempting a polar flight, as the climax of the story, this being the most spectacular moment. A rescue party goes forth aboard an ice-breaking ship and saves some of the victims of the catastrophe. The Nobile incident, is, naturally, just suggested by what happens on the screen, no attempt being made to portray it in actuality.

Odd indeed, is the early episode where a marathon dance is promoted among college students of Norway, and the competition runs on for more than 100 hours. Brown, who glories in the name of Hoke, and is portrayed as an American jazz band leader, is the one who does the promoting.

The lottery bride is Miss MacDonald, sent to prison because she shielded an absconding brother, and forsaken by her fiance because he believed her faithless. She seeks to escape the unhappy past by contracting to wed one of the settlers in an Arctic region, where brides are rouletted off to the bidders on a spinwheel. Her erstwhile lover draws the ticket that wins her, but isn't sufficiently interested to ascertain who the prize might be, and turns the number over to his brother. From that arises the plot complications.

The essential idea of "The Lottery Bride" isn't at all bad. But comparatively little is made of it, because the picture inclines to the theatrical situation attended here and there by the lyric outbursts.

In these songs Robert Chisholm stands out rather brilliantly because of an excellent voice. Jeanette MacDonald is regrettably not given as much scope for singing as usual, and, despite her competency, is perhaps less suitably cast in a tearful role than one given to comedy. Her emotional scenes are none the less interesting.

Garrick conveys well his distate for the lady, when they are at outs. Chisholm is less convincing in acting than singing. Carroll Nye lends a true note of drama to his interpretation of the absconding brother of the heroine, while Joseph Macaulay is acceptably villainish. Brown will probably steal the picture, popularly speaking.

Herbert Stothart wrote the story, adapted by Howard Emmet Rogers and Horace Jackson.

Both short subjects are worth while, the Tom Terris travel talk of the New Zealand geyser land, called "Satan's Fury," being excellently contrived, and the Paramount comedy, "O Teddy," highly amusing. Gaylord Carter plays some favored numbers on the organ.

Modern Farce Presented by German Actors

BY JACOB COOPER

Variety of fare is, at least, one of the outstanding points which can be credited to the Neuhaus German players. After opening their season with a classic Schiller play and following it with a "volkstheater" potpouri, they switched over last night to a more than typical, up-to-date farce which held its risible sway at the Wilshire-Ebell Theater.

Loosely translated into English, the title of this opus by Franz Arnold and Ernst Bach means "Love Affairs Under Business Control." Starting with the ancient situation of a young man being forced to marry a girl he has never seen in order to save his business, while having a musical-comedy actress on his hands, the authors then introduce a series of mixed characters whose actions weave into the general scheme. They were so free with these characters and so ingenious in connecting all their lives, past, present and future, that the unraveling process of the third act would take astuteness equivalent to five Philadelphia lawyers.

In the principal role, that of the musical-comedy star, was Margaret Knapp, heralded as a choice importation from Vienna. Unfortunately for Miss Knapp, her part was one of a central point, more or less passive, around which this whirlwind of comedy revolves. She was not given much opportunity to show all of her wares, but her modern insouciant style served as a fine contrast to the other farcically drawn roles.

Arno Frey once more makes his appearance with this company in the part of the young man in question, giving a spontaneous performance. The attraction of the evening, however, was Conrad Seidemann who, as the butt of most of the happenings, stole the show by force of characterization. As director of the performance, Seidemann showed expert ability in holding together such a mass of fast-moving heterogenneity.

The supporting cast was exceptionally splendid in keeping up the rapid tempo from beginning to end.

JOE BROWN TO STAR AT EL CAPITAN

Duffy Presents Comedian in "Elmer the Great" as Special Holiday Bill

"Laugh season" opens Sunday matinee, the 21st inst., at El Capitan Theater, when Joe E. Brown plays the comic hero of Ring Lardner's farce, "Elmer the Great." Henry Duffy will present the stage and screen comedian.

Rehearsals for this stage piece are now under way, with Edwin H. Curtis directing the cast of thirty-five supporting the comedian

Evidence that El Capitan Theater will be the center of holiday festivities in Hollywood comes with the announcement that special Christmas and New Year's Day matinees of "Elmer the Great" will be offered, with two gala midnight performances on New Year's Eve.

"Michael and Mary," co-starring Dale Winter and Henry Duffy, is now in its final two weeks.

Jascha Gegna Well Received at Beaux Arts

Jascha Gegna, who has established himself in Los Angeles as a violinist and teacher, gave his second annual recital last night and attracted a large audience to the Beaux Arts Auditorium. His program was distinguished and representative of good violin literature. It included a Handel sonata, the Vitali "Chaconne," "Othello," by Ernest, and three smaller numbers, "Hebrew Melody," by Julber, Mazurka by Chopin-Kreisler and an Elegy by himself, the Bach Preludium and "Souvenir de Moscow," by Wieniawski.

The difficult Vitali "Chaconne" was especially approved for its tone and classic style. The excerpt from the Bach sixth sonata for violin alone played with the Schumann accompaniments by Nino Herschel was carried off in bravura style and the "Souvenir de Moscow" made a brilliant finale.

Mr. Gegna is a violinist with broad musical knowledge and violinistic experience. He has gathered around him, in the short space of a year's residence, a large following of appreciative patrons.

Two Theaters Plan Special Shows Tonight

Larry "Moon" Mullins, noted fullback of the Notre Dame football team, will appear at the Chinese Theater tonight at the midnight showing of "Morocco." Mullins is expected to bring several other members of the team as his guests.

Loew's State Theater will likewise present a special midnight football matinee, with Harold Roberts and forty syncopators in musical offerings, a U.S.C. chorus of thirty male voices, surprise appearances, cheer leaders, and a collegiate dancing contest.

Both the Chinese and Loew's State will have special newsreel shots, showing detailed highlights of today's game.

'Little Mother' Scheduled for Local Showing

The Figueroa Playhouse will go talkie on the 12th inst. W. A. Coughlin and Hal Reed will offer the picturization of Dr. E. Thomas's story, "The Little Mother."

The cast of players includes Joseph Swickard, Florence Lawrence, Monte Montague, Margaret Kreuse, Richard Jones and Jean Adair. William Bertram directed.

On the same bill another picture, "The Dude Wrangler," featuring Lina Basquette, George Duryea, Clyde Cook, Francis X. Bushman and Margaret Seddon, will be screened.

Color of Far East Depicted at Filmarte

Now that the camera has become travel-conscious, it is not uncommon to sit in the shadow of a theater and for a few hours be taken on extended tours to the ends of the earth.

This week the Filmarte offers nothing less than a little jaunt through the more colorful cities of the Far East. The James A. Fitzpatrick excursion entitled "Asia" starts off at Columbo, progressing through Ceylon, to Bombay, northward to Peking, Hongkong and then over to the blossom land of Japan.

Fitzpatrick has photographed nothing that is especially novel in his sightseeing specialty, but the pictures he has taken are distinctive in beauty and interest. Contrast between the old and the new, the East and the West, is brought out by the camera in each city visited. Thus the fascination of all becomes intensified.

The high spots of this journey are pauses before the famed Taj Mahal, India's marble symbol of eternity; a trip into China's Forbidden City; a glimpse of an ancient capital, deserted and crumbling through centuries, and lastly a lyric panorama of Fujiyama.

For sheer loveliness, the final reels devoted to Japan are the outstanding. Fitzpatrick has captured in them the moods of spring as well as winter. He has also attempted to impress the religious significance which the Japanese attach to the mountain of Fujiyama.

A musical score is synchronized with the picture, which because it 's well chosen and interpretive becomes the keynote to the varying moods of the voyage. Fitzpatrick, himself, also follows the camera with a vocal explanation. This he has nicely made secondary to the film, keeping his statements down to the importance of verbal subtitles.

Solos Feature Woman's Lyric Club Concert

Maintaining its traditional reputation for musicianship, the Woman's Lyric Club launched its twenty-seventh season last night at the Philharmonic Auditorium with a concert in which Nathan Stewart was the guest soloist; Elsie Eyre, club soloist; Mrs. M. Hennion Robinson, accompanist, and J. B. Poulin the conductor.

Mr. Poulin, who has been conductor of the organization for many years, deserves much of the credit for the attainments of this woman's chorus. Excellently blended voices of satisfying quality coupled with love of song characterizes the singing of the members of the club. The three selections from Tschaikowsky's popular "Nutcracker Suite" and the cantata, "A Legend of Granada," by Henry Hadley, were the notable offerings of the chorus.

A fantasy based on the Nutcracker Suite with libretto, lyrics, and vocal transcription by Franz C. Bornschein proved so delightful that one of the numbers had to be repeated. Tschaikowsky's inherent sensibility to eastern color, his flair for unusual rhythm, and whimsicality were all faithfully conveyed by the chorus in the three dances, "Trepak," "Dance Arab," and "Dance Chinois." The cantata had Nathan Stewart and Elsie Eyre for soloists. "A Legend of Granada" is colorful in content and in its music with an eveness and beauty of tone from the chorus that was eminently satisfying.

Nathan Stewart is always master of his voice, there is never any vocal uncertainty in his singing. The "Arioso de Benvenuto" by Diaz and "Requiescat" were sung with excellent taste. Vocal flaws do not mar this baritones rich and powerful voice. One wishes, however, that he had just a little more poise of manner. His fine artistry won him two encores. The "Largo al Factotum" from the "Barber of Seville," by Rossini, was vigorous and restrained. "Ole Man River" from "Show Boat" which was a request number, was admirably chosen for his final encore number.

ACTRESS AT UNIVERSAL

Virginia Sale, although still in her twenties, usually depicts characters older than herself. At present she is paired with Slim Summerville as a comedy team in the Vin Moore production, "Many a Slip," for Universal.

INGENUE PLAYS IN TWO

Mae Clarke, formerly a Broadway favorite, plays the ingenue lead in her last two pictures, "The Dancers" and "Men on Call," both Fox films to be released soon.

GALA EVENT OCCURS AT CALIFORNIA

"Sevilla de mis Amores" Marks Debut of Novarro in Spanish Films

BY SALVADOR BAGUEZ

A supreme and brilliant event without precedent!

Thus may be described the first presentation anywhere of Ramon Novarro's initial Spanish-speaking picture, "Sevilla de mis Amores," which took place at the California International Theater last evening. The occasion also marked the favorite Mexican actor's ascent into directorial domains.

The film is the Spanish version of his latest English-speaking feature, "Call of the Flesh," in which he was starred by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. The manner in which Novarro has both acted and directed this production is simply ingenious. One clearly feels the adroit handling of an artist quite familiar with the intricacies of cinema technique.

On the other hand, Novarro has taken quite a number of liberties in the handling of the story's individual characters, to the extent that these differ greatly from those of the original. Even in the arrangement of props he has deviated from it. The costumes have all been adapted properly as to type and are entirely different from those used in "Call of the Flesh."

The star's vast knowledge of dancing is manifest in one of the early scenes, when he gives a masterful interpretation of the famous "Garrotin," accompanied by Rosita Ballestero, enacting the role played by Renee Adoree in the English version.

While the performance and direction of Novarro are predominant throughout, with Miss Ballestero easily taking second honors, there are other members of the cast who acquit themselves commendably. Of these, Jose Soriano Viosca in the role created by Ernest Torrence, offers the best characterization. Maria Calvo does very well in a comedy part. Conchita Montenegro, in the leading feminine role of a young postulant in a convent, makes her debut in this country. She lacks the subtlety so essential in a part of this kind. The late Michael Vavitch, remembered for his fine portrayals in several silent pictures, surprised with his knowledge of a language not his own.

A pleasant surprise for the star's many fans should be the first appearance of his mother, Senora Leonor de Samaniego, in the fitting part of mother superior, the role enacted by Nance O'Neil in the original version.

The adaptation was done by Ramon Guerrero, uncle of Novarro. He has done an excellent job in adapting the proper Andalusian accent for three of the characters, namely, Juan de Dios, played by the star; Maria Consuelo, enacted by Miss Montenegro, and Lola, portrayed by Miss Ballestero. The remaining members of the cast all use the correct Castilian.

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer should be congratulated for giving the Spanish world a successful picture worthy of all praise, as well as the pioneering directorial effort of a great artist.

At the conclusion of the feature the members of the cast were introduced from the stage. Novarro spoke briefly after the tremendous ovation which greeted his appearance on the stage. A comedy and newsreel were shown preceding the picture.

Porcasi Wins Typical Role in New Film

Paul Porcasi has been selected by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer officials to complete a brilliant cast supporting John Gilbert in "Gentlemen's Fate."

Probably the foremost portrayer of Graeco, Italo, Hispano and Franco-American porprietors, racketeers and managers, Porcasi will depict an Italian-American lawyer, guardian of Gilbert. "Gentleman's Fate" is an original story.

Since enacting the characterization of Nick the Greek in the first of the racketeer plays, "Broadway," Porcasi has gained wide popularity. His command of French, Italian and Spanish has aided him no end. Mervyn Le Roy is directing The rest of the supporting cast includes Anita Page, Louis Wolheim Leila Hyams, John Miljan, Marie Prevost, George Cooper and Gorge Marion.

In "Jenny Lind" at the Criterion Theater and in "Morocco" at the Chinese Theater, Porcasi is seen in prominent roles.

Chaplin Film Will Open New Cinema Palace

The Los Angeles, latest addition to the local Rialto, will be formally opened to the public on or about January 1 with Charles Chaplin's "City Lights." The theater is individually owned and independently operated, according to an announcement.

With no entangling alliances, the Los Angeles will make its debut under the guidance of H. L. Gumbiner, who also owns and operates the Tower Theater.

"In no way has my new house any connection with any chain, producing company or distribution organization," Gumbiner said. "I shall buy my pictures on merit and merit alone, choosing only the best screen entertainment offered by the various companies."

Gumbiner has liner up a tentative program of outstanding pictures produced by various major companies.

WHALE BEGINS PICTURE

James Whale, the director of "Journey's End," has started on his second Tiffany picture entitled "X Marks the Spot," which it is said will be one of the most dramatic stories of gangland yet filmed. At the present time Whale is busy selecting the leads for the production which is to be filmed at the Tiffany studios in Hollywood.

City Granted Possession of Strip on Boulevard

Judgment of the Superior Court giving the city immediate use and possession of certain Hollywood Boulevard property involved in the Five-Finger Plan was affirmed yesterday by Division Two, District Court of Appeal.

The decision was on an appeal by Leonard J. Woodruff, whose property is on the south side of Hollywood Boulevard, one block west of Vine street. Forty feet of his property is involved and the Superior court on November 28, 1928, set the value of the land to be taken and severance damage at $178,496.

Woodruff took an appeal from that judgment and while the appeal was pending the city filed an affidavit for an order directing defendant to show cause why an order should not be made giving the city immediate possession. The property owner then filed a motion to quash the order to show cause.

The order to show cause was argued before Superior Judge Gates who, on December 6, 1929, made the order granting immediate possession and use of the property to the city. The appeal decided yesterday was from that judgment. It was based on two principal grounds: That the court had erred in overruling the motion to quash and that the court had erred in making the order for immediate possession and use of the land and in refusing to fix a sum as a fund to pay possible further costs and damages.

Arguments advanced in support of these contentions failed to convince the court, which ruled that the Superior Court did not err.

Justice Archbald, pro tem, wrote the opinion, Presiding Justice Works and Justice Thompson concurring.

Hitchcock Flies Here to Attend Football Game

Development of the country's air mail, in which he played a leading part, was closely rivaled yesterday in the mind of former Postmaster-General Hitchcock, who is now publisher of the Tucson Daily Citizen, by nothing less than football.

"I am tremendously interested in the air mail program," said the visitor at the Biltmore, expressing his pleasure at the inauguration of such service through the southern part of the country.

The former Postmaster-General started the country's air mail. The visitor said he came here for the University of Southern California-Notre Dame game. He flew here from San Francisco.

"FAIRY PRINCESS" PRESENTED

Lloyds Officially Given Child's Custody

Court Takes Final Step in Adoption Proceedings

Judge Blake gives Marjorie Elizabeth to Harold Lloyd and Gloria Mildred Lloyd.

GLORIA GABRIELLE FREEMAN, the poor little girl from Hermosa Beach, yesterday became the fairy Princess, Marjorie Elizabeth Lloyd, and henceforth her home will be in the fairy palace of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lloyd in Beverly Hills.

The magic words that transformed the little girl's entire future were spoken by Judge Blake of the Juvenile Department of Superior Court, when he closed the legal proceedings declaring the child abandoned, and then approved her adoption by Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd. Judge Blake also approved the official change of the girl's name to Marjorie Elizabeth Lloyd.

The proceedings were started by the Lloyds nearly three months ago with the filing of the abandonment petition by Robert C. Gortner, attorney for Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd.

After waiting for more than two months to give any relatives of the child an opportunity to file their claims should they desire the child's custody, the case was called yesterday.

According to the court records, Marjorie Elizabeth was born at Hermosa Beach on April 15, 1925. She then was cared for by Mrs. Louise Sullivan of 491 South Marengo street, Pasadena.

Three months ago Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd decided to adopt the child as a foster sister to their girl, Gloria Mildred Lloyd.

DEPRESSION BELITTLED BY CULVER

California People's Spirit Irrepressible, Exchange Club Members Hear

The spirit of California people cannot be conquered by anything so temporary as a business depression, Harry H. Culver told members of the Exchange Club at its optimistic luncheon at the Biltmore yesterday. His subject was "Who Said Depression?"

"Depressions come and depressions go, but the spirit of our California people goes on forever," he said. "Depressions are like grocery bills, they come around periodically. Prosperity does her stuff, there is overproduction, overcompetition, too much luxurious living, an orgy of spending and then the toboggan slide.

"Nevertheless Los Angeles today is in an enviable situation. She has unlimited resources. Southern California has had the best agricultural year in the last five. Los Angeles' 5000 industries are doing a $1,250,000,000 business, her harbor a $1,000,000,000 business, her Chamber of Commerce is a mile ahead of all others, and her population is growing 500 every day."

Health and Diet Advice

By DR. FRANK McCOY

Author of "The Fast Way to Health"

GUARD YOUR KIDNEYS

Would you rather take your departure from life at the age of 58, which is when the average man does, just when your work is hardly done, or would you rather last until 68 or 78, which gives you plenty of time to make your fortune, take care of your family and settle down to do the things you have always wanted to? If you would last a little longer than the ordinary, then one of the best things to do is to keep your kidneys healthy.

Take care of your kidneys early and your kidneys will take care of you later in life. The fact that more than half of the people over 40 are said to suffer from some form of kidney or bladder trouble shows that most people do not know how to treat their kidneys correctly. Your kidneys are really life savers. They are constantly on the job guarding you against poisons which would otherwise accumulate in your blood stream. If they were to lose their functioning for only a very short time, you could not live.

Nature has tried to protect you by giving you two kidneys, either one of which would ordinarily be able to guard your health. However, even the extra kidney is usually worn out by the wrong living habits of the average person.

Many people think of their kidneys when they have a backache, but the truth of the matter is that the kidneys may be seriously diseased before there is any warning pain in the back. Often there is none at all. Usually the first time one knows he has kidney trouble is when he takes an examination for life insurance and albumin is found in the urine. The only way for you to find out whether or not you have kidney trouble is to have the urine analyzed. If albumin in quantity is present along with the casts, you are one of those who has neglected to care for his kidneys.

When the delicate membranes lining the kidneys become inflamed the kidneys might be said to work backward, throwing out the albumin which is naturally kept in the body, and keeping in the water, salt and waste which are naturally excreted.

Many people think that drinking large quantities of water overworks the kidneys, but this is not true. These organs are especially adapted to handle very large quantities of water. The kidneys are not damaged by the water which passes through them, but by the irritating substances which they excrete. Pure water assists in diluting these substances so that they are less irritating to the kidneys. If you do have a case of chronic Bright's disease, the best plan would be for you to send for my free articles on the subject. If his disease has developed you should not delay in beginning the treatment. If you have not developed any kidney trouble, one of the best ways to prevent it is to be sure that you drink plenty of water every day.

World Parley on Recreation Planned Here

Here from New York to arrange for the first International Recreation Congress, which will be held in Los Angeles from July 23 to 30, 1932, Thomas Rivers, executive of the National Recreation Association, who is stopping at the Biltmore, yesterday outlined a tentative program to the playground department.

The object, he pointed out, is to exchange international information and experience in playground matters, building up of public interest in organized recreation.

Organization is to be carried on through the National Recreation Association with an international advisory committee, a Los Angeles sponsorship committee and a local arrangements committee. The Federal government is to be asked to co-operate.

The program will be equally divided between meetings, demonstrations and sightseeing.

He said the main reasons for holding the congress here are because of the Olympic Games and because the Los Angeles playground system is nationally known.

Your Baby and Mine

by MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED

Mrs. Eldred will be glad to answer all questions pertaining to babies and children. A stamped and self-addressed envelope forwarded to this office will bring a personal reply.

This department offers leaflets on weaning and feeding the child from 6 weeks to 6 years, prenatal care and diet for the nursing mother, constipation, eczema, outfits for the new baby, sleeping, walking, teething, thumb sucking, ammoniacal urine, bed wetting, training in cleanly habits, periods of nursing, cod liver oil, orange juice, hives, worms, vomiting, refractory children, prune juice, lime water, rupture, styes and boils and cradle cap. Before asking a personal question about one of these subjects, it is better to send a self-addressed stamped envelope for the leaflet you need. If your particular problem is not covered in the above list, Mrs. Eldred will be glad to give you a personal reply.

OLDER CHILD CAN HELP HIMSELF IN CORRECTING THUMB-SUCKING

Most mothers are aware of the bony changes that follow persistent thumb-sucking. This does not mean the half-hearted nibbling which all children are apt to give their fingers, but the persistent, vigorous thumb-sucking. Continued for a long period of time, this constant suction, whether on thumb, nipples, or any hard object pressed against the roof of the mouth, is certain to bring about deformative changes in the facial bones. This is the type of sucking whose damaging effects on teeth and jaw later demand correction by a competent orthodontist.

The social results of persistent thumb-sucking are less apparent, but just as visible if pointed out. The child who sucks his thumb persistently is extremely handicapped in carrying out his play projects. He can hardly build blocks, use clay, crayons or paints, cut, sew, or build sand houses with a thumb in his mouth. There is a divided attention that is inhibiting to the child's best interests.

CHILD RETARDED SOCIALLY

Later on the thumb-sucking child is compelled to assume a backward position in play with other children. His thumb being a necessary part of his happiness, he becomes so engrossed in it that he cannot be aroused to an interest in more active games. He contents himself by sitting in a corner, enjoying this sensory occupation and foregoing the rougher, but more developing play that goes on about him.

The dangers of this course are obvious to all. Children must learn to play all kinds of games. They need companions and they need the interest that will inspire them to carry through their play projects.

The thumb-sucking child may be a good child—he often is, because so easily amused by his thumb—but he develops into a dull child if he is deprived of all the activities, and the social intercourse with other children which is a vital part of his living.

HELPING OLDER CHILD

Our leaflet on thumb-sucking deals with the methods most in vogue for helping the young baby to forget his habit. Any reader may obtain this leaflet by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope with her request to the "Your Baby and Mine" department of this newspaper. At the moment we are thinking especially of the older child who is a persistent thumb-sucker, and mothers discover very early that restraint, punishment, and shaming are seldom successful methods of ending the habit.

Most punitive methods antagonize the child and make him an even more persistent thumb-sucker. It is better to convince the child that you and he together are going to correct this habit which is depriving him of so much fun. Ask him to tell you what ways he thinks will help him to forget it. Tactfully suggest lively games when he sits sucking his thumb, without direct mention of the habit. If he thinks a cotton mitten would help, put it on. If sitting in front of the mirror and noting his vacant expression makes him eager to be rid of the habit, then to let him sit in front of the mirror is an excellent procedure. It is his habit, and he must be convinced that it is an undesirable one that spoils his enjoyment of far more interesting pastimes.

HOUSEHOLD SUGGESTIONS

A Helpful Notation

On the bottom of the card containing the recipe for the cake, write the temperature you found best for baking and the length of time it took to bake the cake. It will insure even baking, as different recipes require entirely different sorts of baking to obtain the best results.

Try It This Year

One housewife plants her Christmas tree each year in a pail of dirt and keeps the earth moist. It keeps the tree from shedding its needles all the time it is trimmed. Red and green crepe paper may be wrapped around the pail to make it more attractive.

First Grade

Be certain that the meat you buy is of first quality and then you will not find it necessary to wash meat before cooking. Washing has a decided tendency to destroy flavor.

Once in a While

One day each month leave the doors of your bookcase open and allow some air to reach the leather bindings. It will keep them in better condition.

Heated Lemons

In the winter months it is a very simple matter to get all the juice out of a lemon. Just place the lemon on the radiator for awhile before squeezing and there you are.

WHEN THE SANDMAN COMES

by THORNTON W. BURGESS

THE CRIPPLE

Success is seldom won by luck;
'Tis chiefly the reward of pluck.
—Old Mother Nature.

The young Muskrat who had twisted off a foot and left it in a cruel steel trap was at first so happy in being free that he didn't give much thought to that lost foot. He followed his father, Jerry Muskrat, straight home to the big house in the Smiling Pool, which he entered by diving and swimming through the long underwater hall. Oh, how good it was to come up inside where he was safe from all enemies. On a comfortable bed of dry grass he first gave real attention to his injured leg. It ached, did that stump of a leg. Yes, indeed, it ached. But the ache was not so great as it had been when the leg was held fast in that dreadful trap. He gently licked it to get it clean. Presently he went to sleep. You see he had had no rest or sleep for so long that he was quite used up.

Oh, how good it was when at last he awoke to find that he was safely at home in that big house in the Smiling Pool. At first he could not remember what was wrong. Then the ache in that stump of a left front leg brought it all back. For two days he did not even try to go outside. Food was brought in. He didn't need much for he had quite lost his appetite. All the time Old Mother Nature was at work healing that stump of a leg. He was a healthy young Muskrat and it was surprising how rapidly the healing went on.

When at last the young Muskrat did venture out he did not realize at first how crippled he was. He could swim without difficulty, for there was nothing the matter with his strong hind feet with their partly webbed toes and there was nothing the matter with his tail wherewith to scull. It was when he came to the first landing and started to climb out that he realized something of what life was to be for him thereafter. Having but one forefoot and that stump, which was not yet fully healed, he could not get out on that little landing. He had to hunt another that was lower.

Jerry Muskrat saw him. "Never mind," said he. "Think how much worse it would have been to have lost your life."

The young Muskrat was almost ready to doubt this as he lost his balance and fell forward while climbing up on a log, but when he remembered the boy with the stick lifted to kill him he decided that after all it was better, much better, to be alive. He soon discovered that he was badly handicapped if he tried to fight with any of his companions and so he took pains not to quarrel with them. He discovered that he could not run, so he seldom went more than a jump from the water. He found that he could not dig as he had dug once upon a time so he no longer tried to dig up roots for food, but hunted more for other food.

Altogether, however, he got along surprisingly well for one so crippled. Fortunately he was seen by Farmer Brown's Boy. After that there was always plenty to eat where he could easily get it. So he grew strong and big and more and more clever in getting about on three legs. But always he remembered the dreadful lesson of the trap and never once did he forget to look carefully before putting a foot down anywhere. Even when there was no reason to think that there might be traps about he was just so careful.

Jerry Muskrat used to notice this and grin, but he took care that the young Muskrat shouldn't see him do it. "He'll live to be old and wise," said Jerry to Mrs. Jerry. "It was a dreadful lesson, but it has made a new Muskrat of him. Yes, sir, it has so. Notice how ready he is to listen to advice, now. He was headstrong and heedless, but now he is cautious and watchful and suspicious. Never again will he be caught in a trap, nor is he likely to be caught by any of our enemies. He may be crippled so far as that leg is concerned, but there is nothing crippled about his wits."

It was so. In time that crippled young Muskrat proved to be the smartest of all the young Muskrats and was quite capable of taking care of himself. But, he had paid a dreadful price. Don't you think so?

Chef Wyman's RECIPES

Every Friday at 2 o'clock Mrs. A. L. Wyman will conduct a free class and demonstration of good cookery in the lecture room of the Southwest Building, 130 South Broadway.

STUFFED BAKED ORANGES

Wash even-sized oranges and cut off a piece from the stem end, carefully remove all the pulp, and cut it in even-sized pieces, mix with it an equal amount of crushed pineapple and about a dozen chopped maraschino cherries, sweeten to taste and fill the orange shells with the mixture. Place on top of each one a teaspoonful of butter, arrange in a baking dish and bake until the skins are tender, so they can easily be pierced with a toothpick. A medium oven is required. Cover them for the first half-hour of baking and baste them occasionally with a little of the juice that is left from the filling.

MOANA COMBINATION SALAD

Remove the breast from a cold boiled chicken and cut it into match-sized strips, cut three slices of pineapple in small dice, remove the pulp from a medium-sized avocado and cut it into dice. Dice the pulp of one medium-sized grapefruit and one orange, cut in small pieces four cooked artichoke hearts, and cut in small pieces enough cooked asparagus tips to make one cupful. Pour over the mixture a lemon French dressing and allow it to chill for two or three hours. Drain well, serve on a nest of shredded lettuce, decorate with a spiral of mayonnaise and garnish with small mounds of capers, ripe olives, and strips of pimientoes.

BREAD PUDDING

Cover three cupfuls of stale bread crumbs with four cupfuls of milk, beat the yolks of four eggs until light and creamy and beat into them three-fourths of a cupful of sugar. Add to the bread-crumb mixture beating it in well. Cover one cupful of seedless raisins with boiling water and allow them to become plump, drain and add to the batter with one tablespoonful of grated lemon rind, one tablespoonful of lemon juice, four tablespoonfuls of chopped candied grapefruit peel and the same amount of candied orange peel. Pour into a well-oiled baking dish, sprinkle the top with cinnamon and bake in a slow oven for one hour. Remove from the oven, cool slightly, cover with a meringue made from egg whites and brown in a slow oven.

SCALLOPED MACARONI WITH VEGETABLES

One package of macaroni, one cupful of cooked cauliflower, one cupful of cooked diced carrots, one cupful of cooked string beans, one-half a cupful of cooked celery, one medium-sized onion, cooked and chopped, one cupful of milk, three tablespoonfuls of butter, three tablespoonfuls of flour and one cupful of the vegetable stock. Break the macaroni in small pieces and cook in boiling water, then drain; place the butter in the top of a double boiler, add the flour and when well blended, stir in the milk and the vegetable stock. Stir constantly until well thickened, mix all the vegetables carefully, season with salt and paprika, place a layer of the macaroni in an oiled baking dish, cover with a layer of the vegetables, then a layer of the sauce, having the macaroni for a top layer. Sprinkle with well-buttered bread crumbs, dot with bits of butter and bake in a medium oven for thirty minutes.

Mrs. Wyman does not reply to letters, but requests for recipes are answered in the department, PRACTICAL RECIPES published every Friday.—(All rights to reproduce reserved by A. L. Wyman.)

Sweaters

If you wear a great many sweaters and sweater suits you will find they will stay in shape far better if folded carefully and laid away in a drawer after wearing. To be aired they should be folded loosely over the crossbar of a coat hanger. They are bound to lose their shape if hung on hangers such as ordinary clothes are hung.

WILBUR ISSUES HIS ULTIMATUM

Communities Must Agree on Colorado Allocation

Signing of All-American Canal Contract Otherwise

Secretary of Interior in Letter to Imperial Group

EL CENTRO, Dec. 5. — California communities seeking water from Colorado River allocation must agree among themselves as to the amount of their individual water rights under interstate agreement before a contract between Imperial Valley and the Department of Interior for the construction of the all-American Canal can be drafted.

The ultimatum, in the form of a letter from Secretary Ray Lyman Wilbur, was made public by directors of the Imperial Irrigation District today. The division of Colorado River water within the State is a matter which the State, and the Department of the Interior, must work out, the Secretary said. His letter setting forth the policy of the department, is as follows:

INFORMATION LACKING

"It has been pointed out to me by attorneys drafting the proposed All-American Canal reimbursement contract that it will be impossible to insert a definite figure to cover the quantity of water to be delivered under the contract, until the State of California has recommended to us an apportionment of California's share of the water of the Colorado River. While an agreement between the Metropolitan Water District and the Imperial group, so called, has been submitted to the department, we have no information as to the division between the Palo Verde Irrigation District, the Yuma project in California, and the proposed contractors for all-American Canal water. In addition, we have been advised by the city and county of San Diego that it claims certain rights and it may be necessary for us to take up with the office of Indian Affairs the question of providing water for certain Indian reservations in California.

"In my opinion, the division of California's share of the Colorado River water among various California users is a matter which the State and not the Department of the Interior should work out and recommend to the department.

RECOMMENDATIONS MADE

"Accordingly, there is inclosed a copy of recommendations which the State division of water rights has submitted to the Department of the Interior, after it has determined what figures and provisions should be inserted in the blanks. This division, when finally determined, presumably through agreement of all interests and approval by the proper State authorities, will be included as a standard clause in every California water contract, prior to submission and final recommendation by the State. It will be desirable to have a draft available here in order to determine whether there has been a satisfactory disposition of all questions of water apportionment which must be solved in the [illegible] contracts.

"Copies of this letter are being sent to the State Division of Water Rights, the Metropolitan Water District, the Palo Verde Irrigation District, the Yuma project, the Bureau of Indian Affairs, the city and county of San Diego and the Coachella Valley Water District."

POOR FISH PREFER BLOND

She Has a Good Line and They Bite

Miss Doris Manly and Trout Sent to President's Table

AZUSA, Dec. 5.—It is said that gentlemen prefer blonds, and this popular adage might well apply to the mountain trout in the streams at the Rainbow Angling Club here, as they have proved a fondness for being caught by Miss Doris Manly, local blond beauty, who has smashed all feminine records in fishing at the club.

Miss Manly last week made a beautiful catch of twenty-four trout, which she forwarded immediately to the White House as a treat to President and Mrs. Hoover.

Today she was all smiles for she had received a letter from the President stating that the trout had arrived in great shape. The letter she received follows:

"My Dear Miss Manly: The trout which you were good enough to send the President have been received. They will, I am sure, be very much enjoyed. The President asks me to thank you for your thoughtfulness.

"Sincerely yours,
"LAWRENCE RICHEY,"
"Secretary to the President."

He added that he should be obliged to resign soon anyway, on account of his health and the demands of his business. He was appointed by Gov. Young.

Inquest Holds Rancher Died by Own Hand

VENTURA, Dec. 5.—Malcolm McLeod, 41 years of age, of the Cuyama Valley, was found to have come to his death by a gunshot wound, self-administered, according to Coroner Reardon, who yesterday held an inquest over the body.

McLeod, a miner, had quarreled with his wife on Monday, had hit her and threatened to kill her and himself, it was reported. In fear she went into Cuyama, and from there was taken to Taft by friends.

McLeod was last seen alive on Tuesday morning. A. Jacobus of Taft arrived at the ranch Wednesday afternoon to deliver an order of feed for the stock. He discovered the body in a corner of the living-room, doubled over and lying in a pool of blood. A sixteen-guage pump gun was lying by the body. The man had apparently been dead for twenty-four hours.

MASONS LAY CORNER-STONE

Grand Master John Stewart Ross Officiates at Rites at Site of $300,000 Santa Ana Temple

SANTA ANA, Dec. 5.—Nearly 1000 Masons and their families and friends were present this afternoon when the corner-stone of the $300,000 Santa Ana Masonic Temple was laid at the site of the new Masonic Temple at Fifth and Sycamore streets. The silver implements were plied by Grand Master John Stewart Ross of the California Grand Lodge of Masons. Rev. W. Judson Oldfield, pastor of the Congregational Church [illegible] acting as Grand Orator, gave the principal address.

Following his remarks, the Grand Master placed the 700-pound granite block containing a box in place. The box inside the stone laid today was made by Albert Hill, son of Sam Hill, pioneer local [illegible], who prepared the box placed in the corner-stone of the first Masonic Temple built in 1903. The old box, intact and unopened, was placed in the box prepared by Hill today.

Reviewing the history of the Masonic organizations of Santa Ana and Orange county, Linn L. Shaw, [illegible] recalled that but three of the twenty-three grand lodge officers present at the 1903 corner-stone laying were alive today and paid special tribute to the memory of J. P. Greeley of Balboa, [illegible] superintendent of schools, who was largely instrumental in bringing about the building of the first Santa Ana Masonic Temple. Greeley was among the spectators today.

Previous to the corner-stone-laying, the Knight Templars led a march to the scene of the new building.

Among those who assisted in the ceremonies were E. B. Trago, Santa Ana, acting deputy Grand Master; Henry McMasters, Fullerton, acting senior Grand Warden; Leon O. Whitsell, Burlingame; Rev. Horace Austin, Long Beach, Architect.

Newspaper Man of Civil War Period Passes

CORONA, Dec. 5. — Henry R. W. Smith, 82 years of age, one of the few remaining newspaper men of the Civil War period, died suddenly shortly after noon today. Although he had been confined to his home for several months on account of poor health, his death was a shock to the family and his scores of friends throughout the city.

Smith made his home with his nephew, R. L. Paxon, and family, at 1018 Howard street.

He was a newspaper man during his active years and held positions on the Cincinnati Gazette and New York papers during the Civil War. He was also associated with the Chicago Tribune. Since coming to Corona he has lived a life of retirement, although he took much interest in national affairs.

He was in close touch with many of the prominent men of his newspaper days, and enjoyed relating incidents concerning their political experiences.

Definite funeral arrangements have not been announced. Arrangements will not be completed until eastern relatives are heard from, but it is probable services will be conducted Monday.

Oxnard School Vacations Cut

OXNARD, Dec. 5.—Oxnard schools will have one less week of vacation at Christmas and another week taken away from the spring vacation, according to W. D. Bannister, principal of the Oxnard Union High School, and R. B. Haydock of the Oxnard grammar schools.

The schools will let out in the spring for the summer vacation two weeks sooner, letting out at the same time as the Ventura schools.

So many of the schools in Ventura county start and end at various times that it is confusing to parents and different school heads, stated Haydock, announcing the change, that it was thought best to conform to the time Ventura schools close.

However, the Oxnard schools will start two weeks sooner than the Ventura schools, as the Oxnard school year is forty weeks instead of the thirty-eight weeks for some of the other schools.

TROUT PLANNED IN STREAMS OF COUNTY

SANTA PAULA, Dec. 5.—With the planting today of 55,000 Lochleven rainbow and steelhead trout in the Santa Paula, Matilija and Wheeler creeks, and the Ventura River, by local sportsmen under the supervision of Walter Emerick, assistant fish and game commissioner, the county streams are now well supplied with fish, Emerick stated. Last Monday 55,000 trout were planted in the Sespe, Piru and Lockwood creeks, and about 20,000 were planted this morning in Santa Paula Creek. The trout were brought to this city in specially constructed cans from the Independence hatcheries.

REFINERY FIRE FATAL TO ONE

Guy Stewart Victim of Oil Blast at Fillmore

Succumbs Four Hours After Explosion of Still

Flames Sweep Eighty Feet in Air During Blaze

FILLMORE, Dec. 5.—Within four hours after he had been caught in the flaming explosion of an oil-well still at the Texas Company refinery here at 3:30 p.m. yesterday, Guy Stewart, 35 years of age, still fireman, died in the Big Sisters' Hospital at Ventura.

Stewart received the full force of the blast caused when oil heated to 700 deg. burst its way through a ruptured tube in a high-pressure unit. The clothing was burned from his body. He fought his way outside and was taken to the hospital.

Against the ensuing fire, which damaged the interior of the plant to a slight degree, Fillmore and the Texas Company fire departments fought for thirty minutes with three streams of water.

A device which permitted oil in the endangered stills to be dumped at a distant point, saved the refinery from becoming a veritable inferno.

The flames swept through the refinery, leaping as high as eighty feet into the air at times. The force of the blast hurled a 150-pound piece of iron some distance from the refinery.

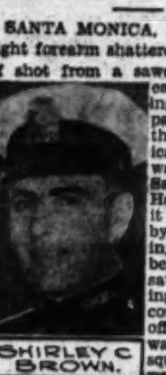
Stewart, who was attempting to light the boilers in the still room, received the full blast of the scorching fluid in his face and body.

He was the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Stewart and has resided in this city for eight years. He was a native of Missouri.

Funeral arrangements had not been completed tonight.

Officer's Arm Shattered by Shotgun Charge

SANTA MONICA, Dec. 5. — His right forearm shattered by a charge of shot from a sawed-off shotgun early this morning, S. C. Brown, patrolman on the Santa Monica police force, was in the Santa Monica Hospital, where it was believed by surgeons the injured member could be saved. According to the account of brother officers, Brown was with a squad receiving weapons for the morning watch, a detail which goes from the station at 2 a.m., as a robbery detail, using automobiles. He is said to have picked the loaded shotgun up by the barrel, and in some manner the trigger accidentally struck a corner of a desk. He was taken to the hospital, where at first it was believed the shattered forearm might have to be amputated; but a later report stated his condition was favorable and that the member might be saved.



SHIRLEY C. BROWN.

Brown has a fine record on the local force, according to his superior officers.

"FIGHTING THREE" SAFE WAR BIRDS

Navy Eagles Given Schiff Trophy for Efficient Work

This Squadron Flew 600,000 Miles Without Mishap

These pilots of the "striking eagles," fighting plane squadron three of the Lexington, won the Herbert Schiff Memorial Trophy for the year ending in July for flying their Wasp-powered Boeing fighters 4958 hours and 600,000 miles from the carrier decks without an accident. In a ceremony at Washington yesterday President Hoover handed the trophy to Lieutenant-Commander Samuel P. Ginder, representing the squadron. Front row, left to right—Lieuts. R. F. Hazelton, Medical Corps; C. H. Quinn, C. H. Lewis and W. E. Gladding; Lieutenant-Commander G. F. Bogan, commanding officer, and Lieuts. E. W. Litch, Appollo Soucek, R. R. Darron and F. Bunner. Rear row, left to right—Ensign R. H. Callahan and Lieuts. F. N. Taylor, R. S. Purvis, W. T. Stucky, R. B. Pirie, F. L. Busey, J. P. Heath, P. H. Ramsey and W. E. Rodee.

SAN DIEGO, Dec. 5. — While President Hoover is handing to Lieutenant-Commander Samuel P. Ginder the Schiff trophy today, "Fighting Three," the Navy's youngest squadron of fighters, is piling up more hours in the air with safety.

These yellow-tailed "striking eagles," as they are known, won the Herbert Schiff trophy this year for flying 4958 hours and 600,000 miles without an accident.

In their eighteen Wasp-powered Boeing fighters, pilots of VF-3 made 861 take-offs and landings on the three aircraft carriers, Saratoga, Lexington and Langley. On occasions the squadron landed rapidly on one of the carriers in the record time of a plane a minute.

The Schiff trophy is awarded the naval squadron which flies the largest number of hours each year without an accident. The eighteen aviators and sixty-five enlisted men of VF-3 will keep the trophy received by Commander Ginder, last year's commanding officer, until July, 1931, when a new award will be made.

Each year the cup, presented to the Navy by the family of Lieut. Herbert Schiff, a naval reserve aviator who was killed in line of duty on July 11, 1924, goes to the "safest" squadron.

Fighting Three is attached to the Lexington and is considered one of the Navy's most efficient squadron units. The Boeing planes flown have a high speed of approximately 180 miles per hour.

Next spring forty-six more like fighters will be added to the carrier's equipment.

THIEF TAKES SLEUTH'S PANTS

While Carl Wallace, Finger-print Expert of Ventura Sheriff's Office, Sleeps, His Best Trousers Are Purloined, and 'Nary Clew Discovered

VENTURA, Dec. 5.—"Carl, Carl, has lost his pants, and can't tell where to find 'em. Leave 'em alone and they'll come home, dragging suspenders behind 'em, while he goes 'round in a barrel."

So sang deputies in Sheriff Robert Clarke's office today, when Carl Wallace appeared with the news that he is minus the trousers of his best suit.

Carl, fingerprint expert, deputy Sheriff in charge of identification of criminals, active member in the Peace Officers' Association of the county, and vice-president of the California division of the International Association for Identification, is known up and down the State of California as a clever sleuth who always gets his clew.

The Ventura pants thief is apparently no respecter of the law. With one pants' catch already to his credit, he again dared the "long arm" to reach him last night and entered the Wallace home here, where Carl was peacefully sleeping.

The Wallace trousers had been carefully hung over a half-open closet door to maintain their degree of perfect creasing, suspended by the suspenders.

Carl awoke, certain that someone was in the room. He turned on the lights, grabbed his trusty gun and started down the hall. The front door was standing wide open.

He returned to his bedroom and noticed a bureau drawer half opened, swung around and saw that his pants were missing. A call for the local police was put through and he sallied forth to find a clew, if not his purloined nether garments.

Nary one presented itself to Carl's watchful eye. With the officers he scoured the district around his home, in the vain hope of finding the much-needed pants. There was no money in them, so Carl hoped the thief would discard them, but apparently the marauder was as eager for them as the owner.

So today, the veteran sleuth of the Sheriff's office was lamenting the break in his wardrobe, and wearing a pair of striped summer flannels.

CAR DEALER AMUSED; TAKEN FOR BANDIT

REDLANDS, Dec. 5.—Frank Clay automobile dealer of Pasadena, feels sure station bandits are not popular. Last night he stopped at an outlying station here and at the same time another car stopped in the dark a short distance away. The station operator became suspicious, got out his gun and sent in a call for the police. Clay was amused but stood quietly until the police arrived and then proved his intentions were no more serious than the buying of five gallons of gas. Profuse apologies closed the incident.

Philharmonic Orchestra Will Be Organized

ANAHEIM, Dec. 5.—Definite decision to organize an Orange County Philharmonic Orchestra of at least ninety pieces was reached at a recent special meeting of interested persons gathering at the Orange High School, and Louis Dans of this city was named temporary chairman of the group.

The orchestra is being formed to provide an incentive for development of musical talent. It will perfect itself for unit performance as soon as possible, and will give one concert each year in Fullerton, Anaheim, Orange and Santa Ana, according to the voluntary leader, D. C. Cianfoni of Santa Ana.

First efforts of the organizers will be to formulate a set of rules under which the orchestra will operate, and to find sponsors who will assist in the finances. They predict no insurmountable difficulties in the tasks before them, Dans says.

CLAREMONT EDUCATOR DIES

Last Rites Today for Dr. Robert Day Williams, One of Pomona's Most Distinguished Sons

CLAREMONT, Dec. 5.—Funeral services for Dr. Robert Day Williams, professor of experimental psychology in Pomona College and one of Pomona's most distinguished graduates, will be conducted Saturday at 2 p.m. in Todd & Reeves Chapel, Pomona. Rev. A. D. Stauffacher, pastor of the Claremont Church, and Dr. James A. Blaisdell, president of Claremont Colleges, will be in charge. Two solos will be sung by Prof. Arthur Babcock, lifelong friend of the deceased.

In addition to the funeral service, a memorial service will be conducted in Bridges Hall, Pomona College, on the 14th inst.

Dr. Williams died late Wednesday night after an illness of five weeks. He was taken to the Scripps Clinic at La Jolla sometime ago but returned home last Friday. His illness was never diagnosed. Death came suddenly after a day when he said he had been feeling his best.

Dr. Williams was born at Marblehead, Mass., July 26, 1881, and at the age of 5 years came with his parents to Kansas City, where his father, Rev. John H. Williams, had a pastorate. At 11 years of age, he came with his family to Redlands where his father occupied a pulpit for twenty years.

Dr. Williams enrolled in Pomona College as a freshman in 1899 and was graduated in 1903.

His brilliancy as a student was recognized by his appointment under a Leconte Fellowship in the science department at the University of California, Berkeley. After a year in Berkeley he was granted the first Yale scholarship given a student from Southern California, and it was at Yale that he took his doctor's degree. He worked his way through graduate school by coloring botanical slides and by his skill as a magician. He also assisted in paying his expenses through Pomona by his ability as a magician.

He received his M.A. from Yale in 1907 and Ph.D., in 1909. In the latter year he returned to Pomona, where he taught several sciences.

In 1915 he went to Hawaii, where for three years he was president of the Mid-Pacific Institute at Honolulu. From 1918 to 1920 he was in war work. In 1918 he became educational secretary for the National War Council of the Y.M.C.A., and traveled through all States of the Union and visited all of the wartime camps. Later he went to Beaune, France, where he was professor of phychology in the A.E.F. University.

Returning to Claremont in 1920 he had been occupied with his teaching in Pomona College, with the exception of the college year, 1924-1925, when he was exchange professor at Harvard University and Radcliffe College.

Dr. Williams was first married to Jessie Hays in Kansas City in 1910, who died here about ten years ago. In 1925 he married Miss Margaret Ray of Redlands, who is a teacher in the Claremont city schools.

There were two children by the first marriage, Richard, a member of the Class of 1933 in Pomona College; Douglas and Palmer Day Williams.

In addition to Mrs. Williams and the children, he leaves his mother, Mrs. J. H. Williams, three sisters, Miss Helen Williams, dean of girls at Redlands High School; Mrs. Mabel Nickerson of Redlands, and Mrs. Grace Bryan of Stockton. His nephew, Edwin Bryan, is curator of the Bishop Museum in Honolulu.

Dr. Williams was beloved by the entire community as well as by a host of students who knew him in their years in Pomona. He was a member of the Claremont Church, a fellow in the A.A.A.S., a member of the American Philosophical Association, of the College Club, Campus Club, national Travel Club, National Geographical Society, Social Science Club and the Community Players.

VETO GIVEN ON WATER PROJECT

Chamber at San Bernardino Against $3,000,000 Plan

Mojave River Development Scheme Not Favored

Mass Meeting on Previous Day Had Indorsed It

SAN BERNARDINO, Dec. 5.—Following a mass meeting of citizens Thursday when a large water development plan on the Mojave River was advocated, the Chamber of Commerce directors met this afternoon and vetoed the project which would entail an expenditure of $3,000,000.

Dissatisfaction with the routing of the Colorado River aqueduct at Parker has been expressed here and some have even suggested that San Bernardino withdraw from the Metropolitan Water District and develop its own water supply from the surplus flow in the Mojave River. The chamber directors, today, however, went on record as favoring San Bernardino remaining a part of the metropolitan district.

DIVERSE VIEWS EXPECTED

The chamber's action makes it possible divergent views will be presented to the City Council next week on the water situation, with the Mojave project supporters asking withdrawal from the metropolitan district and chamber officials opposing such action.

Proposal to expend $3,000,000 incidental to development of 1000 inches of surplus water in the Mojave River for use in San Bernardino was considered at the meeting Thursday. The meeting was called by Royal H. Mack, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, at the request of State Senator Ralph E. Swing.

The project would include two powerhouses in Devil Canyon and purchase of water rights.

DAM AND TUNNEL PLANNED

W. P. Rowe, San Bernardino water engineer, has made a technical investigation of the situation, which calls for a dam at an elevation of 3800 feet to impound the water. The water would then be transported through the mountains north of the city in a three-mile tunnel. It was pointed out that with comparatively little expense surplus waters that now flow into dry lakes would be impounded in this dam.

Comparison of the advantages of the project with those of the Metropolitan Water District will be made, it is contemplated. The revenues from power and water would be sufficient to amortise a bond issue for $3,000,000, it is estimated.

BODY MAY BE THAT OF DESERTER

Remains Found in Hills Near Pasadena Thought March Field Private's

PASADENA, Dec. 5.—Belief that the half-skeletonized body of a man found Monday night in the hills east of the Church of the Angels is that of Private Gilbert Lieber who deserted from the United States Air Corps in 1928, is expressed in a letter received by the local police department today.

An automatic pistol and a bullet hole in the skull indicated the man had taken his life after [illegible] to the secluded spot where the remains were found by hikers. Clews to the identity of the body included an aviator's sterling silver [illegible] fob, a peculiar method of [illegible] shoelaces, and a large amount of gold-crown work on upper and lower teeth.

In the letter, Lieut. James [illegible] Givens of March Field, [illegible] reported that after reading the description of the body in The Times, he had concluded the body [illegible] is that of Private Lieber, [illegible] asserted to have deserted [illegible] appeared after contracting gambling debts. A total of 2 cents was found in the clothing. Detective Lieutenants Robert O'Rourke and Clair Corbin reported that the condition of the body is such that a positive identification may never be made.

Private Lieber is reported to have been bald. The head of the body also is bald, but the detectives think the hair disappeared as the result of weathering.

SUPERVISORS HONOR GUESTS

John R. Quinn and Hugh Thatcher Speak at Meeting of Long Beach Boulevard Improvement Body

HUNTINGTON PARK, Dec. 5.—Holding their December meeting in this city last night, the Long Beach Boulevard Improvement Association had as special guests two county Supervisors, John R. Quinn and Hugh Thatcher, both of whom made short talks, after which they were declared honorary members of the association. Supervisor Quinn stated that he and Thatcher were on a committee known as the "country" committee of the Board of Supervisors, for the reason that they had considerable territory in their districts which is outside the cities.

He also made a few remarks as to major highways, after which he extended an invitation to anyone in the districts to call at the offices of the supervisors and make their wants and needs known.

Supervisor Thatcher stated that the big problem in Southern California is that of water, but that this will be taken care of with the construction of Boulder Dam. He also touched upon the unemployment situation for a moment and then remarked that there is another problem that will in all probability have to be faced, and that is the five-days-a-week working proposition. He stated that this problem is "what will the working man do with the extra day?" He added that this might become a serious proposition—this one day of leisure.

WHAT COLOR IS SEA?

The color of sea water is a question that has never been positively settled. A Belgian physicist named Spring tried to settle the question some time ago by experiments with sea water in which he used tubes over seventy feet long. He concluded that pure sea water really was blue. But unless it were absolutely pure, he pointed out, it seemed green or even yellow—effects due to the presence of vegetable matter and certain salts.

Lord Rayleigh, after using long tubes like those of Spring, declared that the true color of the sea was green. It looked blue, he said, because of light reflected from the sky.

But another famous scientist, the late Sir E. Ray Lankester, brought strong arguments to support the popular view of the sea's color.

The color of shallow water, he said, is turquoise blue and of deep water indigo blue, the suggestion of green being due to impurities in the water. "The fact that clear water of the sea and lakes is definitely blue," he added, "when the sky is quite overcast, disposes of the theory that its blueness arises from the reflected color of the sky."

Fete Ushers in Holiday Season at Long Beach

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

LONG BEACH, Dec. 5.—A Mother Goose book opened its magic pages tonight in the glare of searchlights from battleships, of giant flood rays from tops of buildings, and the deeper tints of thousands of incandescents shining from Christmas trees, to usher in the holiday season.

Seven thousand children, of whom some followed the Pied Piper, others the Three Bears, and among whom strolled such well-known characters as Little Red Riding Hood and the Wolf that wickedly tried to swallow her, joined in a street parade marking the turning on of the lights in the street decorations.

Ten bands also were in the line of march, and 105 adult representatives of fraternal organizations. In front of the reviewing stand, before the parade started, were held exercises in which sixty representatives of organizations in the Chamber of Commerce participated.

At 7 p.m. Mayor Fickling turned on the street lights, and simultaneously the parade with its floats and adolescent and adult marchers swung into ste

Tree Sale to Finance Park

A plan for the sale of Christmas trees to provide funds to commence the planting of a memorial nut tree grove in Griffith Park was announced yesterday by the League of Los Angeles City Beautifiers. The league also will act as a clearinghouse for Christmas toys and other gifts for needy children donated by persons desiring to spread happiness and cheer.

The Christmas trees to be sold will be put on display in the headquarters in the Security Building.

Mrs. Mabel Socha, president of the Los Angeles Park Board, Mayor Porter and Orra E. Monnette will participate in a tree-planting ceremony in Griffith Park on the 18th inst., beginning the establishment of what is to be the memorial nut tree park.

FEAR FOR RELATIVES EN ROUTE HERE FELT

Fears for the safety of her mother and aunt were expressed yesterday by Miss Selma Chesler of 1237 South Redondo Boulevard, who reported they have failed to arrive here on schedule from Chicago. The missing women are Mrs. Sadie Levy and Mrs. Celia Chesler. They left Chicago on the Santa Fe November 29, last, and addressed a postcard to Miss Chesler from Gallup, N. M. Monday. Their train arrived here Tuesday at 7 a.m., but they were not aboard. Miss Chesler met all other incoming trains Tuesday and Wednesday without sighting her relatives. In the hope of obtaining some clew, Miss Chesler requests that passengers on the Santa Fe train that arrived here at 7 a.m. Tuesday communicate with her at ORegon 4033.

TICKET FOUND TO BIG GAME

But Drug Clerk's Joy Short Lived When He Finds It's Stolen

E. S. Wheeler, clerk in the Peerless Pharmacy, Santa Barbara and Moneta avenues, was greatly elated yesterday when he found on the sidewalk in front of the store, the torn fragments of a ticket to the Notre Dame-U.S.C. football game today. He pasted the torn fragments together.

Then he saw in a newspaper that a ticket for the game had been part of the plunder taken by a bandit who Thursday held up Miss Helen Hynes of 1561 West Twenty-ninth street. Investigation proved this to be the ticket.

NAVY GIVES UP SAILOR TO FACE TRIAL

Petty Officer Accused of Attack on Small Sons Surrendered to Police

Surrendered to civil authorities by the Naval Air Base at San Diego, Edward Frost, 34-year-old chief petty officer, was brought to San Pedro yesterday by Detective Lieutenants Fuller and Vigneaux, and held in connection with the asserted beating of his three small boys at Harbor City, November 19, last. He was booked on two counts of assault with intent to commit bodily harm.

Frost called at the home of his mother-in-law, 1625 West Two Hundred and Twentieth street, Harbor City, and invited his sons, Jackie, 12, Fred, 8, and Torrance, 6, on an automobile ride. Stopping the car in the country, police charge, he struck all three and left them in a field.

Suffering a scalp wound, Jackie dragged Torrance back to their grandmother's home and then collapsed. When he regained consciousness after midnight he led officers to the field where Fred was found unconscious. The boys told police their father had set upon them without provocation. All have since recovered.

Frost has one more year to serve in the Navy.

Pantages's Son to Take Bride in Near Future

Rodney Pantages, son of Alexander and Mrs. Lois Pantages, will be married to Miss Beryl Sweeney, 400 North Orange Drive, in the near future, according to announcement made yesterday from the Pantages home. The announcement of the betrothal of the young couple was made, according to Rodney, to a group of their friends about two months ago but not publicly.

Miss Sweeney is a nonprofessional and resides with her parents at the Orange Drive address.

"It is true we are engaged but there are no plans as yet for the wedding," said Rodney yesterday. "We hope, however," he said, "that it will be in the near future."

The couple met some months ago at a social function. Rodney, with his brother Lloyd, manages the Pantages Theater in Hollywood. Their father for years has been prominent in the theatrical business and is owner of the Hollywood theater which they operate.

Man Lodged in Jail as Daylight Robber Suspect

Sought for months as the "Wilshire daylight burglar," responsible for numerous burglaries in the Wilshire, Hollywood, Altadena and San Marino districts, Charles F. Mellin, 42 years of age, yesterday was arrested and held in the County Jail.

Following Mellin's arrest, investigators under Capt. Stensland, head of the Sheriff's burglary and robbery detail, began a search for a mysterious woman associate of the accused man.

Search of his record disclosed that he has been arrested eighteen times since 1903 and has served time in the penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga., and at San Quentin and Folsom, according to Stensland. When arrested he gave his address as 126 West Vernon avenue.

Vegetable Men of Two States Elect Officers

Vegetable growers and shippers of California and Arizona, representing a $100,000,000 agricultural industry, had their annual meeting yesterday at the Alexandria.

Miller, Brawley, second vice-president, and John S. Arena, Los Angeles, treasurer. C. B. Moore is executive secretary of the organization.

The membership now includes growers and shippers of 90 per cent of the 135,000 annual carlot movement of vegetables and melons from California and Arizona.
